

"SCOUTS OF THE WORLD BUILDING TOGETHER"

Boy Scout Week

February 8-14

Nearly 2,000,000 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Senior Scouts will mark the 36th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America during Boy Scout Week, Feb. 8th to 14th. The theme of the celebration is "Scouts of the World—Building Together." Members of the Movement are helping brother Scouts throughout the world to reorganize. Their "World Friendship Fund" of voluntary contributions and their "Shirts-Off-Our-Backs" project of donating Scout Uniform parts and equipment, will assist Scouting overseas and help develop understanding among the boys of the world. Above is the official poster marking the event.

"Record for Wartime Services Enviably" — President Truman

President Truman, in a message to the Boy Scouts of America on its thirty-sixth anniversary today (Friday) opening a nation-wide observance of Boy Scout Week, Feb. 8th to 14th, said that the "theme for the year, 'Scouts of the World—Building Together' is timely, refreshing and appropriate."

In his message to the 1,977,463 members of the Boy Scouts of America, of which he is Honorary President, Mr. Truman said, "Your record for wartime services accomplished is enviable."

President Truman's message, made public today by James Walton, the President of the Norumbega Council, Boy Scouts of America, follows:

Capt. Eugene Leger Killed in Fire at Tinkham Field

Funeral services for Capt. Eugene Leger, technician in the U. S. Army Air Forces, who lost his life in the fire which destroyed the Air Force hangar at Tinkham Field, Oklahoma on January 28, were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the First Church in Newton, Newton Centre.

Capt. Leger was in his 26th year. He was a graduate of the Newton High School and of the University of Maine.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene F. Leger of 47 Bothfeld road, Newton Centre, his wife, Mrs. Constance Philbrook Leger, a six months' old daughter, Constance Ann, and a sister, Barbara.

How Rent Control Works

To save the people of the country from sky-rocketing rents—and to guard against inflation, Congress passed the Emergency Price Control Act in January 1942.

Under this act, Rent Control was recognized as an integral part of Price Control in keeping down the cost of living. Under the authority of the act, the OPA Administrator has the power to designate certain areas as "Defense-Rental Areas"—and to recommend that local groups and authorities take action to stabilize or reduce rents within these areas at a specified Maximum Rent Date. If local action is not taken within 60 days after recommendation, OPA may establish Federal Rent Control. As a general principle, rents must not be higher than the rents in effect on the Maximum Rent Date.

Two types of Regulations have been issued by OPA. The Housing Regulation applies to houses, apartments, flats, and tenements—and to quarters in private homes where the landlord rents to not more than two paying tenants. The Hotel and Rooming House Regulation applies to all rooms in hotels, boarding or rooming houses, and to auto and trailer camps.

"Should Newton Have Two High Schools?" was the subject discussed by Dr. Homer Anderson, Superintendent of Schools, and by Mr. Raymond Green, Principal of Newton High School, at the meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of the Weeks Junior High School on Tuesday evening, February 5th. Mr. A. Carlton Warren, President of the Association, presided. Members of the local School Building Committees as well as School Committee members were present.

Dr. Anderson presented his proposals for a school building program which will give Newton an adequate school plant in the immediate future as well as for years to come. He showed, with maps and diagrams, Newton's ultimate need for five Junior High Schools, some of them relocated freeing the Weeks Junior High School building for use as a second Senior High school to serve the growing southern section of Newton. He pointed out that the two High Schools would relieve much traffic congestion in Newtonville.

Mme. Liu Ching Tung Speaker Federation, Forum, Auburndale

The Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Edwin Troland, President, will hold a Club Institute-Forum meeting at the Auburndale Women's Club House at 2:00 P. M., Tuesday, February 12, 1946, with Mme. Liu Ching Tung, former Professor Swarthmore College, as the principal speaker. The program is as follows:

2:00 P. M. Opening—Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag—"Star Spangled Banner."

2:10 P. M. Welcome by Mrs. Eric J. Kernath, President Auburndale Woman's Club.

2:15 P. M. Greetings—Mrs. Arthur W. Cornell, Director Twelfth District.

2:20 Greetings from the Federation, Mrs. Harvey E. Green. (Continued on Page 8)

Newton League of Women Voters Works for Price Control

The telephone squad of the Newton League went into action when Price Control was threatened. Many telegrams were sent to the President urging him to hold the line on prices in the belief that if price controls were relaxed, inflation would follow.

The League is confident that the OPA will authorize any increases necessary to permit business to operate at a reasonable profit. Any large scale relaxation which would result in increased prices to the consumer must be resisted.

A great cross section of public thinking is represented in the League of Women Voters. It is a truly democratic, non-partisan organization working at National, State, and City levels for the common good of all.

The League employs a variety of means to arouse civil awareness, and to create public understanding and discussion of important political issues.

A Contributions Campaign is being organized to further these activities in Newton, under the chairmanship of Mrs. John L. MacNeil of 252 Franklin street. Contributions are invited from all who consider the League's work to be of significant value to the success of democracy in the United States.

Holy Name Society to Sponsor "Police Night"

St. Bernard's Holy Name Society will sponsor a "Police Night" at their next monthly meeting to be held on Wednesday evening, February 13, 1946, at 8 P. M., at the Newton Catholic Club, West Newton.

Many prominent men in police work will speak, and it promises an evening of much interest. There will also be entertainment, and refreshments will be served.

The Newton Board of Aldermen on Monday night voted unanimously to confirm the appointment of Richard H. Lee as an associate member of the Board of Appeal, Building Laws, also the re-appointment of Sydney B. Holden as a member of the Board of Assessors.

The appointment of Harold F. Young as street commissioner, submitted to the Board at the previous meeting, was again laid on the table. Also laid on the table, in accordance with the rules, was the appointment of Willard S. Pratt as city engineer, submitted to the Board by Mayor Goddard at Monday night's meeting.

The Board rejected a petition of Ralph A. Robert, a coordinator of organizations for the International Ladies' Garment Workers Association for a permit to use a sound truck in Newton on Feb. 6 and 13 to advance the interests of the strikers at the Vanta Company, one department. Scouts of the World — Building Together

The hopes of World Peace for the next fifty years depends upon what happens in the lives of boys growing up here in America and in the countries of Europe.

Boy Scout Week, February 8-14, marks the 36th Anniversary of the founding of the Movement in America.

The theme of the Boy Scouts of America for the year 1919 is "Scouts of the World—Building Together." Regardless of what treaties or agreements may be made by the Nations of the World, in the last analysis, what happens to our hopes of World Peace for the next fifty years depends upon what happens in the lives of boys growing up here in America and in the countries of Europe. If we can impress upon these boys principles of friendliness and mutual respect, we shall go a long way toward establishing a better understanding among the Nations of the World. Here in America we have nearly two million members of the Boy Scouts of America. Throughout the World there are approximately three million Scouts and Leaders. In Norumbega Council, serving Newton and Wellesley, there are about 2800 men and boys enrolled in Scouting—the greatest membership since Norumbega Council was incorporated in 1924. The local Council has a splendid record of continued progress through the years, and the high standards established for our Newton-Wellesley boys have been consistently maintained.

The Scout Program seeks to train these boys for service to others and useful citizenship. With these millions of Scouts throughout the World, we believe something truly magnificent can be done. The Scouts and Senior Scouts of Norumbega Council will join with the other Scouts of America in taking part in "Shirts-Off-Our-Back Campaign" beginning today and continuing until March 15, when uniforms, Scouting and Camping equipment will be gathered here in Newton and Wellesley and shipped all over the world to Scouts of other lands in Countries ravaged by the war.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Sir:

In numerous places throughout the Newtons there are signs of industrial and business expansion. Cellar holes have been dug for new buildings and in the spring there will appear new places of business where formerly trees and grass were growing. If we are to preserve Newton's reputation as "The Garden City" steps must be taken right away to set aside desirable land for park purposes as was suggested in a letter to the editor in your January 31st issue.

Realizing the effect which the post war burst of energy would have on the life of Newton Centre, the Improvement Association of the village long ago championed the plan to save a piece of property on the shores of Crystal Lake for recreational purposes. The property located between the lake and Centre street and between Norwood avenue and the railroad tracks of the Highland Branch had been occupied by an ice house. After it burned to the ground a pile of rubbish was left for years and still remains as an eye sore and symbol of neglect. A few years ago a change of zoning was urged and was passed so that this property was converted from the industrial zone to General Residence. This was a primary step backed by numerous citizens who did not want to see any portion of the lake shores used for commercial purposes.

Recently a petition was presented to the Mayor and the Board of Aldermen, as your paper has already reported, requesting that the property be purchased by the city for a park. While there were approximately two hundred signatures on the petition, it was evident to those obtaining endorsements that many more people were in favor of the project than could be seen in the time permitted. There is a strong feeling both in Newton Centre and in Newton Highlands to preserve the shores of Crystal Lake for the benefit and enjoyment of the citizens. The present city-owned bath and skating house on the lake is one of the most popular and beneficial of the recreational centers in all of the Newtons. The taking of the ice house property would expand these facilities in proportion to the growth of the city.

It is important for the Board of Aldermen to act now before the commercial expansion of the city swallows up forever this opportunity to preserve a spot of natural beauty.

Very truly yours,
PAUL H. PIERCE

Politics With Color

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note.)

Chairman Brownell

The prediction made in Detroit on Feb. 2 leave me somewhat agast. Chairman Brownell of the Republican National Committee is reported to have said that "if conditions improve as much in the next sixty days as they have in the past two months, the party will take both houses of Congress this fall." Just what he means by the improvement of conditions is a mystery to me, unless, of course, he refers entirely to the inside political developments in Washington and to the growing uneasiness of the people as a whole as the strike situation continues to gradually paralyze the nation's industry.

Frankly, I doubt if the average citizen cares whether or not the G.O.P. is on the way up to power again. He is interested chiefly in having somebody see to it that this country gets back on the reconstruction trail and gets there pronto. If President Truman and the Democrats can do it, well and good; if they cannot, then let's put somebody in charge who can and will. In the meantime, the thinking voter wants to know JUST WHAT the Republicans will do if they secure control of the House of Representatives this fall. Brownell must know better than most of us that it will be practically impossible for the G.O.P. to capture the Senate as well. And let us not forget that the U. S. Senate, like the State Senate here, is frequently the graveyard of much worthwhile legislation. In other words, if one party controls the Presidency and the Senate, the party in control of the House is caught in the middle and is relatively impotent. They can initiate legislation, to be sure, and they can also do their best to block it, BUT they cannot actually secure the passage of any bill, regardless of its importance.

Now, from a strict party standpoint, G.O.P. naturally wants to make a beginning in its climb back to power. The House is the obvious place to start. Also, only 27 votes are needed to switch control of this body away from the administration. Furthermore, past records indicate that a turnover in Congress in a by-election year like 1918 is apt to mean a turnover in the Presidency at the next regular election. So, watch closely for inside developments in the coming months. Remember, however, that many Congressmen will be talking with their tongues in their cheeks. Being human, they cannot help worrying a little about their chances of reelection. Again, with labor in the saddle and with the White House doing very little to push it off the saddle, we cannot expect the average Congressman to be too noble and unselfish.

Judge Swift

It has been my pleasure to know Judge Swift, the storm-centre of the recent UNO debate on the problem of a site, for many years. A fairer and squarer gentleman never lived. It pains me to have any member of the United Nations Organization take such a wicked part as the Judge, whose chief offense appears to be that he made a frank and honest speech before a religious organization on Jan. 20 in Boston. We Americans believe in free speech and Judge Swift is a very typical American. Furthermore, he is one of the leading Catholic laymen in the country and it is only natural that he should resent the typical Russian attitude toward the Catholic church. Just why should

Mayor Curley

How much longer will it be Mayor Curley? Just what happens if and when he starts serving a sentence? Will the Federal Judge let him off provided that he resigns as Mayor? What influence did all this have on the UNO site-picking delegation? Quite a bit, I should imagine.

Weekly Quiz

Answering last week's quiz:—Landon carried only two states in 1936 (Maine and Vermont); the late Wendell L. Wilkie carried ten states in 1940 and Gov. Dewey of New York carried twelve states in 1944.

This week's question is: Name the American statesman who failed in business, was defeated for the Legislature, failed in business again, was elected to the Legislature, had a nervous breakdown, was defeated for Speaker, defeated for Elector, defeated for Congress, then elected to Congress, defeated for U. S. Senate, defeated for Vice-President, and THEN was elected President of the United States.

view, that of the possible need for added High School facilities if Newton should decide to adopt a program of post-graduate education. He called parents' attention to the fact that acceptance into colleges is becoming increasingly difficult for all but the highest ranking students owing to the great numbers of returning veterans seeking higher education. In the past Newton has sent 52-63% of its graduates on to higher education. With limited opportunities, some provision must be made locally to give these students the advantages they seek. Mr. Green further pointed out that the age for employment is being raised, leaving many High School graduates with a year or two of time between graduation and employment age. The school must bridge this gap.

No decisions have been reached as to the best way of meeting these problems. Mr. Green emphasized, but a plan under consideration calls for the offering of one or possibly two years of post-graduate work by the High School. In this period a High School graduate might take a year of work on college level while waiting acceptance into college; specialized business or technical training; or a year of enriched study with many courses which he could not pursue while an undergraduate. If such a post-graduate course should be offered, the facilities of the present High School building might be over-taxed since 3000 students is the limit for the present plant. For many reasons, Mr. Green feels, a second High School would be preferable to enlarging the old High School. A school larger than 3000 presents difficult administrative problems and tends to submerge individual personalities.

A Discussion period followed with parents urged to express themselves so that the trend of public opinion on this subject may be felt.

Judge Swift stand silently by while some Russian blasts away at Archbishop Spellman, the Vatican and the Catholic church as a whole? As I frequently suggest, what is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander. It seems ridiculous to have a prominent Russian announce that he will vote against ANY Massachusetts site for the UNO headquarters simply because Judge Swift reserved the right to talk out loud. However, it is possible that we may gain something from this unpleasant experience. It points up with great clarity one of the chief difficulties we will always have in our dealings with the Russians. Decades of misunderstanding, suspicion and offhensiveness because two great nations cannot be bridged by the mere creation of a UNO. Let us remember that and be patient and understanding of our great ally.

Last Sunday Rev. Francis E. Clark, DD, LLD, Founder of the Christian Endeavor Society and President of the Society, spoke at Eliot Church in celebration of its 40th anniversary.

We are sorry to note a growing tendency to ignore and belittle the veterans of the great war, now that its echoes are becoming less and less noticeable. Three years ago, there was no thing too good for the army and navy of our country. Legislation in their interests was passed by unanimous vote. Now, even minor efforts to equalize that hurried legislation is opposed chiefly on the ground that the early legislation was a mistake and further legislation on those lines ought not to be encouraged. Let us not forget that we still owe these boys more than we can ever repay and see to it that they receive their just dues, so far as the city and state can go in that direction. Editorial.

NEWTON In The Past

55 Years Ago
Newton Graphic, Feb. 6, 1891

If that new truck comes, Newton will have about all of that class of fire apparatus that will be needed for some years.

Is West Newton to lose a part of itself? There is a petition before the Legislature for annexation to Waltham of that section of West Newton territory adjacent to the bleachery.

The city fathers have voted to occupy a neutral position in reference to the annexation of the More Field territory and to oppose by representative any payment of purchase money for the land in question.

The City Hall will not be let hereafter days, as it is to be utilized by the city engineer and staff. When let nights it will cost more than of yore, for the expense of moving tables and furniture must be added to the former price, which, by the way, was extremely small considering the amount charged for halls in other parts of the city.

What Price Houses For War Veterans?

To the Editor:

Last Friday night in his radio talk A. H. Blackington most interestingly sketched the story of Henry D. Thoreau's 12x18 foot cabin with commanding view, built by the philosopher in 1845 on the shores of Lake Walden. The cost, for material was $28 and odd cents. Thoreau did all the labor of construction, and lived in the cabin for two years.

Nowadays in Newton and elsewhere much talk prevails about house shortage. Married World War II Veterans (and others) are feeling the lack of a roof-tree. We have heard sketchy suggestions in Newton, advanced for building habitable houses to cost from $5000 to $10,000 above the cost of land, with a lot of land, priced anywhere from $1000 to $3000 a builder might advise about how much house you could expect for $4000 or $7000.

Concretely what proposition can be offered a prospective house hunter in the present state of affairs that he can sensibly obligate himself to assume?

Wages are rising, but so, too, is the cost of living. It is generally agreed that (yearly basis) a month's rent should not absorb more than one week's pay check. What the average week's pay (yearly basis) today or maybe a year from now is a guess mostly "take home pay" some call it. Say the majority of family men "draw down" from $25 to $40, the minority may go beyond to $50, $60—and sometimes a little more. Whether a man owns his house or pays rent the outgo is almost the same. In general every dollar paid for a month's rent represents $100 in real estate value (basis figure in sales). Thus $40 a month stands for the return expected on a $4000 house and grounds; $50, for $5000; $60, $80, $100, respectively, on $5000, $6000, $8000, and $10,000. A long, long way in 100 years from Thoreau's $28 and odd cents cabin. What price house for today?

We are told that a glorious future on earth awaits us—who shall say to the contrary? The housing problem is tied up with the glorious future. In the words of President Cleveland, in period around '88 in discussing a very serious problem of state declared "It is a condition, not a theory that confronts us." Let Newton get down to "brass tacks."

Lt. Comdr. Bruce Navy Dischargee

Lt. Comdr. Norman H. Bruce of 22 Maple street, Auburndale was recently released from active duty in the U. S. Naval Medical Corps. Following his enlistment in 1942, he served at the Brooklyn Naval Hospital for a short period and was then assigned as senior medical officer of the 56th Naval Construction Battalion. After a period of duty in the Hawaiian Islands, this Seabee unit took part in the liberation of Guam. After 23 months of overseas duty, Dr. Bruce was returned to the U. S. in early 1945 and reported for duty at the U. S. Naval Hospital at Sampson, N. Y., where he served on the surgical staff until the time of his release. He plans to resume practice in Auburndale in the near future.

TIRE RATIONING ENDS

No more certificates! Once again every one is eligible to buy, and soon you'll be able to drive in and get immediate delivery on new tires for your car.

PRODUCTION OUTLOOK AT A GLANCE

Tire manufacturers have been unable to fill the great need for new passenger car tires. In case we do not have the right size tire for your car, we should be able to get it soon. Come in for full information.

HERE'S WHY you'll want the
B. F. Goodrich Silvertown

OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES!

It has been proved. More than 2,000 tests and nearly 17,000,000 miles of the toughest kind of road service showed that this new B. F. Goodrich Silvertown will Outwear Prewar natural rubber tires.

New, better rubber. B. F. Goodrich has developed a rubber that's far better than ordinary synthetic. It helps the new Silvertown wear better and run cooler. It has greater resistance to cracking—and actually stands bruising and damage from accidents better.

Tire body 35% stronger. An entirely new, stronger cord is used. More of these cords are used in the top ply, an extra shock-absorbing breaker strip is included. The result: a body that is 35% stronger for additional resistance to bruises, extra blowout protection.

Flatter tread covers more ground. Called the "road level" tread, it puts more rubber on the road, permits all the tread to share the wear. Result: a further increase in mileage, less scuffing, better distribution of weight, better traction, more safety on the turn.

Plus 3 years' EXTRA experience. Three years before any other manufacturer, B. F. Goodrich sold tires containing synthetic rubber to American car owners. The extra know-how piled up in these years is reflected in the new B. F. Goodrich Silvertown.

Give "Shirts-Off-Backs" To Help Scouts Overseas Get Scouting Started Again

Through their "Shirts-Off-Backs" campaign in February, the Boy Scouts of America are giving usable uniforms and equipment to help boys abroad resume Scouting. Scouts in the Philippines are destitute and in Europe their condition isn't much better.

NORUMBEGA COUNCIL has completed plans for participation in the National Boy Scout "Shirts-Off-Our-Back Campaign." Scouts and Senior Scouts of Newton and Wellesley have commenced the collections of parts of uniforms, Scouting and Camping equipment—to be held at each Troop and Senior Unit Headquarters and later to be collected by the Council and shipped off to brother Scouts all over the world. A splendid interest in this worthy project is evidenced by both the boys and Adult Leaders of Norumbega Council.

Rent Control

1, 1944, 369 areas covering about 88 million people—or approximately two-thirds of our population have been brought under Rent Control.

The Rent Regulations apply to all types of housing in controlled areas—wherever people live and pay rent—but not to office buildings nor other commercial rentals.

Federal Rent Control is essentially a field operation. A Rent Executive is appointed for each of the 9 Regional offices and a Director for the more than 200

Area Rent Offices. Under their guidance, tenants and landlords have the full protection of Uncle Sam—and that protection means something!

Rent Control is working. It is effective because it is supported—and supported because it is effective. The Government passed the Emergency Price Control Act—but the people rolled up their sleeves and turned that opportunity into achievement.

Individual case histories reveal how tenant and landlord inequities have been corrected. The administrative burden has been enormous—but the results are eloquent.

ment of which has been on strike for about two weeks. A petition of Reuben Klighman for a junk collector's license at 125 Pine street, Ward 4, was denied by the Board after several residents of that section had expressed opposition at a hearing on the matter. Also rejected was a petition of Andrew Maguzza for a second class auto dealer's license at 184 California street, Ward 1. Alderman Hunt having reported that the petition has not been approved by the chief of police.

A new petition filed by Edward S. Wallace, gunsmith, for a license to deal in and repair second hand firearms in a store on Beacon Street, Newton Centre was rejected by a vote of 8 to 7, also a petition of George McLaughlin and Howard Kosroffian, both war veterans, for a permit to operate four bowling alleys at 1207 Chestnut street, Newton Upper Falls, was rejected by a vote of 8 to 7. The petition of Robert Snelson of the Able Building Wrecking Company for a license to buy and sell second hand materials at Rumford avenue, Ward 14, on the Howard B. Peterson property was denied by the Board, residents of that section having protested against it.

The Board granted the petition of Rocco R. DeAngelis for two pool tables at 191 Adams street, Ward 2, there being no opposition to his petition.

The Board voted to authorize snow plows and other snow and ice removal equipment to drive east on the westbound roadway of Commonwealth avenue, so that snow would be piled up onto the reservation instead of into the driveways of residents. Vice President Wendell R. Bauckman presided at the meeting in the absence of President Joseph B. Jamieson.

Ice and snow increase braking distance from 3 to 11 times that required on dry pavements, reminds the Massachusetts Safety Council.

Of course you do . . . but . . . isn't it funny that the other subscribers on your party line, don't have the faintest idea of the space of five minutes?

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS LAND COURT

In Equity To Louise M. Goodwin, of Bristol, in the State of Connecticut; any other persons interested in the estate of George W. Macgregor, formerly of Newton, in the County of Middlesex, deceased, who have not released their interest in the land herein-after mentioned:

GREETING: Whereas, a suit in equity has been begun in our Land Court by Samuel Lippen, of said Newton, representing that he is the owner of a certain parcel of land situate in said Newton on Channing Street, and that said premises were made subject to a mortgage given by Samuel Lippen to George W. Macgregor dated November 8, 1926, recorded with the South Registry District of Middlesex County in Book 5039, Page 558, which has been paid but never discharged, and praying that said mortgage be declared to be a cloud on his title:

WE COMMAND YOU, if you intend to make any defense, that on the first Monday of April next, which Monday is the return day of this subpoena, or within such further time as the law allows, you do cause your written appearance to be entered and your written answer or other lawful pleading to be filed in the office of the Recorder of said Court at Boston, in the County of Suffolk and said Commonwealth, and further that you defend against said suit according to law, if you intend to make any defense, and that you do and receive what the court shall order, adjudge and decree therein.

Hereof fail not, at your peril, as otherwise said suit may be adjudged, and orders and decrees entered therein, in your absence.

And it appearing to the Court upon the suggestion of the plaintiff that there may be other persons interested in the estate of George W. Macgregor whose names and residences are unknown and they cannot actually be served with process, it is ORDERED that the plaintiff give further notice of this suit by publishing a true and attested copy of this order in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in said Newton, once a week for three successive weeks, the last publication to be one month at least before the first Monday in April next.

Witness, JOHN E. FENTON, Esquire, Judge of our Land Court, the twenty-eighth day of January, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-six.

Slow Growing Flowers Need Extra Early Start

Most annual flowers will stand transplanting, and if sown in the house, or in a greenhouse, hotbed or cold frame, weeks before it is possible to sow them out doors, they will begin to flower much earlier than otherwise when moved to the garden.

Asters, petunias and snapdragons especially should have this early start, because they are slow to germinate and mature. In setting out plants rather than sowing seed direct there is another advantage, which lies in the placing of plants. Since flowers are usually planted in borders, rather than in rows, and often must be placed between established plants, it is not easy to be sure of growing plants from seed in exactly the desired location. Another disadvantage is that thinning out plants becomes unnecessary, and seed thus goes much farther.

Many flowers have very small seeds, which must not be covered deeply, lest growth be prevented; sometimes indeed the seed is just pressed into the soil. It is important that flower seed is sown in loose soil, rich in humus, which will not become too compact, or form a crust which might prevent the seedlings from emerging. Many garden soils do not answer these specifications, but it is usually easy to find enough of the best type of soil to fill a few flower pots or seed boxes, in which seeds may be sown with assurance that they will germinate and grow well.

Because of this, gardeners often sow all flower seeds in this way, even outdoors, and move the plants when ready to locations where they are desired. Seed boxes are easier to manage outdoors than under protection, and growth is more rapid than in the garden, for plants in a seed box which can be shaded when desirable, and watered freely.

Newton High School News

Dr. Richard Gummere, Harvard University, addressed the school faculty on January 29. His subject was "General Education in a Free Society," the Harvard Report which is a current best seller.

The Curriculum Committee, headed by Assistant Principal Dr. Edward C. Drake is meeting each Monday afternoon. A revised pamphlet on educational opportunities in Newton High School will be published this spring.

Final group pictures for this year's Newtonians have been taken. The manager of circulation, Joanne Collard, is now campaigning for a banner subscription of 2000.

Newton High School contributed $243.61 to the Infantile Paralysis Foundation Funds.

All boys in the school filled out a questionnaire last week to provide information on Scouting in Newton.

Special guidance marks were placed on pupils' cards on Monday, February 4. This date marked the end of many half-year courses and the beginning of new courses in several departments.

After a most interesting, as well as profitable, trip to the late Charles Connick stained glass window studios, the seniors of Miss Ellis' Industrial Design Class made their own stained glass designs, seven of which are now on display in Mr. Drake's office. The group took their trip to the Connick studios after school as a project. Not only were they shown around the studios, but they were permitted to watch a church window in the making, step by step, from the first layout to the cutting and placing of the glass. There was a splendid opportunity to observe the many intricate operations which enter into the making of one stained glass window.

The Music Club of Newton High School continued its fine record of presenting distinguished celebrities in the current musical world at its current monthly meetings by having Mr. Lucas Foss as its guest on Thursday, Jan. 17. Mr. Foss, at 23, has already made quite a name for himself as the pianist of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Recognition of his ability came when he won the Guggenheim Fellowship and the Pulitzer Scholarship.

His more familiar works include "The Gift of the Magi," a ballet, and "The Prairie," a dramatic cantata. In the near future he is to be guest conductor of the Pittsburgh Symphony and Leonard Bernstein's New York City Center Orchestra.

January 22, the Executive Council met to discuss and pass several bills that had been handed down by the Legislature.

Norma Simmons delivered a speech pertaining to the awarding of larger N's for all girls who have made a team in Newton High School. She said, "Newton High School is an outstanding school with outstanding sports. There is no reason why the girls should not have outstanding letters. When we play teams from other schools, their girls always wear letters which can be seen from a distance. The Newton High letters are so small that they are hardly noticeable. This is why they are never worn in their present size." The bill concerning chenille and larger N's was passed. All girls who are awarded chenille N's have to be on three varsities and have to put a great deal of time into the sports.

The building custodians have a worthy war record. Terrence Connolly, John Babbitt, John Precious, Louis Tibald, and Francis Tibald are veterans who have recently joined the N.H.S. janitor staff. John Delaney, Arthur Rogers, Fred Greene, and Louis Marcell are veterans of World War I. Charles Thomas, who has worked for the Newton School system for over 32 years is a veteran of the Spanish War. For two hundred nights the custodians stayed on duty while the Red Cross used the school building. The custodian service is constantly improving. John Delaney and Joseph Maindola took a two-weeks course on the Care of School Buildings.

Miss Irene Haworth, English instructor at Newton High flew to Washington the week-end of Jan. 20 to attend the meeting of the National Executive Board of the Women's Overseas Service League. This organization was formed after the last war by women numbering about 25,000 who served overseas during the war in order to help disabled veterans, men and women, who had served overseas. Its present aim is to be of any use it can; during this war it has helped soldiers, refugees, and sent over 10,000 articles abroad to be used in devastated countries. Over 100 women in Greater Boston are members of the organization.

From Thursday, Jan. 17, through the following Saturday at the Hotel Hollenden, Cleveland, Ohio, there took place America's first post-war conference on veterans' education. Sponsored by the Department of Adult Education of the N.E.A. (National Education Association), the conference was attended by educational leaders in the high schools, preparatory schools, and colleges of 44 states, members of government agencies being present in an advisory capacity. aid Enoch counselor for discharged war veterans in Newton High School, was our school representative.

Specifically, the assembly was designed to study problems relating to veterans' education so that solutions might be suggested to national, state, and local agencies, and to encourage community participation in helping to solve the educational needs of veterans. Dividing themselves up into 15 committees, each attacking the subject from a different phase, the delegates worked three sessions per day, from early morning until as late as 10:30 at night, in an effort to formulate overall national policies and to try to coordinate divergent methods already employed in different communities.

Mr. Enoch participated in the work of two of these committees, the first being on "How can a community coordinate its many educational and training opportunities to meet the needs of veterans?" and also "What are the leadership responsibilities of the public schools?"

The second concerned "How should curriculums be developed and reorganized to meet veteran needs?" According to Mr. Enoch, Newton High's reintegrating of veterans into the school while extending to them the privileges of a college campus is, as far as he could learn, a unique way of helping the ex-servicemen. In other cities the policy has been rather to establish altogether separate high schools for the former soldiers.

Planning for a Century of Peace

From the councils of Dumbarton Oaks to the family convale of the folks who live next door to you—people great and small are planning for peace. Here at the Newton Savings Bank we're making plans, too . . . happy plans for a future that will include new homes—new businesses—new opportunities for the men and women it is our privilege to serve.

A savings bank has a peculiarly intimate relationship with its clients. It shares their problems of the present and their dreams for the future. This bank takes enormous satisfaction, for instance, in the knowledge that more homes in this area have been financed by us than by any other institution. For over 116 years we have been safeguarding the savings of the people of this community, helping them finance educational programs for their children, businesses for themselves, homes for their families. Whatever your particular dreams may be for the postwar years, won't you let us help you start planning now to make them come true? Advice and counsel from one of our officers will put you under no obligation.

Jim Walton, Pres. of Norumega Council, Talks Before Kiwanis

Jim Walton, who became a member of Boy Scout Troop 11, one of Newton's two oldest Troops, thirty years ago, and who is now president of the Norumega Council, Boy Scouts of America, told the Newton Kiwanis Club, at the noon meeting last Wednesday, that the organization will celebrate its 36th anniversary Friday, February 8th.

Founded February 8, 1910, Mr. Walton said, the Boy Scouts of America, including Leaders, are now two million strong. Den Mothers supervise the activities of Cub Scouts; youngsters in 9 to 12 year age brackets. The chief interest of the Cub is in handicraft and in "good clean fun," he added.

Boys from 12 to 15 years are enrolled as Scouts. Starting as a tenderfoot, a scout advances to 2nd and 1st class on his ability and good standing as a scout. Every boy must pass certain tests to obtain the various merit badges, and the rank of Eagle Scout is the highest in Scouting.

The Sea Scouts, Mr. Walton continued, have a membership of boys over 15 years of age. They have their own boats or a "land ship" and are familiar with the intricacies of navigation and seagoing lore.

Membership in the Scouts, Mr. Walton concluded, is open to boys of all races and creeds. The only requirement being that a boy must be a good citizen and as a scout, adhere to the Scout oath to "Do his duty to God—to his country—and to all other people, and that he keep himself morally straight."

Club Notes
Cady Peck was presented a pin for perfect attendance since he became a member, Feb. 1944. The Valentine Day party planned for the youngsters at the Peabody Home for Crippled Children, will probably be postponed because so many of the little ones are ailing at the Home. Next week, a moving picture of the 1945 World Series will be shown. Vice President "Doc" Marcoux presided at this meeting, in the absence of President Bill Sullivan.

Lt. Col. Burton M. Woodward and Mrs. Woodward of Jacksonville, Florida, are spending a few days with Col. Woodward's father, Mr. Percy E. Woodward of Highland avenue.

New Civilian Blood Service

"Newton is planning to cooperate in a State-wide procurement and distribution of blood plasma for civilian use," says Mrs. C. Terry Collins, Chairman of Blood Donors for Newton Red Cross. "The Massachusetts Department of Health is prepared to collect and process plasma and all other blood derivatives in order that all citizens of the State may receive free of charge any necessary transfusions. We, in Newton, can be justly proud of our war-time Blood Donor record which makes us confident that an opportunity to help our neighbors will meet with quick response."

The new program means that in case of disaster or emergency, Newton citizens, whether they personally have donated blood or not, will be entitled to receive blood plasma and blood products from the banks in their local hospitals and health centers.

The mobile unit will be stationed at the Newton Red Cross Chapter House, 21 Foster street, Newtonville, on February 19 from 10:45 to 4:45 and February 20 from 12:45 to 6:45. It is anticipated that many men and women will come direct from work on this latter date and donate blood before going home.

The Mather Class will meet on Feb. 10 at the First Baptist church at 9:45 a.m. Subject, "Science and the Future." Guest speaker, Professor Antonio Savides.

The Round Table will be held at the home of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Arbuckle, 46 Cedar street.

West Newton Community Center

The West Newton Community Center held the Annual Meeting of the Corporation and of its Board of Directors recently at the Clubhouse on the Davis School Playground.

Mrs. William H. Cady, Director of the Center, reported on the function and services of the Center in the past year. It was gratifying to hear Mrs. Cady tell of the fun and instruction the members enjoy at the Center and to realize so many take advantage of its benefits. Mrs. Robert H. Loomis gave the Clerk's report summarizing the aims and accomplishments of the Board of Directors. Mr. H. J. Pettengill of the Newton Community Chest and Mrs. Barbara Stearns of the Community Council were guests at the meetings. Delicious bouillon and wafers were served by Mrs. George C. Sweeney who was assisted by Mrs. Henry F. Cate, Jr.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Hugh L. Robinson; Honorary Vice President, Mrs. Robert H. Gross; 1st Vice President, Mrs. Henry F. Cate, Jr.; 2nd Vice President, Mrs. William P. Helms; 3rd Vice President, Mrs. Frederick C. Wells; Clerk and Secretary, Mrs. Sidney L. Sholley; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. L. A. Myers; Treasurer, Mrs. W. Duncan Russell; Asst. Treasurer, Miss Catherine M. Bolster; Member at large, Mrs. George C. Sweeney; Executive Director, Mrs. William H. Cady.

The work of the West Newton Community Center is accomplished through the support of the Newton Community Chest.

Newton Centre Neighborhood Club

The Newton Centre Neighborhood Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Charles C. Brown, 151 Allerton road, Newton Highlands, on February 11, at 7:45 p.m.

Current events will be reviewed by Miss Mary K. Allen.

The hostesses for the evening are Mrs. John Storer, assisted by Mrs. Russell Clark, Mrs. Stuart Willis, and Mrs. Donald Marten.

Newton Junior Community Club

The fifth regular meeting of the Newton Junior Community Club was held on Monday evening, February fourth, at six-thirty, at the Newton Y.M.C.A. This meeting was unusual, due to the fact that it was a "Pot Luck Supper" and was so informal. Each club member brought either a hot dish, a salad, rolls, cake pie or some contribution for the meal. Plates were heaping, and everything tasted delicious. Groups of club members ate at individual tables and thus got to know other club members better, due to the informality. After supper there was a short business meeting, with Miss Jane Mansfield, president, presiding. A vote was taken at this time for the club to contribute to the Red Cross.

Miss Alice M. Andersen, chairman of Community Service and War Work Committee, spoke about our club project. That is our plan for doing body home for Crippled Children, in Newton Centre. Each club member has been asked to "adopt" a child and see that that child receives a birthday card, cards on other special days during the year, personal visits, and any other little remembrances and attentions which the individual wishes to give. Plans were made to visit these children the third Sunday afternoon of each month, and at which time stories can be read, the child can be entertained, and club members can learn to know the patient better and become personally interested in her "adopted" child. This project will be a service to the community, and bring personal satisfaction to each club member.

At the close of the business meeting, there was an auction of "white elephants" donated by club members. The girls were quite enthusiastic about the auction, and everything was purchased from riding boots to soap flakes.

A lot of credit goes to Mrs. Thomas Sealey, chairman of the Sports Committee and to Miss Harriet Tashjian, recording secretary, who were in charge of the meeting for the evening. It certainly was an unusual meeting, and a social success.

Newton Highlands C.L.S.C.

The Newton Highlands C.L.S.C. will meet on Monday, Feb. 11 at the home of Mrs. Emory Clark, 138 Allerton road. Mrs. Hiram Miller will conduct the work on "Conditions of Life in Rural America."

Newton Newcomers Club

The Newton Newcomers Club met Friday, February 1 at the Newton Centre Women's Club for its usual program of dessert and bridge.

A short business meeting was presided over by Mrs. C. Roy Rook. Plans were discussed for an evening party. Two new residents of the Newtons were introduced: Mrs. Ruth Cadeux of Syracuse, N. Y., and Mrs. Everett Temple of Philadelphia, Pa.

The winners at bridge were: Mrs. C. Roy Rook, Mrs. Roy Guernsey, Mrs. Robert Riedel, Mrs. W. O. Foss, and Mrs. Herbert Ham.

The next meeting will be February 15.

Social Science Club of Newton

Following the business meeting on February 13th, Mrs. Everett E. Kent will read a paper on "The Annexation of Texas." The hostesses will be Mrs. William Fawcett and Mrs. Gordon Russell.

Whiting Chapter, D.A.R.

The Junior Group of the Nydia Partridge Whiting Chapter, D.A.R. will hold their next meeting Tuesday, Feb. 12 at 8 p.m. Mrs. Arthur Berberian of 37 Park street, Newton Centre is the hostess. The guest speaker for the evening is Miss Virginia Thomas, a member of the group.

Miss Thomas was a member of the American Red Cross for twenty-two months. She was in charge of a club mobile and saw service in Ireland, England, France and Germany.

Rotary Club

Raymond A. Green, Principal of the Newton High School, was the speaker at the meeting of the Newton Rotary Club held at the Brae Burn Country Club last Friday.

Mr. Green's subject was "The Problem Facing the High School Graduate."

Among the quantity of facts presented in support of Mr. Green's thesis that secondary school graduates, including Newton High School graduates, will encounter unusual difficulties in gaining admittance in June to higher institutions of learning, the following deserve special mention:

(1) The G. I. Bill of Rights, the backlog of students who would have entered college had the war not occurred, and higher standard of living have resulted in a tremendous influx of college candidates.

(2) It seems clear that unless local communities take the initiative, many graduates who normally would attend college or other schools after High School, will be unable to do so.

(3) The same situation may exist with the non-college youth who will be seeking immediate employment in competition with the more mature G. I.

(4) The G. I. himself is now being refused admittance to post-high school institutions.

Newton is now exploring what can be done to meet the situation. The speaker indicated that when the need is clearly established, the High and Trade Schools are in a position to offer a 13th year of instruction. Physical facilities and staff are already available for the most part in both liberal arts and vocational training programs. The rapid-fire question period indicated the high interest of the club in the subject as presented by Mr. Green.

Visitors included Edward Esen, George Esler, Robert Finlay and Louis Bachrach, all of the Boston club; Raymond Blanchard of Watertown, John Walsh of Waltham, Daniel Frawley and Daniel Comisky of Needham, Francis Harding and Lyman Rutledge of Dedham; William Rome, Thomas McGrath, C. F. Cormier, Winthrop Forbush, Julius Mueller, Dr. Richard I. Smith, Rr. Arthur D. Baldwin, John C. Adams and Fabian Bachrach.

It was announced that the Town Meeting of the Air will note "Rotary Night" on Thursday evening, Feb. 21. Among the participants will be Dorothy Thompson and Father Flanagan of Boys' Town.

"Gifts in Tin"

The Newton Chapter Red Cross has purchased a can sealer and is planning to hold canning meetings each month until further notice. Bring the food which you wish to send to your service man overseas and we will show you how to pack and seal it. All types of cooked dry foods can be sent in tin-cookies, candy, cheese, nuts and even peanut butter. A charge of five cents per can is made to cover the cost of cans and equipment. It would be appreciated if a call is made to either Lasell 6000 of Mrs. John Heibek, Lasell 1487 stating the number of cans required.

Home Nursing Course Starts Monday

"You can relieve the hospitals, so acutely understaffed, by caring for illness at home," states Mrs. B. Alden Thresher, chairman, Home Nursing, Newton Red Cross. "The response to the short-coursed course 'Six Lessons in the Care of the Sick,' has been so gratifying that new classes are constantly forming. We want the women of Newton to have every opportunity to learn these timely lessons."

On Monday evening Feb. 11th, a new course starts and continues each Monday and Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 9:30 for three weeks, at the Chapter House, 21 Foster street, Newtonville. Please call Mrs. Edward Blake, BIG. 4916, for information and registration.

Certificates for "Six Lessons in the Care of the Sick" have been granted Mrs. Klas Anderson, Mrs. Lawrence C. DeLuca, Mrs. Rosario Guzzi, Mrs. Arthur E. Kelleher, Mrs. Irving J. Keefe, Mrs. George F. Koller, Mrs. Jack Lutz, Mrs. Joseph F. Spillane and Mrs. Richard W. Stearns.

Mr. Co-operative Banker Says

Adm. Nimitz Sends Greetings on U.S.O. Fifth Anniversary

The following message from Fleet Admiral C. W. Nimitz, Chief of Naval Operations, was sent to the USO, Washington, D. C., Council and to USO generally, on the occasion of the Fifth Anniversary of the USO.

"On this Fifth Anniversary of the USO it gives me great pleasure to send my greetings to the USO Council of Washington, D. C., and to the officers, professional staff and the thousands of volunteer workers of your splendid organization. I am happy to express the Navy's appreciation and thanks for your splendid services to the personnel of the Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard. As Chief of the Bureau of Navigation in 1941, with responsibilities for the establishment of a comprehensive welfare and recreation program for Naval personnel, I welcomed the formation of the United Service Organizations in February of that year. Later, as Commander-in-Chief of the Pacific Fleet and the Pacific Ocean areas I had the opportunity to observe the operations of the many USO activities in Hawaii and to appreciate their outstanding contributions to the morale of the personnel of the Armed Forces under my command. So, on behalf of these personnel I extend the thanks of the Navy and a hearty and sincere, 'Well done USO!'

Bringing in the "Groceries"

An all-year-round activity of the New Haven Railroad... bringing in thousands of carloads of fresh meats, fruits, vegetables, and many other items that add freshness and variety to New England menus.

Bringing in the Guests

Another big task of the New Haven Railroad is to bring in its share of New England's 2,500,000 winter and summer visitors. Because the New Haven Railroad bears so much of this freight and passenger carrying responsibility, we are interested in all parts of New England. This year, with thousands more people planning long-deferred vacations, we are readying our modern equipment to provide them with the gracious comforts that they associate with train travel into New England. Air conditioned equipment now on order will embody the newest trends in passenger train design... including stainless steel exterior coaches... luxurious new parlor cars... smartly appointed Diners and Grill cars. All are planned to make our guests more comfortable... to offer them more conveniences, more room to move about, more space for relaxation.

We're in this Recreational Business together...

We bring in the guests on the same gleaming rails over which flow the "groceries" for New England and its five thousand hotels, inns, and other friendly little places-to-stay. The more we bring in, the better business it means for you. Our prosperity depends upon your success, and the continuing prosperity of New England.

ON THE INSIDE

by MARVIN R. GOULD

By MARVIN R. GOULD

After watching last week's rehearsal of the N.H.S. Drama Club play, "Kind Lady," your reporter is convinced that the play is going to be really sensational after the "green" actors complete their training under the expert coaching of Mrs. Wiens. Just to mention a few of the cast who in my opinion will stand out opening night, Burt Schaffer, Bev Johnson, Gig Henderson, Jim Gibson, and Dick Littlefield. Good luck, stars of the future, and let's hope that you will be as good, when the curtain rises for act 1, scene 1, as Francis Russell Hart III was last year.

This year it was decided by the Senior Class that they would wear caps and gowns at their Graduation next spring. The color of the gowns has not yet been decided but it will be decided upon in the near future by the Executive Committee of that class. By the way this is the same Executive Committee that has not yet, after three weeks, made its decision concerning class reunions. Efficient little group isn't it, Mr. Senior?

Last Monday "Warning Cards" were issued at N.H.S. to all students whose marks are C warning or lower. One student told us that he had enough cards to play poker with. (No Joe, I can't play poker with you now.)

Manly Pike, ace track star asked us to give his pal Pete Connelly some free publicity. Even without Pike's suggestion, I intended to inform my readers that this Pete Connelly is the same boy who put the shot 43 feet 4 inches last week. This same fellow is Captain-elect of Newton's 46-47 Football Squad. For once Pike came up with a bright suggestion, but believe me Manly, this boy doesn't need anyone to put his name in print as he has done it already with his feats of athletic skill.

Bill "Red" Duffy and Warren Underhill claim that they are the best crooners in N.H.S. (Note: Heaven forbid) . . . Wally Nevil entered the United States Marine Corps last week . . . Nick Buonato, ace goal tender of last year, and first string pitcher, informs us that he will go to Florida next month with his Dad to get in shape for the coming baseball season . . . What happened to Min Pissell's sweat shirt in Smitty's E Block wrestling class? . . . Sidney "Red" Vaughn held open house to all N.H.S. students last Saturday night. It is rumored that Fred Springer "his dearest friend" did the inviting. Is this just propaganda Fred? . . . Lucas Foss of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, was an invited guest at last month's Music Club meeting . . . The "Newtonian" subscription goal has been set at 2,000 copies.

A new staff of Newton Student Canteen Officers will be elected by the Canteen members some time this month . . . Weeks Junior High School may be converted into another Senior High School. (Good idea) . . . It is rumored that L.G. is headed for the license bureau with S.R. (The initials in the previous sentence stand for—(Alright, please lay that pistol down babe).)

This week's outstanding faculty member is Coach Warren Huston. Hustie was born in Newton, and he went to N.H.S. along with a lot of other people, but he graduated, in 1933 to be exact. He was captain of football, basketball, and baseball while in the sacred halls of Newton's only High School. The next step in his career was to become captain of football and hockey while studying Physical Education at Springfield College. Now after years of hard work he is an instructor of Physical Education at N.H.S., Assistant Football Coach, Varsity Basketball Coach, and Assistant Coach of Baseball. This summer Hustie will be the playing manager of the Brattleboro ball club of the Northern League. This is the club that gave us Dave Ferris.

Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Bartholomew Lynch, of 285 Auburndale avenue, Auburndale, residents of Newton for the past quarter of a century, celebrated their golden wedding on Sunday, February third. Mr. Lynch, a native of Brasher Falls, New York, and Mrs. Lynch, the former Mary Elizabeth Fallon of Lynn, were married in Dorchester fifty years ago.

Gold Star parents of World War I, their surviving son, Alfred T. Lynch, recently received his discharge from the United States army after two years' service. Two grandsons are serving in the armed forces, Pvt. William H. Whipple, now stationed in the Aleutians, and Lieut. (jg) Leo J. Hession, on duty in Caribbean waters.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynch were guests of honor at a reception and buffet supper at the home of their daughter, Mrs. John V. Hession, of Waban. Fifty guests were present, and they received numerous gifts, flowers, and congratulatory telegrams. Gold and white predominated in the decorative scheme. Miss Dorothy Whalen of Waltham and Mrs. Gerald V. Quinn of Waban served as pourers.

Newtonville Methodist Women Welcome New Members

A tea, to welcome new members, was given by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Newtonville Methodist church, Wednesday, January 30, with Mrs. Howard F. Selby, chairman of the Fellowship Committee, in charge.

Group Chairman serving as ushers were: Mrs. William Hallday, Mrs. Howard Pease, Mrs. P. A. Crony, Mrs. William Fish, Mrs. Carl Swan, Mrs. H. R. Meserve, Mrs. C. K. Conover, Mrs. C. F. Hooper.

Pourers were officers of the Society and included — Mrs. William Rich, Mrs. Arthur Strawson, Mrs. Paul Lockwood, Mrs. Fred Dodge, Mrs. Lyman Whitcomb, Mrs. Robert Bruce, Mrs. Walter Burt, and Mrs. Alice Percy.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Albert Kreider, violinist and Mrs. Elinor Vaughan Smith, pianist. Mrs. William Fish, contralto, sang several selections with Mrs. Hamilton Gifford accompanying.

A meeting to complete plans for the formation of a new group in the Woman's Society of Christian Service was held at the Newtonville Methodist Parsonage on Friday evening, February 1. Mrs. Ralph McKee was appointed Chairman of the group which is to be known as Group Seven.

Grace Episcopal Church Elects Officers

At the annual meeting of the Grace Episcopal Church, Newton, the following parishioners were elected members of the corporation: Alfred W. Barr, Mrs. Alfred W. Barr, Gordon B. Guphill, Miss Janet A. Hannington, Harold L. Keenan, Miss Jane Mansfield and Percy Trundle.

Julius W. Kohler was elected a vestryman for two years to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Major Sylvester B. Kelley. Chosen vestrymen for three years were Leverett D. G. Bentley, Alfred W. Bollenback, Horace W. Cole, and Gordon B. Russell. Delegates to the Diocesan Convention will be Elliott B. Church, William V. Macwett, Lyman H. Reynolds, and Gay Gleason, alternate. Chosen delegates to the annual meeting of the Archdiocese of Lowell were Mrs. Kenneth L. Carr, Mrs. Charles F. Hooper, Mrs. Gordon B. Guphill and Mrs. Harold R. Smith, alternate.

THE FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, and in all of its branches, on Sunday, February 10, will be "Spirit". The Golden Text, "The Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God," is from I Corinthians 2:10. Other Bible citations include, "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works" (II Timothy 3:16, 17).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, them understood spiritually, for only by this understanding can truth be gained. . . . It is this spiritual perception of Scripture, which lifts humanity out of disease and death and inspires faith." (p. 547).

OF ALL THE PERSIAN WORKS of art perhaps none holds a firmer place in the hearts of the Persians themselves than their hand-woven rugs. It is needless to say that they are equally esteemed by people of taste and refinement throughout the world. A GREGORIAN RUG embodies all the traditional traits of this fascinating textile art.

It is our aim to perpetuate and maintain the native standards that are unspoiled and typically Persian. New or old, such rugs satisfy one's soul and elevate one's spirit.
And when you purchase a GREGORIAN RUG, you are buying a rug to be enjoyed in your generation and in that of your children.

BOY SCOUT WEEK

FEBRUARY 8-14, 1946

CELEBRATING THE 36TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

NEARLY 2,000,000 ACTIVE MEMBERS

Norumbega Council, BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA, serving Newton and Wellesley, will commemorate Boy Scout Week with a series of Cub Scout, Scout, and Senior Scout activities. The Council's Air Squadron will conduct the program at the weekly meeting of the Newton Rotary Club at Brae Burn Country Club.

Friday, February 8th, is the 36th Anniversary of the Founding of the Scout Movement in America. A Court of Honor will be conducted on the evening of the Anniversary date at the Levi Warren Junior High School in West Newton. On that occasion Scouts of the Council will receive awards ranging from Second Class to Eagle Rank—the highest.

February 10 is Boy Scout Sunday. A Mass and Communion Breakfast will take place at Our Lady's Church for Cub Scouts, Scouts and Senior Scouts of Catholic Faith, at 7:30 A. M.—the Rev. Martin Dolphin of Sacred Heart Parish is the Chaplain for Scouts of Catholic Faith.

A Union Service for Cub Scouts, Scouts and Senior Scouts of Protestant Faith will take place at the Second Congregational Church in West Newton at 4 P. M. on Scout Sunday. Dr. Russell M. Boynton is Chaplain for Scouts of Protestant Faith. The Rev. Frederick M. Morris of Trinity Church, Newton Centre, will give the sermon.

On Friday, February 15, a service for Cub Scouts, Scouts and Senior Scouts of Jewish Faith will be held at Temple Emanuel, Ward Street, Newton Centre at 8 P. M. Rabbi Samuel Sherman is Chaplain for Scouts of Jewish Faith.

Newton WAVE Commended by Commandant of 14th Naval District

PEARL HARBOR, T. H.—Mary Iacono, WAVE yeoman, of 31 Jefferson street, Newton, has received a letter of commendation from Vice Admiral S. A. Taffinder, USN, Commandant Fourteenth Naval District.

Miss Iacono was one of the first two enlisted WAVES to arrive at Pearl Harbor more than a year ago when WAVES were first assigned to overseas duty.

She helped in advance preparations to receive more than 4000 WAVES who eventually saw duty in the Hawaiian Islands.

Chief Yeoman Iacono is the sister of Mrs. Louis Picariello and Mrs. Stephen Lopez, both of whom live at the Newton address.

Alan Booth at Highland Glee Club Spring Concert

The Highland Glee Club of Newton, Inc. is well on its way in preparation of the Spring Concert to be held in the High School auditorium on March 19.

They are highly elated over the generous response from the music lovers of the city, as indicated by the fact that their present subscription list will, they hope, exceed any previous year.

The December concert was attended by a near capacity audience.

"Build Hospital Adequate to Existing Needs," Farley Asserts At Hospital's Annual Meeting

Neil Leonard Advocates Aggressive Policy in Prosecution of Fund Project

Maintaining that all hospitals in Greater Boston should be considered as an integrated whole, John Wells Farley, president of the Boston Children's Hospital, asserted last night at the annual meeting and dinner of Newton-Wellesley Hospital that larger hospitals in Boston could not possibly carry the burden unless outlying hospitals such as Newton-Wellesley were able to bear their proportionate share.

Mr. Farley, who also is president of the Greater Boston Community Fund, was introduced to trustees, members of the hospital family and guests numbering about 100 in all, by Clifford H. Walker, who was re-elected president of the board of trustees. Other speakers were Neil Leonard, general chairman of Newton-Wellesley Hospital's $2,250,000 building fund project, who gave an account of the progress made to date, and Miss Esther M. Story, assistant to Gerhard Hartman, director of the hospital, whose illness prevented him from attending.

Briefly outlining the situation confronting hospitals in metropolitan Boston, Mr. Farley remarked that the facilities of all of them are greatly overtaxed and declared that the solution could not be found in the establishment of small suburban hospitals with a medium of essential equipment and medical talent.

"The only other alternative," he continued, "is the one you have developed here for Newton and Wellesley. All of you may not be aware of it, but your hospital and its medical staff and trustees rank higher in many well-informed eyes outside Newton and Wellesley than in some within."

Mr. Farley said that if anyone in Newton or Wellesley denies support to the hospital because of allegiance to institutions in Boston or elsewhere, the excuse should not be regarded as valid. "The greatest service you can do your community is to build a hos-

Elks Install Fire Alarm System At Working Boys' Home

A complete modern fire alarm system installed at the Working Boys' Home, Newton Highlands, a gift from the Newton Lodge of Elks, was put into operation last Saturday by Chief John L. Keating of the Newton Fire Department at a formal ceremony held at the Home.

A delegation from Newton Lodge including Chief of Police Nicholas Veducchio, present at the ceremony, was conducted on an inspection tour of the newly installed system by Brother Superior Aubert, CFX, of the Working Boys' Home. The system consists of four stations, one on each floor of the four story brick building, and is directly connected with the Newton Fire Alarm headquarters. It is similar to the fire alarm systems in most of the public school buildings in Newton.

There are at present 132 boys living at the Home. Chief Keating and Chief Veducchio addressed the boys in the Assembly Hall where they had been attending a motion picture show.

Jean Duff, Newtonville, Stewardess on Airliner

Jean M. Duff, of 119 Lowell avenue, Newtonville, has joined Northeast Airlines as a stewardess, and has been assigned to the Boston-New York flights.

Miss Duff served for two years and three months as a Pharmacist's Mate, second class, in the Women's Reserve Hospital Corps of the Navy.

Northeast Airlines stewardesses must meet the following essential requirements: Age, 21-26 inclusive; weight, 105-125 pounds; ability to pass a complete flight physical examination; personality and charm; and at least two years' attendance at an accredited college together with nurses' training. A stewardess must be neither married nor engaged.

State Federation Forum at Auburndale Woman's Club

The Auburndale Woman's Club, was the first Newton Woman's Club to be hostess to the State Federation Club Institute Forum, and it was not only a beautiful spring day on the calendar, but a Red-letter day on the Club calendar for Newton. A warm and friendly atmosphere, a large attendance, the many spirited and enlightening subjects discussed by the State Forum Speakers, all contributed to an instructive and successful day.

Mme. Liu Ching Tung has an unassuming, yet charming stage presence and poise, and won her audience from the start. Comparing the women of yesterday with the women of China today, Mme. Liu said that it was like putting a new stone into an old setting.

"Woman's Responsibility in the New China," was the subject of the principal speaker, Mme. Liu Ching Tung, former Professor at Swarthmore College, when the Mass. State Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Edwin Troland, President, held a Club Institute Forum, Tuesday, Feb. 12, as guest of the Auburndale Woman's Club, Mrs. Eric J. Kermath, President.

Mrs. Eric Kermath, President of the Auburndale Club, welcomed the guests and turned the meeting over to Mrs. Wilson H. Roads, chairman of the Forum, who introduced Mrs. Arthur Cornell, 12th District Director, who brought greetings from the Federation, in the absence of Mrs. Greenwood, 1st Vice-President. Mrs. Cornell also read an

Dr. Hitchen Returns From Europe, Speaks In W. Newton Feb. 18

First-hand accounts of conditions in England and the position of religious liberals overseas will be given in an address at 8 p.m. on February 18 by Dr. Herbert Hitchen, Director of the Department of Foreign Churches of the American Unitarian Association, at a public meeting in the First Unitarian Church, West Newton. The talk is being sponsored by the Unitarian Laymen's League, Ray Stevens, president, announced today. Chairman will be ex-Senator Sinclair Weeks.

Dr. Hitchen was given a leave of absence from the First Unitarian Society of Newton in January in order to fly to England for conferences with the general assembly of Unitarian and Free Christian Churches and to visit the English churches.

Will Observe Boy Scout Week at Temple Emmanuel, Sunday

At the Sabbath Eve Services in Temple Emmanuel on Friday evening, February 15, at 8:15 there will be a special observance of "Boy Scout Week" with the posting of the colors and Scout Oath by the Temple Emmanuel Troop. Rabbi Sherman will preach at the service, his subject, "Jews Fight, Too!" After the services there will be a Shabbat reception in Benjamin Vestry, Mr. Edward Cohen, Scout Commissioner, and officials of Norumbega Council, Boy Scouts will be guests. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Freedman will be hosts.

Red Cross Fund Quotas Announced

Communion Buffet Breakfast at Our Lady's Church

The Communion Buffet Breakfast at the Church of Our Lady's Parish at Newton, Sunday, February 10, 1946, was an overwhelming success. After the Communion Breakfast in the auditorium of Our Lady's High School, the members of Our Lady's Holy Name Society listened to a stirring address by the Rev. Edward L. Murphy, S. J. of Weston College.

In announcing Village quotas for the coming $90,000 Red Cross Fund Campaign in Newton, John S. Whittemore, chairman, 1946 Committee, commented on the responsibilities of that organization for the coming year. Services to occupation forces, services to the thousands of hospitalized soldiers and sailors, and services to veterans—"the three continuing battle fronts" of the American Red Cross—were not diminished but highlighted and intensified by VE Day and VJ Day, symbols of war's end for the nation.

In the years 1941 to 1945 American Red Cross services to the armed forces became the most extensive operation of its kind in the history of the organization.

New Grade School In West Newton Ready Sept. '47

Mayor Paul M. Goddard has engaged Howard L. Rich of 269 Franklin street, Newton as architect for the proposed new grade school building to be erected at Berkeley and Temple street, West Newton.

Contour plans of the site are now being prepared by the Newton Engineering Department for use by the architect in drawing his plans.

The building which is to be erected at an estimated cost of $278,000 will be of brick construction and will contain 8 classrooms, a kindergarten, a combination auditorium-gymnasium and service rooms. It is to take the place of the present Pierce School on Chestnut street, which is to be abandoned. Pupils now attending the Pierce School who reside nearer to the Davis School will be transferred to the latter school when the new building is ready for occupation.

It is estimated that the plans and specifications will be ready in three to four months for the advertising of bids and construction would start next summer, the building to be completed and ready for occupancy by September 1947.

Standish Appointed Trustee of Chaffin Fund

Mayor Paul M. Goddard has appointed Alexander Standish of 183 Lake Avenue, Newton Highlands as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Chaffin Fund to take the place of U. S. Senator Leverett Saltonstall who has resigned as a member of that board. The Chaffin fund was established under the will of the donor to assist graduates of the Newton High School to obtain higher education.

The mayor has also appointed George M. Lovejoy of 10 Estabrook Road, West Newton, a member of the Public Welfare Board to succeed Alderman William R. Mattson who resigned from this board when elected a member of the Board of Aldermen.

The appointments will be submitted to the Board of Aldermen at their next meeting on February 18, for confirmation.

The Words Of Lincoln

Tuesday of this week we observed the birthday of the immortal Lincoln. It was he who gave us the phrase—"government of the people, by the people and for the people." It is fitting, oh, so fitting, at this time, when many are trying to tinker with our form of government, that we re-dedicate ourselves to the simple force and clarity of his words.

And in the larger field of world government and world peace, while we and the other United Nations feel our way cautiously through the old mazes of "spheres of influence," "power politics" and diplomatic intrigues, let us hold before the world its brightest hope expressed so simply by Abraham Lincoln—"government of the people, by the people and for the people." Therein lies universal peace.

"Brotherhood - A Challenge"

This is Brotherhood Week—in the new Atomic Age. Here is a challenge worthy of Americans. Can we work together with our neighbors at home and abroad, and enjoy an era of peace and prosperity such as the world has never known? or shall we muffle the peace and plunge the world into complete destruction? In a few months or years we may no longer have the choice. Just now it's still up to us.

We know we must get along with other nations, in spite of the fact that their languages, their customs, and even their political systems are different from our own. This may not be as difficult as it sounds. For friendship begins at home, and America is a great laboratory. We have already learned to understand and respect many different people—the neighbors down the block who attend a different church, the folks on the next street who use strange seasonings in their food, the little colored boy in the same grade with Junior.

War brought the people of this country closer together than ever before. We worked together, Protestant, Catholic and Jew; white, black and yellow; native and foreign-born. Together we defeated the enemy in spite of every effort to divide us. As President Truman, in his proclamation, stated: "The armies of the United Nations won a conclusive victory over the forces of tyranny which exploited racial and religious hatred to divide the world and destroy freedom."

Brotherhood Week reminds us that we must maintain this unity if we are to win the peace. The conquest of the atom heralds unheard-of wonders—or swift and total destruction. Tomorrow we will live in "one world—or none." Either we work together as equal citizens of that world, or there will be nothing left to work in.

What world-citizenship can mean is demonstrated in the realm of medicine where the practical benefits of brotherhood are felt by every one of us. An Englishman developed the vaccination for smallpox; a French chemist produced the cure for rabies; the discoveries of a Japanese and a German guard our children from liphtheria; pellagra is being cured today because of the researches of an Austrian. These men—and thousands like them of every race and creed—never thought in terms of national boundaries, religious groupings or racial differences. They were servants of all mankind.

Such is the harvest of brotherhood—the only harvest that can bring us lasting peace.

Politics With Color

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note.)

Gov. Tobin Wins

I spent last Monday afternoon watching the Legislature uphold a Governor Tobin's veto of the airport-bus bill, which would have permitted people to go to and from the Logan International Airport on the Boston Elevated for 25c as against the 75c fare now forced on the travelling public.

Well, it was most interesting, though not inspiring, either from the standpoint of intellectual advancement or an increased esteem for the so-called Great and General Court. The Governor and his leaders in the Legislature were understood to have turned the heat on many of the recalcitrant Democrats who had been so bold as to vote according to their honest convictions when this bill was originally passed by a very substantial margin last month. That, plus the violent support of the leading Democratic organ in Boston, the Post, served to pull back into line many Democrats. As a matter of fact, there were only eight Democrats who defied His Excellency and voted to override the veto. Sixteen more votes were needed to override. Among the non-voting Representatives were twelve Republicans and five Democrats. Your columnist refrains from commenting about these men until such time as he learns how many of them were sick or out of town. Senator Innes advised me at the time that Rep. Chase, Republican, of Boston was attending the customary Monday session of the Boston City Council.

As I listened to the various arguments pro and con, I could not help wondering if some of the speakers really believed what they said. For example, one impassioned orator announced that the rank and file of Metropolitan Boston industrial workers were of far more importance to him than ANY group of the general public from New York, the West and other parts of the country. Indeed, there was a frequent raising of class distinctions, which, it seems to me, have no place in debates of this nature. There was also considerable bitter criticism of the Elevated. It appears to be a common indoor sport to lambaste the El every so often, regardless of the merits of the case. Some of the Democrats were convinced that the El was trying to hold up the public by charging MORE than a ten cent fare. These same men, however, had no objection to allowing the Sutcliffe-Tobin crowd the privilege of exacting a 75c fare.

Now, what will be the outcome of all this furor? Several prominent Republicans have advised me that, in their opinion, the upholding of the Governor's veto may well prove to be a tremendous help to Lt. Governor Bradford when he campaigns for the Governorship this fall. It does seem as though His Excellency had gone out on the end of a limb in pressing this issue so stubbornly. From the writer's standpoint, it was bad economics, bad politics and worse than bad public service to insist on the defeat of this airport-bus bill. Just watch for future developments surrounding this entire issue. You will hear a great deal more about this vitally important matter before many weeks have gone by.

Weekly Quiz

The answer to last week's quiz was Abraham Lincoln. Because I felt certain that the inclusion of two items would make the question too simple, I omitted reference to the loss of Lincoln's sweetheart, Ann Rutledge, as well as his defeat for a minor office which would have placed my quiz well back in history. Incidentally, how many of my readers heard that splendid radio production earlier this week, depicting the early career of Lincoln and placing special emphasis on his love for Ann Rutledge? This week's question is: What public servant in Newton has held more different offices than any other man still living?

Harold E. Stassen

Former Governor Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota made an excellent impression at the Middlesex Club dinner Tuesday evening. I could not help thinking what an outstanding candidate he would make in 1948. His voice is better than either the late Wendell L. Willkie, whom he resembles in many ways, or the present New York Governor.

To a Canada Goose

Wild heart . . . Winging your way through boundless skies,

Whose clamor echoes through the breaking morn;
How could you know of staring, sightless eyes,
Upturned, to where you silhouette the dawn?

So short a time ago, against the paling stars,

I knew the dew-drenched touch of passing cloud;
And watched the sun break through, with golden bars,
To rend the ground-mists, like a parting shroud.

I too felt pity for all earth-bound things,

Who could not soar into the vast unknown;
To dart and turn, to twist on silvered wings,
Or course the far horizons, all alone.

All things must end . . . from flashes far below,

A hail of death permeates the air around;
A silver bird turns in a fiery glow,
And plummets to the ever-waiting ground.

Go on your way . . . to find safe harbor and to mate,

A blinded birdman bids you fond adieu;
And may you never know the cost of bitter hate,
But span eternal zones, just as God meant you to.

Announce Hospital Aid Association Committee Chairmen

At the February meeting of the directors of the Newton-Wellesley Hospital Aid Association Tuesday, in the lounge of the Nurses' Home, committee chairmen were announced for the new year by the president, Mrs. Theron B. Walker. Mrs. Hubert L. Carver, the new 3rd vice-president, will chair the patient committee, a position ably filled for the past three years by Mrs. Henry F. Keever. Mrs. Cecil W. Clark, new 5th vice-president, will represent the Benefit Shop, of which Mrs. D. Brewer Eddy and Mrs. Ralph W. Conant are co-chairmen. Mrs. Benjamin D. Miller, the new 6th vice-president, will chair the Coffee Shop committee, chairmanship since the opening of the Shop by Mrs. Walter L. McGill. Miss Madeline Cobb will act as chairman of the nominating committee for the year, succeeding Mrs. Gordon B. Wilkes. Mrs. F. Marsena Butts, Mrs. Frank R. Clark and Mrs. Ernest P. Ralsback will succeed themselves as chairmen of the purchasing, membership and publicity committees respectively.

Mrs. Alexander M. Wolfe was presented to the directors by Mrs. Walker as the chairman of the eighth annual bridge to be held by the association on May 14th. Mrs. Wolfe will announce her ticket chairman and other assisting chairmen at the March meeting.

Mrs. Stanley W. Hobbs, director of Volunteers for Newton-Wellesley hospital, spoke briefly, again stressing the need of continued service by volunteers. While fifty volunteers are serving the hospital each day the number has decreased and additional recruits are needed.

Mrs. Walker gave a report of the recent meeting of the Council of Hospital Auxiliaries, held at the Council headquarters on Bromfield street, Boston, which she attended accompanied by Mrs. Hobbs. Reports were also given by Mrs. Francis F. Williams, manager of the Benefit Shop, and Miss Florence D. Marble, treasurer of the Coffee and Gift Shop.

Mrs. Carl G. Johnson and Mrs. Cecil W. Clark were hostesses at morning coffee at the close of the meeting and pourers were Mrs. Frank E. Clark and Mrs. Robert Whitehill.

Thomas E. Dewey. He is easily the G.O.P.'s leading liberal. He is sound, intelligent and forward-looking. Unlike many public speakers, he does NOT pull his punches. Furthermore, even though he may seem to some to adopt a middle of the road course on a few controversial issues, such as the current labor and management controversy, a close study of his remarks will immediately reassure you. He has the faculty of thoroughly understanding both sides of a problem and he does not hesitate to give the other side full credit for sincerity and good faith.

Next week I shall have more to say about this speech. In the meantime, it is worth pointing out that our own former Senator Sinclair Weeks was given the honor of introducing Gov. Stassen and he did a great job.

Dr. Anderson Outlines School Building Objectives to Parents

The Angier School Parents Group meeting at the Angier School Auditorium, Monday, February 4, proved interesting to the large number of Waban parents and residents who attended.

The meeting was a review by Dr. Homer W. Anderson, Superintendent of Newton Schools, of the city wide school building situation as related to the physical condition, capacity and location of present buildings and the presentation of a suggested building program to meet many important objectives. Dr. Anderson's suggested plan would utilize all buildings currently adequate for modern educational activities, provide for the replacement of schools unit for continued use and projects the construction of three additional schools necessary to meet current and early future requirements.

Lantern slides were shown to graphically indicate present and proposed school locations and the relation of these locations to student population. The proposed plan would provide for the relocation of schools being replaced and the logical location of additional schools for city wide distribution of facilities. Such a plan would give consideration to rapid growth areas and also greatly reduce present transportation problems both with relation to hazards, expense and convenience.

Obviously some building program should promptly be inaugurated that would parallel city growth and to compensate for normal progress necessarily halted during the war period. An interesting feature of the proposed plan, when completed, is that it would require, in addition to replacements, only three new schools; 1 elementary, 1 Junior high school and 1 Senior high school. Thus, with some modifications of schools retained, the plan would increase the city school capacity materially without proportionate increase in the number of buildings provided.

The City of Newton is indeed fortunate to have as a Superintendent a man of the experience and vision of Dr. Anderson and if other residents and parents of the city are as enthusiastic about his plans as those in attendance at this meeting the city may anticipate a school plan of which they can be proud.

Mr. Charlesworth K. Neilson, President of the Angier Parents Group, Mr. Fred T. Harvey, Chairman of the Building Committee of the Newton Council of Parent-Teacher Association, Mrs. B. A. Thresher, member of the School Committee and Mr. J. Dexter Harris, Chairman of the Building Committee of the Angier Parents Group of Waban aided greatly in an active question and answer discussion following Dr. Anderson's presentation.

In unlacing a shoe with the present style of hook the wearer must take the laces entirely away from the hooks before the shoe can be removed. By a new invention the laces on either side are run in raised eyelets. To take the shoe off the wearer simply pulls the top of the shoe open without removing the laces from the hooks. When the shoe is put on it is securely fastened by pulling the upper ends of the two laces. The shoe is laced in a second. With this patent, it is claimed, a lace shoe can be fastened as quickly as a man can put on a Congress shoe.—From New York Telegram.

ON THE INSIDE

by MARVIN R. GOULD

Sophomore elections were held at Newton High last week and all of the officers elected in my opinion will be an honor to their class, school, friends, and country. Those elected were: President, Tony Orlandella; Vice-president, Don Fitzpatrick; Secretary, Celeste Lombardi; Treasurer, Jean Hubley. At this point I would like very much to say a few words about Tony Orlandella, President of the Sophomore Class. Tony is 16 years old and was elected secretary of his class while in the seventh grade at Weeks. Tony is liked by everyone chiefly because he is the type of fellow who likes everyone. He is a fine singer and was one of the main attractions at the sophomore class party this year. Best of luck, Tony, in your new job as sophomore class president. I know that you will make good just as much as every other student in N.H.S. knows that you will do a fine job.

Corporal Sidney D. Cook, N.H.S. graduate is home again at West Newton after serving overseas with the P-38 Ringmasters of the 13th Air Force in the Philippines. Major J. Joseph Ward has returned to his old post as printing instructor at the Newton Trade School after an absence of more than three years. Major Ward was stationed at Camp Edwards while he was in the Army. Major Wilson, former N.H.S. basketball coach is home again after three years in the Army.

The following officers were elected at the Newton Student Canteen last week: Hostess Chairman, Dorothy Sabott; Host Chairman, Dick Young; Personnel, Tony Orlandella and Joan Nimms; Membership, Virginia McCourt; Publicity, Don Cox and Pat Driscoll; Coke, Brine Boulter; Fountain, Bill Boulter; Maintenance, Jerry Quinlan and Carol Quigley; Entertainment, Sib Moriana; Desk, Phillis Callahan; President, Al Visco; Vice-President, Nancy Kimball; Secretary, Ruth McMahon; Treasurer, Jean Hurly.

Here is some news from Weeks Junior High School: 7th grade class officers just elected: President, Ralph Bibbo; Vice-President, Ellen Berman; Secretary, Adelle Lisman; Treasurer, Ronald Jenkins. Weeks now has a real cooperative store run by a committee from the Student Council and others of the student body. Pupils may buy membership cards, or shares, and will have a 10% refund of their purchases returned in June. (Note: Long wait.) Everything from bobby pins to pencils is sold. A portrait of the late John Wingate Weeks, for whom the school is named, was presented recently to the school by the Weeks family. Present at the ceremonies were: Senator Sinclair Weeks; Mr. Cabot, Chairman of the School Committee, and Dr. Homer W. Anderson, Superintendent of Newton Schools.

Chi Beta Phi, Newton's outstanding fraternity has announced that their annual Washington's Birthday Ball will feature the versatile dance band of Freddie Dancon. (Sounds good) . . . Sylvia Gruber and Jean Fogg are now in the process of painting a new set of murals for the Newton Student Canteen. . . . Pfc. Robert Harris is home on 14 days leave from Fort Jackson, South Carolina. . . . Dave Pynchon, ace goal tender of last year, was home on leave last week-end from the U. S. Navy. . . . Joe Vespa, of football fame last year was home recently on nine days vacation from "Uncle Sam" in Maryland. . . . Bob Fisher is home on thirty days leave. His ship, the Seaplane Tender, U.S.S. Currituck, is tied up at Frisco. (Patty Easterbrook must like, I mean love, this. The ship, of course, what else?)

ATTENTION, certain motion picture theatre owners! How come servicemen now pay full price in some theatres now that the war is over? Some certainly seemed a lot more grateful and obliging to these same boys when the war was on. I wonder why? Hmpf! Even an apprentice idiot, studying to be a moron, could tell you the answer to my last question. At least when these same boys are at camp they can see movies gratis.

After a little "On the Inside" investigation, yours truly has found out why the executive committee has not taken action on the class reunion bill. It seems that the author of this bill neglected to notify the committee officially, in writing, or in the form of a motion. Therefore, it was impossible for the committee to take action on the bill as they were never officially informed of the bill.

GREATER BOSTON'S MOST REASONABLE FLORIST

Breakfast—

challenge, the speaker commenced with the basic principle of Christianity, that 1900 years ago, Jesus Christ true God, became man for the salvation of the human race. During His three years of public life, Christ laid down the principles whereby man might work out his soul's salvation and before His death, He founded His Church which was to teach these principles to all the nations of the earth and which was to endure until the end of time.

Each and every member of that Church is a branch thereof and carries the responsibility of being a Christ bearer, in his home, his business, in Government or in whatever walk of life a man might be placed.

A Christian shirks his duty when he hears Christ's principles assailed and remains silent. Every time he does that, he weakens the power of Christ on earth and strengthens the power of His enemy who is the Devil working through the agency of the so-called liberal minds of the day or through the fanaticism of the former Nazi leaders of Germany, the Fascists of Italy or the atheistic Communists of Russia.

If the world fails to do the will of God as given through His divine Son, our Lord Jesus Christ who speaks to us through His Vicar on earth, our Holy Father the Pope, chaos for the human race is the alternative.

If only every member of Christ's Church on earth (and the membership numbers 330 millions) actually realizes the worth of his membership, his most precious possession and at the same time is able and ever ready to defend and proclaim what he believes, then slowly but surely the forces of evil in the world will be overcome and Christ will reign in the minds and hearts of all mankind.

Alan Booth—

ience and the March concert should be even more successful in that the soloist will be Alan Booth, who graduates from Oberlin College this year where he has specialized in music. This appearance will be the first opportunity which Mr. Booth has had to play for a discriminating and musical audience in the east, though he has appeared successfully in concert and recital while at Oberlin.

Alan Booth's appearance at the March concert will be anticipated by his many high school friends, as well as the faculty, who have shown real interest in his progress. Alan, as he is so well known, grew up in the city of Newton, studied first the piano with the conductor of the club, D. Ralph Maclean, and later the organ. With this background, he went to Oberlin not only well grounded in music but with the enthusiasm and ambition to make the most of the outstanding musical advantages for which Oberlin is noted. With a characteristic modesty and fervor, Alan Booth has an excellent opportunity to take his place in the present generation of young Negro artists.

An unusual and attractive program has been selected by Ralph Maclean and Cecil Hall, chairman of the music committee, and during the weeks intervening you will be reminded, through the columns of this paper, the date which the club has with its sponsors on March 19, in the hope that you will not only be out but avail yourselves of the opportunity to invite your friends to become sponsoring members or purchase tickets at the door.

He only is wretched and miserable who thinks himself so.

Boy Scouts—

Commander John T. Foley, USNR, addressed the gathering on the subject, "A Priest Aboard Our Fighting Ships." The Reverend Foley presented a graphic picture on the invasions of the South Pacific campaign. He emphasized the value of Scout training and stated examples of fighting men who practiced the ideals of the Scout Oath and Law, particularly those parts which state that a Scout is Brave—Clean—Reverent.

Scouting and Cubbing songs were sung throughout the breakfast program and led by Norumbega's Cubbing chairman, George Shannon. The Reverend Taglino pronounced the Benediction. A Vesper Service for Scouting of Protestant Faith took place in the afternoon at the Second Church in West Newton. The Reverend M. Russell Boynton, Chaplain for Scouts of Protestant Faith, conducted the service. The Reverend Frederick M. Morris of Trinity P.E. Church, Newton Centre, gave the sermon. He pointed out the importance of the ideals of the Scout oath and law and reminded the Scouts and Scout Leaders that these ideals are a code for daily living. He stated that forbearance and forgiveness are virtues to be practiced by all. A Bugler Quartet from Troop 83, Wellesley, began the service with church call. Commissioner F. Brittain Kennedy led a memorial prayer and also the Scout oath. Eagle Scout Peter Cummings conducted the tribute to the national colors. The Commissioner's staff, Scoutmaster Executive, Robert E. Pettit, took part in the service. Scoutmaster Harold Ammidon of Troop 7C, his committee, and Scouts of his troop acted as hosts, marshals and ushers. Scouts of Troop 7C presented the colors during the service.

tion. At the close of hostilities it had nearly 9,500 workers overseas engaged in welfare, hospital, club, and canteen work, besides more than 9,000 in the United States. The Red Cross was operating 820 clubs and rest homes, with no immediate letup in the need for them in sight.

After cessation of hostilities in Europe the need for Red Cross continuance there became abundantly clear. And in the Pacific the recreation problem for American forces is even greater than that in Europe. Few islands offer anything in the way of amusement, American style.

At home, recreation and welfare services are being continued for able-bodied men in camps and naval bases and for the thousands of hospitalized, large numbers of whom will need Red Cross attention for months. Red Cross work with veterans is expected to show a sharp rise during the next five or six years as millions of men are discharged from the armed forces.

The Red Cross, never exclusively a war agency, will have increased postwar usefulness in its regular services such as disaster relief, first aid—which is being called for more and more by industrial plants and workers water safety, and accident prevention.

The Village quotas for both the Advanced Gifts and Residential Divisions are as follows:

pital adequate to existing needs," advised his listeners.

The great metropolitan hospitals, he stated, should carry on the greater part of the research, be available to give assistance in difficult matters of diagnosis and meet local needs, but that local hospitals of adequate size should be prepared to meet the major part of the requirements of the people in their vicinity.

"Among suburban hospitals, Newton-Wellesley is already in the lead," Mr. Farley said. "I can think of only one other that is comparable in general excellence and reputation. But you can't keep your position unless you meet the challenge you now have."

Predicting ever-increasing public demands for admission to hospitals everywhere, Mr. Farley declared that Newton and Wellesley enjoyed a reputation for meeting their own obligations and those to the larger community of cities. "You always have taken the lead. You have an obligation of not only keeping up your own standards but of keeping your supremacy in the eyes of others," he said.

"You can't find any other activity that can give you the same satisfaction as that which will come from developing your hospital. However little you can do, or however much you may do, you can find no deeper reward. I'm sure you will succeed, because you have a cause which is beyond criticism. God bless you as you try it," Mr. Farley concluded.

Mr. Leonard took as the theme of his brief address the need for greater accommodations and facilities as cited in Mr. Hartman's annual report read by Miss Story.

During the present month, the report stated, 231 of the 237 beds available in the hospital were occupied on one day, not to mention the existence of a waiting list of approximately 60.

The situation makes it plain, Mr. Leonard commented, that there is almost no margin of safety at Newton-Wellesley Hospital and that when emergency cases are numerous, less urgent cases have to be turned away. Despite the existing handicaps, there were no maternal deaths last year and no beds, floors or wards were closed. He advocated a policy of aggressiveness in the prosecution of the $2,250,000 building fund project, to the end that the hospital be enabled to care for all who may require its services.

Mr. Walker, who acted as master of ceremonies, opened the meeting by reading Valentine limericks in honor of the guests.

The slate of officers re-elected with Mr. Walker included Clarence G. McDavitt of Newtonville, first vice president; Paul T. Babson of Wellesley, second vice president; and C. Raymond Cabot of Newtonville, clerk. Donald P. Perry of West Newton was elected treasurer and Henry T. Dunker of Newton Centre, assistant treasurer.

Miss Marion H. Niles of Wellesley, president of the Friendly Aid Association, was chosen to serve the unexpired term of Miss Mary C. Sawyer, deceased, and S. Willard Bridges of Wellesley was named to a five-year term on the board of trustees. Both were elected members of the hospital corporation.

Trustees re-elected for terms to expire in 1951 were Mr. Babson, Mr. Cabot, Marshall B. Dalton of West Newton, Mrs. Charles B. Floyd of Auburndale, Benjamin W. Guernsey of Wellesley, Mrs. Fred R. Hayward of Newton Highlands, E. Prentiss Jones of Newton Centre, John A. Paine of West Newton, Wickliffe J. Spaulding of Auburndale, Mrs. Vernon B. Swett of Newton and Mrs. Theron B. Walker of Newton Highlands.

In his annual report read by Miss Story, Mr. Hartman stated that the American College of Surgeons, which decides whether hospitals are meeting minimum standards, had given its approval to Newton-Wellesley. The inspector, he related, was impressed with the sharp contrast between the newer portions of the hospital and the old.

Among the measures adopted to improve safety and facilities Mr. Hartman listed rehabilitation of the boiler plant with $7,000 from the Community Chest and the installation of new fire escapes in Founders Memorial. Despite war-time restrictions, the director continued, extensive sound-proofing was completed and general cleanliness maintained. Other physical improvements mentioned were the creation of waiting rooms in the maternity department and on the accident floor, with the help of the Hospital Aid Association.

The director listed outstanding developments in the field of service as completion of a modern medical anesthesia department, which administered to a total of 3,831, creation of a department of occupational therapy under a therapist formerly with the Rehabilitation Hospital of New York City and the consolidation of the nurses' and medical library into a single library through the generosity of the Hospital Aid Association and through gifts in excess of $1,000 from the medical staff.

The year 1945 also saw establishment of the department of volunteers under the direction of Mrs. Mabel H. Hobbs, R.N., Mr. Hartman reported, to coordinate the work of 597 independent workers who gave 18,195 hours of service and Red Cross workers who gave 59,330 hours. Remarkable that 20 Red Cross nurses' aides are now undergoing a training course, he asserted that there remains an acute need for volunteers, who he noted in passing, "by serving within our walls, have learned much and are the best interpreters of our service from a public relations standpoint."

In addition Mr. Hartman reported great progress in the development of the hospital's postgraduate medical education program, calling attention to the fact that from one residency the number had increased to seven in various fields.

Newton-Wellesley Hospital was the second highest in the state from the standpoint of Blue Cross utilization, he said, payments having increased from $51,111 in 1941 to $164,157 in 1945, or approximately 25 percent of the hospital's income budget in the latter year.

In conclusion the director said the hospital, which must stand ready to admit anyone in Newton and Wellesley who require service, deserve and needs the support of everyone in those communities. "During the past year," he said, "we have operated the hospital with the highest possible patient load. At no times have we had to shut down beds. For this versity, Ensign Eastman engaged in research work with Arthur D. Little Co. for the National Defense Research Committee and was awarded the certificate of recognition for effective service. Transferred to Yale University by the Navy, he graduated with Bachelor of Engineering Degree before entering active service aboard the USS Baldwin DD624. He remained with that destroyer until its recent arrival for decommissioning at Charleston, S. C. He participated in anti-submarine work in New England, North Atlantic and Mediterranean waters, as well as the interesting voyage to North Africa and Egypt, as escort to the USS Quincy, carrying President Roosevelt to and from the Yalta Conference. After Germany's defeat, the Baldwin operated with the Third and Seventh Fleets in the Pacific area, participating in the initial occupation of Sasebo Naval Base, Japan, and serving as flagship for minesweeping operations in the Yangtze River to open Shanghai for shipping. The Baldwin later engaged in sweeps of Formosa Straits, Korea, and civil administration of the Island of Taiwan. In the last several months of these operations, Ensign Eastman was Engineer Officer of the destroyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Eastman have a wide acquaintance in this locality. Both are graduates of Newton High School. Mrs. Eastman is a graduate of Framingham Teachers' College, and is well known through her work with the Newton Nutrition Center.

Dolen - Collins

Miss Virginia Ann Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice J. Collins of 19 Cottage street, Newton Upper Falls and Felix A. Dolen, son of Mrs. Julia Dolen of Jamaica Plain, were married on Saturday, February 9, at the Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church, Newton Upper Falls. The nine o'clock nuptial mass was performed by the pastor, the Rev. William J. O'Connell.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white lace, styled with a white satin bodice. Her finger tip veil was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of white gladioli and baby's breath. The bride's sister, Storekeeper, 3c, Margaret R. Collins, U. S. Marine Corps, was the maid of honor. She wore a gown of light blue net over blue taffeta with a matching head veil. Her bouquet combined yellow jonquils and delphinium.

Charles Dolen, of West Roxbury, was the best man for his brother. The ushers were Francis J. Collins, of Needham, brother of the bride, and William Keyes, of Dedham, a brother-in-law of the groom.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast and reception was held at the Miles Standish Hotel, Boston. Mr. and Mrs. Dolen left by plane for New York and upon their return will live at 25 Kingsboro park, Jamaica Plain.

THE FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the Lord shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory." This passage from the Bible, Isaiah 60:19, comprises the Golden Text to be used in the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, and in all of its branches, on Sunday, February 17.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Soul," and included in the Bible selections is, "Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him; and he cannot sin, because he is born of God" (1 John 3:9).

The following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included in the Lesson-Sermon: "So long as we believe that soul can sin or that immortal Soul is in mortal body, we can never understand the Science of being. When humanity—does understand this Science, it will become the law of Life to man—even the higher law of Soul, which prevails over material sense through harmony and immortality" (p. 311).

RECENT DEATHS

HELEN JOHNSON TEMPLE

Mrs. Helen Johnson Temple, 68, widow of Thomas F. Temple, former vice-president of the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company, passed away on February 8th at her home 5 Willard street, Newton.

Mrs. Temple had been a resident of Newton for 29 years. Surviving her are two daughters, Mrs. Edith Clark and Mrs. Gertrude Schwab, a son, Thomas F. Temple II, and a granddaughter, Jacquelyn Temple Schwab, all of Newton.

CATHARINE M. CAMPBELL

Mrs. Catharine M. Campbell, died on Friday, February 8, at her home 439 Washington street, Newton.

Mrs. Campbell was in her 93rd year. She was born in Ireland and had been a resident of Newton for 75 years.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Anne Dwyer and Miss Sadie Campbell, both of Newton, and two sons, Francis J. of Long Island, New York and Edward Campbell of Detroit, Michigan.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning from her home. A requiem mass was celebrated in the Church of Our Lady by Rev. Daniel J. Taglino. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham with prayers by Fr. Taglino.

ANNIE WEBBER

Private funeral services were held at the William R. Miller Chapel, Waltham on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock for Mrs. Annie (Heywood) Webber, widow of Charles H. Webber, of 17 Oxford road, Newton Centre. Rev. Leon S. Simonetti, minister of the First Parish Church, Waltham, officiated. Burial was in Sleepy Hollow Cemetery, Concord.

Mrs. Webber died on Saturday, February 9. She was born in Concord, Mass., October 3, 1861, the daughter of Abel and Julia (Adams) Heywood. She had been a resident of Newton Centre for many years, and was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Henry L. Bleiler with whom she made her home, and Miss Velma B. Webber, both of Newton Centre, two grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to the business friends of Langley Road for the beautiful floral tribute which they sent to the service for Mrs. Ruth G. Oldhausen, Madame Ruth.

Rotary Club Observes Scouts 36th Anniversary

The 36th Anniversary of Scouting was observed at the meeting of the Newton Rotary Club last Friday at the Brae Burn Country Club. The speaker was Scout Executive Robert E. Pettit, a member of Newton Rotary, who presented an interesting picture of the development of Scouting from its start on February 8, 1910 to the present day when it is represented in 74 different countries.

Executive Pettit introduced the new Squadron Leader, Winthrop Furbush, a former naval aviator just returned from service who brought with him a group of young and fine looking Air Scouts. The Newton Rotary Club sponsored this Air Squadron in Newton and it has become the outstanding Air Squadron in the country. The Air Scouts presented an interesting program, demonstrating their work and they brought along a fine exhibit. Air Scout, Parker Mangeladorf, gave a witty accounting of their activities during the past year. Special mention is due Ev. Pierce whose hard work to a high degree was responsible for the development of their Air Scout Troop.

Special Scouting guests were: Scout Commissioner of Norumbega Council, F. Brittain Kennedy; Field Scout Executive, John Adams; former Squadron Leader, Scotty Mitchell. Other visitors were: Stanley Porter, Frederick S. Bacon, T. E. Kellar, Raymond Wilbur, Paul Pandolf, District Governor Lyman Rutledge of Dedham, Scotty Mitchell, Norman Reed, Mrs. F. Brittain Kennedy, Miss Adelaide Ball, John Adams, John McGrath and J. Mervin Allen.

PLAN BEFORE YOU PLANT

PLAN YOUR GARDEN ON PAPER FIRST. Consult your seedsman for suggestions as to better planting, fertilizing and general care. Also ask him about new or more choice varieties of seeds. Eliminate those grown not well liked by the family but fill in that space with another choice. Increase your variety of foods to be selected from.

Vets at Harvard University Urgently Need Homes

Along with all the other housing problems current today, the plight of the married veterans returning to Harvard is particularly acute. In many cases men with long overseas duty have been reduced to leaving their wives and children at home. Some have been forced to withdraw from the University. To combat the problem the University has set up the Harvard Housing Bureau, under the guidance of Director Donald D. Hathaway and his capable assistants. Further, they were fortunate in securing the aid of Mr. Edward L. Francis of Hunneman & Co. as consulting expert. In addition, the University has contracted some prefabricated housing units to be installed in the summer or early fall.

Despite such measures, the University is still faced with 1200 veterans returning to the University. Those with children must have apartments and are hence in the same position as all returning servicemen. But the Bureau feels that for the veteran whose wife works or who is a student himself, the problem is different—that the question is one of finding a place to study and sleep and not that of setting up formal housekeeping. To this end they are endeavoring to contact owners in greater Boston who might share or make available certain portions of their homes. Quite a few of the students have automobiles or can make suitable commuting arrangements. On the whole it may be a temporary program, yet even the housing units will not satisfy the demand. Nor has the University reached its peak in enrollment. Therefore, the bureau urgently needs and will appreciate assistance of any sort. We urge you to telephone Kirkland 7600 extensions, 55, 58.

A Message to Mr. and Mrs. Citizen From The Newton League of Women Voters

ARE YOU A DESPAIRING CITIZEN?
As you watch your government, local, state and national, do you ever feel powerless to influence its policies and actions? If you are a farmer, a trade union member, a member of the N.A.M. or some chamber of commerce—in short, of any such organization, your voice may be heard in affairs that concern that group; but on most matters you are just a member of the great public. Of course you elect your officials; but, after they are chosen, they stay in office for a term of years during which needs and issues may alter drastically. Your problem, then, is how to be heard on these constantly changing questions,—how to give your little push in what you hold to be the right direction.

There are two ways in which you can be of some effect. One is to keep as well informed as possible on public affairs. The other is to write to your representatives, local, state, and national. A postal will do. Your advice may not always be followed, because there is always two or more sides to everything, and only one can prevail. But you will have the satisfaction of knowing that you did all a citizen can do between elections. In order that such expressed opinion may not come only from organized pressure groups with axes to grind—even good axes, Mr. and Mrs. Ordinary-Citizen should show where they stand.

It is not always easy to get unbiased and succinct information and most of us haven't time to do a lot of reading. The literature of the League of Women Voters is one source of reliable, brief information on those questions which the League, after careful consideration, considers most vital to the public as a whole. The League stands for no party and no group. It is not itself a pressure group excepting in the good sense of working hard for what it holds to be the genuine public interest. The Newton League of Women Voters is eager to extend its field of service, to be able to give out more literature, to have more speakers for larger meetings, to get more information to voters. For this increased activity they need more money. A contributions campaign is being run now for this purpose. Mrs. John L. MacNeil, 252 Franklin street, Newton, is chairman. The League hopes that Newton citizens will use this source of information on public affairs. This is available to all people in Newton, regardless of party, race or creed.

Social Science Club of Newton

"The Mexican Cession" will be the subject of a paper given by Mrs. Samuel E. Cutler at the meeting of the club on Wednesday at 10 a.m. Mrs. Samuel Braham and Mrs. Fletcher Coffey will be the hostesses.

Newton Lions Club

Asa D. Blakeslee, President of the Club at the last meeting of the Newton Lions Club in introducing the speaker of the evening, Lion Edwin House mentioned that quite a few "firsts" had been made by Lion House. He is the first son of a member to become a member. (Bill House being the Poppa) the first son of a member to be a speaker, the first Veteran of World War II to become a member. The Lions are proud of Edwin and were very interested in his talk relating his travels as a member of the U. S. Marine Corps, and incidentally of the many engagements in the South Pacific area in which he took part. Ed mentioned that as near as he could figure, in his travels he covered 3200 miles by air, 18,700 by ship, 12,800 miles by rail, and twice as many on foot. Before being honorably discharged from the Service Edwin was used as a human guinea pig for the treatment of malaria, being a volunteer.

During the meeting Lion Tamer Jack Tapper had his double quartette lead the members in a few songs which are being rehearsed in anticipation of a special meeting to be held in honor of Sea Scout Ship 13, sponsored by the Club. At this meeting the speaker will be "Dolph" Samborski, Director of Intramural Athletics at Harvard and among guests expected to be present are Sea Scout Commodore Alan M. MacIntire and Commissioner F. Brittain Kennedy of Norumbega Council.

Homecrafters Club

The Newton Homecrafters club will meet on Monday evening, February 18, at 7:30, at the home of Eugene E. Little of 19 Crofton road, Waban. A demonstration of hand tools as used in bench work will be given by Albert Dulac.

Newton W.C.T.U.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Newton will meet Friday, Feb. 15, at 711 Boylston street, Boston, at the Home Craft Demonstration Shop on 5th floor. A luncheon will be served and talks will be given by active officers of the State W.C.T.U. in the morning and afternoon. The program will start at 10:30 a.m. and last until 3:45 p.m. Mrs. Sarah Stevens, president will attend also Mrs. Robert Keene, Miss Evangeline Morse and Mrs. Isaac Gaddard. A door prize will be awarded. This is generally groceries, as it is a demonstration luncheon.

Newtonville Woman's Club

Mr. J. David Townsend, lecturer and traveler, will address the Newtonville Woman's Club, at the meeting to be held on Tuesday, February 19th, at 2:30 p.m. After twenty-nine years spent in France and Algeria, Mr. Townsend has recently returned to America. A close student of political happenings and regional customs, he has watched European events take shape and head up inexorably in the present crisis. With his family of four young children he fled from Paris only two days before the German troops entered that city. Swept into the endless stream of refugees, he was an eyewitness of many heart-breaking incidents. The subject of Mr. Townsend's address is, "The French Political Set-Up as seen through the eyes of a Woman of the Street."

Miss Estelle G. Marsh, club president, will conduct the meeting. A group of songs will be sung by Mrs. Kenneth A. Bernard, with Mrs. Harold G. Osterland, accompanist. Pourers at the tea will be Mrs. Harry B. Green, Mrs. Everett H. Judkins, and Mrs. William R. Mattson.

Community Service Club

On Wednesday, Feb. 20 the Community Service Club of West Newton will hold its monthly meeting at the Unitarian church, West Newton, at two o'clock. This will be a joint meeting of the Newton Federation Clubs.

Mr. Arthur Moulton will present an illustrated lecture in colors of "Quaint Quebec, the Land of Contrasts."

Newtonville Garden Club

The Newtonville Garden Club will meet on Thursday, February 28, 1946 at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. W. B. Hanna, 40 Fair Oaks avenue, Newtonville. Mrs. F. W. Harding will speak on "The Joyous Art of Gardening."

Newton Garden Club

"Color through Flowers" will be subject of a colorful lecture and demonstration by Mrs. Henry M. Kistner of Glendale, Long Island, at a meeting of the Newton Centre Garden Club at 10 o'clock on Tuesday, February 19th, at the Newton Centre Woman's Club House. Mrs. George I. Engle, President of the club, will preside at the meeting which will be preceded by a social half hour with coffee. Tickets for the Spring Flower Show on March 18 to 23 inclusive, at Mechanics Building, Boston, may be purchased at this meeting at the Garden Club price of 95c, tax included.

Mrs. William H. Perry, the Club's busy and efficient Program Chairman, who is responsible for the interesting programs this year is assisted by Mrs. Austin C. Benton, Mrs. Louis E. Phaneuf, Mrs. J. Warren Gerrity, Mrs. Frederick C. Rising, Mrs. William H. Lothrop, and Mrs. Clifford P. Smith.

Former Navy Men May Rejoin at Same Rank Within 90 Days

Lt. Comdr. John F. Sargent, Officer in Charge of Navy recruiting in the eastern Massachusetts district, today announced that men with previous Navy service who desire to re-enlist in the regular Navy with the same rating which they held at the time of their separation from the service must do so within ninety days from the date of their discharge. Previous regulations allowed men a full three months to re-enlist with the same rating. Previous-service men wishing to re-enlist in the Navy, or to obtain information, should visit the Boston Navy recruiting station in the Post Office building, Post Office Square.

Miss O'Gara studied at the summer school of the University of Alberta, Banff, Canada, and at present is a teacher of art in the Boston schools. Her subjects are the Canadian Rockies. Mrs. Caron is a teacher in the Henry Whittemore School in Waltham. Five of her pictures are of Maine and others are Rockport and locality.

The Colonial Farmhouse

PICTURE AND TEXT FROM BOOK OF HOMES
Published by The Cooperative Banks of Massachusetts

By taking extra pains with the proportion and fenestration of the facade, it is possible to avoid a "boxy" appearance in the small 2-story Colonial House. The perfect proportion of the old houses was due largely to the fact that they were set close to the ground, the story heights were quite low and the space between floors was kept to the minimum. The modern house is placed a few inches off the ground and story heights are somewhat higher. To obtain the effect of the old low house, however, it is only necessary to carry the eave line about eighteen inches below the second-story ceiling, as was done with the house shown. It is such things as this that make the difference between a really good house and an ordinary one. It has a large living-room, dining-room, kitchen with breakfast nook, and lavatory on the first floor, and three bedrooms, dressing room and bath on the second. There is ample closet space.

No more certificates! Once again every one is eligible to buy, and soon you'll be able to drive in and get immediate delivery on new tires for your car.

PRODUCTION OUTLOOK AT A GLANCE

Tire manufacturers have been unable to fill the great need for new passenger car tires. In case we do not have the right size tire for your car, we should be able to get it soon. Come in for full information.

HERE'S WHY you'll want the B. F. Goodrich Silvertown

OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES!

It has been proved. More than 2,000 tests and nearly 17,000,000 miles of the toughest kind of road service showed that this new B.F. Goodrich Silvertown will Outwear Prewar natural rubber tires.

New, better rubber. B.F. Goodrich has developed a rubber that's far better than ordinary synthetics. It helps the new Silvertown wear better and run cooler. It has greater resistance to cracking—and actually resists bruising and damage from accidents better.

Tire body 35% stronger. An entirely new, stronger cord is used, more of these cords are used in the top ply, an extra shock-absorbing breaker strip is included. The result: a body that is 35% stronger for additional resistance to bruises, extra blowout protection.

Flatter tread covers more ground. Called the "road level" tread, it puts more rubber on the road, permits all the tread to share the wear. Result: a further increase in mileage, less scuffing, better distribution of weight, better traction, more safety on the turns.

Plus 3 years' EXTRA experience. Three years before any other manufacturer, B.F. Goodrich sold tires containing synthetic rubber to American car owners. The extra know-how piled up in these years is reflected in the new B.F. Goodrich Silvertown.

Metropolitan Opera At Boston April 4 To April 13

The Metropolitan Opera Company of New York will again come to Boston for its annual spring visit. The Boston Opera Association announces that twelve performances will be given by the Metropolitan at the Boston Opera House beginning April 4th and continuing through April 13th, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday.

The company will bring the new Swedish tenor, Torsten Ralf, who will be heard on opening night in Tannhauser. In the same cast the celebrated contralto Blanche Thebom makes her first appearance in Boston and the performance will be conducted by the Metropolitan's new Wagnerian Conductor, Fritz Busch. Other new singers will be heard during the season. Mail orders will be accepted after February 16th at the office of the Boston Opera Association at 420 Boylston street, Boston, and Mrs. Anita Davis-Chase, Promotion Manager, urges that no cash be sent in mail orders as it positively will not be accepted.

CITY OF NEWTON Massachusetts

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Scaled Proposals for furnishing the 1946 requirements of the Newton Water Department for gasoline of the grade termed "Regular", as furnished to your filling stations, will be received at the office of the Water Commissioner, City Hall, Newton Centre, Massachusetts, until 11 A.M. Thursday, Feb. 21, 1946, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read.

All Proposals should be endorsed "Proposal for furnishing gasoline" and must be sealed, made in duplicate, one proposal to be deposited with the Commissioner and must be accompanied by a certified check upon a National Bank or Trust Company in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) payable to and to become the property of the City of Newton if the Proposal is accepted and the Bidder neglects or refuses to comply with the terms of the Proposal.

One Proposal (without check) must be filed by the Bidder in the office of the Comptroller of Accounts in Newton, prior to the time set for the opening of bids. (See Ordinance of the City of Newton, Chapter 2, Section 21, as amended.)

A sufficient Bond for the faithful performance of the Contract for the sum of Twenty-five hundred dollars ($2,500.00) will be required.

Delivery of material to be purchased is to be made at the Water Department Supply Yard, 675 Watertown St., or at the Needham St. pumping station, 2318 Needham St. Deliveries are to be made upon orders from the Water Department issued from time to time upon the seller. The Department's requirements for the year 1946 are estimated to be between 22,000 and 25,000 gals. The right to increase the quantities 50% or to decrease them 50% is reserved in the City.

Discount terms shall appear in the Proposal. It is the intention of the said Contract to award this Contract only to a Bidder who can show satisfactory evidence that he has the requisite ability, experience and Plant Equipment to complete the Contract in full accordance with the terms thereof.

Said Commissioner reserves the right to reject or accept any Proposal and to award the Contract as he may deem it best for the interest of the City of Newton and any Contract made will be made subject to approval and grants to meet payment thereof.

Pick Flowers from This List for Peace Garden

Garden planning is best done in the winter when the gardener has most time for it. Here is a list of flowers, classified according to type, color and habits, which may be a valuable aid in planning a garden on paper.

For edges and borders—Sweet alyssum, dwarf nasturtiums, lobelia, dwarf marigold, ageratum, Virginia stocks, forget-me-nots.

Long stems for cutting—Asters, calliopsis, mourning bride or scabiosa, cosmos, giant zinnias, and double gaillardias.

Short stems for cutting—Mari-golds, snapdragons, calendulas, sweet peas, annual chrysanthemums, bachelor buttons, carnations, lilliput zinnias, annual pinks, sweet sultans, salpiglossis.

For color masses—Petunia, zinnia, marigolds, calendulas, annual phlox, verbena, stock, aster, salvia and poppies.

For light or poor soil—Nasturtiums, Clarkia, godetia, poppy, portulaca and zinnias.

For fragrance—Mignonette, heliotrope, nasturtiums, alyssum, ten weeks' stock and sweet peas.

For shady places—Pansies, torenias or wishbone plant, godetia, forget-me-not, nemophila and varieties of mimulus.

For hot situations—Sunflowers, heliotrope, portulaca, ice plant, petunias, balsam and annual gaillardia.

Vines—Morning glories, moonflowers, Japanese hop, climbing nasturtium, cardinal climbers, cobaea, cypress vine, balloon vine, scarlet runner and hyacinth beans.

For a fragrant, all-season border, with material for cutting, you may include most of the following: Ten weeks' stocks, petunias, French and African marigolds, calendulas, annual larkspurs, cosmos, zinnias, sweet peas, portulaca, kochia, flowering tobacco, calliopsis, annual phlox, ageratum, sweet alyssum, poppies, asters, balsams, bachelor's buttons, sweet sultan, coxcomb and annual pinks.

If you have any questions about flowers, or gardening, Mr. Howden of Clapper Co., 1121 Washington Street, West Newton, will be glad to answer them.

Bill: Say, dear, what have I done to deserve two eggs on my plate this morning?

Jane: I thought I'd surprise you with that extra one. It's been a long time since you've sat down to something as rare as that, hasn't it?

Bill: I'll say it has. But what's the idea anyway? It isn't my birthday, so...

Jane: Well, I know how very fond of eggs you are, and since all fresh ones have suddenly hit a new low in price and are no longer a luxury item on our budget, I decided to give you a treat.

Bill: That certainly is good news; it's not very often that you hear a food price has dropped. Now that you mention it though, I do remember overhearing a conversation on the subject of eggs on the bus yesterday. But I was so busy reading my newspaper that the words didn't make much of an impression.

Jane: Yes, I imagine that there's more than one young husband who is getting an added supply of protein and iron this morning and who is just as pleased about it as you are. You can expect more eggs in our meals from now on because they are such a good buy during this season.

A MESSAGE OF INTEREST TO BOSTON EDISON CUSTOMERS

At a time when prices of most commodities are showing an UPWARD trend

Boston Edison Company announces

(Effective, March 1, 1946)

a DOWNWARD revision of electrical rates for 395,000 residential and commercial customers

It is always good news to receive word of a reduction in the price of an essential commodity. During a period in which commodity prices show a general upward curve and the cost of doing business is increasing, it is noteworthy when an organization announces lower prices for the product it sells.

Such an organization is Boston Edison Company. On and after March 1, 1946, Boston Edison residential and commercial customers will benefit from the new rate schedules which have been filed with the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities. The total number of customers affected is approximately 395,000 and the aggregate yearly saving to them will be $1,200,000.

SUMMARY of New Reduced Rates

1. First step of residential and small commercial rates reduced from 6 1/4 to 6 cents.
2. "Area" feature in residential rate entirely eliminated.
3. Rates affecting large commercial customers modified and reduced to promote modern installations for both light and power.

In making these rate reductions, the Company is giving its customers immediate benefits of lower Federal taxes, but at a time when all other operating expenses such as fuel, payroll and materials are rising. This action further demonstrates Boston Edison's confidence in the future of Boston and the 39 cities and towns directly served by our lines. It should encourage a broadened use of electricity as a household servant and the hand-maid of commerce.

It is true today... and beginning March first it will be more than ever true... that

"Electricity does more and costs less than any other item in the family budget."

Ask Pensions Be Increased for City Employees

At a meeting of Newton Local 175, City Employees Union held last Thursday evening in Columbus Hall, Newton, it was voted to send three representatives to a hearing to be held Feb. 12 at 10:30 a.m. at the State House, Boston on House Bill 470 which provides that pensions be increased from one-half to two-thirds of the annual pay. Members who will attend the hearing are President John D. Russo, Vice-President Thomas J. Moran and Legislative Agent A. Leslie Moriarty.

It was also voted to write congressmen and senators urging passage of House Bill 2330, which provides for the exemption of the first $2,000 for income tax purposes, of all annuities and pensions, received by retired Federal, State and Municipal employees. It was pointed out that under the Railroad Retirement Act, $1,300 is exempt and under the Social Security Act, $1,200 is exempt from Federal taxation.

Halliday Resumes Law Practice

William E. Halliday, Jr., of Newtonville has resumed his practice of law at 1357 Washington street, West Newton.

Mr. Halliday entered the service in January 1941 with the 101st Field Artillery, Yankee Division and was recently discharged as a First Sergeant. Before the war, he practiced law at 55 Kilby street Boston.

Bernard Burke, Jr., Discharged from Navy

Bernard M. Burke, Jr., Ph.M. 3-c, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard M. Burke of 29 Richmond road, Newton has received his honorable discharge from the Navy following 33 months of service. He was assigned to the USS Hendry APA 118 and served in the European and Asiatic theaters. He is a graduate of Boston College High School and attended Boston College for one year before entering the service. He was the winner of 4 letters in hockey and one in football.

appeal, from Mrs. Carl S. Floyd, for 500 bed-side laundry bags, for Rutland Veterans.

Among the many speakers, was Mrs. William C. Whitman, who reviewed pending Legislation on Beacon Hill. Mrs. Max Ulin, in discussing "International Relations," urged Club Women to study the news carefully, in order to discriminate between the sensational headlines and the real underlying problems, that confront the world today.

Mrs. John A. Jennings, brought an appeal from the Navy Base for knitted sweaters, etc., handkerchiefs for boys in the hospitals, and explained the "French adoption Plan," which includes signing up to send, twice a month, a letter and box to French children.

Among the guests at the luncheon were: Mrs. Oscar J. Price, Mrs. Chester Perrine, Mrs. Philip J. Perrine, Mrs. Warren C. Whitman, Mrs. William G. Priest, Mrs. Clifton S. Hall, Mrs. Robert E. Powell, Mrs. Burr J. Merriam, Mrs. Harold H. Given, Mrs. Joseph E. Davidson, Mrs. John E. Spike, Mrs. John H. Chesley, Mrs. William A. Robb, Mrs. Parkman Collins, Mrs. Rebecca J. Bell, Mrs. Leslie E. Wright.

Mrs. Wilson H. Roads, Chairman, was in charge of the business meeting, which began at 2:00 p.m., and among the prominent speakers from the Federation were: Mrs. Harvey E. Greenwood, Mrs. Joseph E. Davidson, Mrs. John A. Jennings, Mrs. Nathaniel E. Smith, Mrs. William J. McDonald, Mrs. Walter E. Boyd, Mrs. Robert Max Ulin and Mrs. Edward H. Averill.

Mrs. William A. Leighton, chairman of the day, was in charge of a luncheon given by the Executive Board of the Auburndale Club at 1 p.m. for the Guest Speakers and others including Mrs. Arthur W. Cornell, Twelfth District Director; Miss Adelaide B. Ball, President of the 28 Federated Clubs of Newton; and Mrs. Herbert J. Ham, Twelfth District Publicity Chairman.

Light refreshments were also served at 1:30 p.m. to all attending the meeting, and special invitations were issued to all Presidents and members of Clubs of the Twelfth District. Mrs. Brooks Heath, hostess, and committee, were assisted by Mrs. James Dunlop and Mrs. William A. Jackson, as Pourers.

Budget Committee Visits Pomroy House

The Budget Committee of the Newton Community Chest, Inc., spent a very enjoyable evening at one of the Member Agencies, The Rebecca Pomroy House. To demonstrate what they learn in their several cooking groups, the girls prepared and served a tasty supper to their guests. Mrs. Hugh S. Hince, President of the Board of Directors, was hostess to the following guests: Mr. Thomas Shirley, President of the Community Chest; Mr. Lawrence Damon, Vice-President; Mr. L. Sumner Prunty, Chairman of the Budget Committee; Messrs. Wendell Berry, John M. Powell, Aubrey Schurman, J. Arthur Noon, Lewis O. Barrows, Dr. Chester Alter, all members of the Committee; Mr. H. J. Pettengill, Executive Secretary of the Chest.

The following leaders and cooking club members were present from their groups: Mrs. Walter Forbes, Mrs. Frank Larabee, Miss Phyllis Jensen, Mrs. Adonias Gilbert together with the Misses Eleanor Aiello, Jeanette Costa, Ann Wood, Elizabeth Fahey, Christine Tucci and Mary Costanza.

The members of the Budget Committee were conducted through the House and told of the various activities carried on daily. Following supper and a short social period, the Committee held its meeting in the library.

'Babyland Stores' Club, Gift Winners

"Babyland," long a popular Waltham Nursery Furniture store, the first of a chain of Babyland stores, Specialty shops, devoted exclusively to fine nursery furniture, mattresses, baby carriages, guaranteed and serviced, and toys has opened another branch shop at 829 Washington street, Newtonville.

A feature of the store is the Babyland Sister and Brother's Club, started by Mrs. Evelyn Ostrow, owner and acting manager of the store. A gift is given every month to one of the customers' children, and the children are photographed at the store.

Master Olive Wilson, three-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. Norman J. Wilson of 90 Ellicott street, Needham, Mass. won the gift for December, a solid maple table and chair set, photograph of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bartley of 22 Walnut place, Newtonville, was the January winner of a doll's basinet complete with mattress and doll. Her photograph will be in next week's Graphic.

Mrs. Ostrow will be glad to tell you all about "Babyland's Sister and Brother's Club."

"Babyland" carries a full selection of nationally advertised merchandise, nursery ensembles, cribs, wardrobes, chests of drawers, mattresses, lamps, finest baby carriages, walkers, strollers, everything necessary to make sister and brother comfortable, also high chairs, play yards, auto beds and chairs, table and chair sets, desks, rockers, doll furniture, educational toys, doll carriages, all metal, large carts, hobby horses in all sizes, everything to make the youngsters happy.

Better take out that dry old Christmas tree and carry it to the dump; it's a fire menace in the cellar or the store room.

Dr. Donald Wyman to Speak on America's Greatest Garden

The garden about which Dr. Wyman will talk, when he addresses the Waban Woman's Club next Monday afternoon at the Neighborhood Clubhouse, is our world famous Arnold Arboretum. She shows not only the glorious spring blooming, but follows the sequence of color throughout the year. Dr. Wyman is horticulturist at the Arboretum, and has made valuable contributions to the study of the growth of woody plants.

In conjunction with the program of the day the Art Committee will exhibit a large group of original flower paintings by Mrs. Audrey Soule of Jamaica Plain.

Following the meeting, tea will be served and the pourers will be Mrs. Edson B. Smith and Mrs. Roland F. Pease.

The Literature Committee of the Waban's Woman's Club announces the final lecture of this season by Mrs. Bond on Tuesday morning, February 19th in the Neighborhood Clubhouse. She will discuss the spring books as well as give glimpses of authors whom she has interviewed.

60 Veterans Join Burns-Kerr Post A.L.

At the meeting of Burns-Kerr Post, 333, American Legion, held in the War Memorial Building, Newton Centre on Wednesday night, February 6, sixty veterans of World War II were enrolled as members of the Post.

About 700 persons including 250 recently discharged veterans were present at the meeting. A talk on "Veterans' Rights" was presented by Commander Lawrence Quigley of the Soldier's Home in Chelsea.

Mrs. Patrick Duncan, president of the Newton Chapter, War Parents of America, endorsed the new post and promised the assistance of her chapter. Mrs. Duncan also reviewed the work done by the War Parents during the recent conflict.

Commander Edward J. McPhee was in charge of the meeting. A group of piano selections were played by Frank Geary, former pianist for Paul Whiteman.

Refreshments were served by the War Parents under direction of Mrs. Charles Duffy, assisted by Mrs. Margaret Hoar, Mrs. Mary Ellis, Mrs. John T. Burns II, Mrs. John Connelly and Mrs. D. Parker Henley.

Police Post A.L. To Be Organized

The charter of the newly organized Newton Police Post, American Legion was signed by members at a meeting held in the War Memorial Building, Newton Centre and it is expected that when the next meeting is held the charter will have been approved by the State Department of the American Legion.

Thomas Cummings, commander protem presided at this meeting. Other temporary officers are John J. McGrath, secretary and Thomas W. McCormick, liaison officer. Veterans of both World War I and World War II who are members of the police department may become members.

Plans are being considered for organizations of a drill team to be composed of veterans of World War II with David T. Dalton, who recently returned to the police force following his discharge from the service, as drillmaster.

34 Graduate from Hospital School of Nursing

At candlelight exercises held in the Nurses Home on Friday evening, the thirty-four members of the Newton-Wellesley Hospital School of Nursing, the final class under the Cadet Nursing plan, were awarded their caps by Miss Mabel McVicker, principal of the School of Nursing.

Miss Edna Fritz, instructor of the Division of Nursing at Boston University addressed the members of the class and the Rev. John Scammon of the Andover Newton Theological School offered the invocation. Greetings were extended by E. Prentiss Jones, chairman of the Board of Directors of the School of Nursing. The Nurses' Glee Club sang.

Local members of the class were:

Elizabeth Boudreau, Newton; Louise Brown, Waltham; Virginia Cupp, Wellesley; Olive Davis, Newton; Kathleen Edwards, Waltham; Jean Pipes, Wellesley; Frances Shellenback, Newton Centre; Jean Sullivan, Waltham; Joan Thompson, West Newton; Helen Timmons, Wellesley Hills; and Marion Weir, Auburndale.

Young Confirmed as Street Commissioner

At a special meeting called by Mayor Paul M. Goddard for Wednesday evening, February 20, the Newton Board of Aldermen confirmed the appointment of Harold F. Young as Street Commissioner.

Robert Norton Speaker at Internat'l Lectures

Robert Norton will be the fourth and last speaker in the series of International Lectures at the Newton Centre Woman's Club for the year 1945-46. His subject will be "1945-50: The Critical Period." Reuben H. Markham, scheduled to speak on this date, March 18, is still in the Balkans. Tickets for dinner preceding the lecture may be obtained from Mrs. J. A. Noon, Big. 1820.

Contrary to published report during the war, many churches in Great Britain have been empty—only five percent of Protestants attend church, according to Dr. Herbert Hitchen, director of foreign churches for the American Unitarian Association, who has just returned from a five weeks' trip to England, flying both ways.

Speaking under the auspices of the West Newton Chapter of the Unitarian Laymen's League, Monday evening, Feb. 17, before an audience of more than 300 persons, this was Dr. Hitchen's first full report to the West Newton Unitarian Church, which loaned its minister as "ambassador" to the cause of liberal religion abroad.

President R. A. Stevens, of the Laymen's League, introduced Ex-Senator Weeks, who in turn presented Dr. Hitchen. Dr. Frederick

Mayor Recommends Salary Increases for Department Heads

Submits Budget to Board of Aldermen • At Meeting Last Monday Night

The budget recommendations of Mayor Paul M. Goddard were submitted to the Newton Board of Aldermen at their meeting on Monday night. The total of the mayor's recommendation was $6,273,544 or about $100,000 less than the amount recommended by the city department which was $6,392,839.

The mayor, however, recommended increases in salaries for the following department heads:

Chairman of the Board of Assessors, from $4,200 to $4,500. City clerk, from $4,350 to $4,500. Veterans Service Department commissioner, from $2,700 to $2,900. (Increase recommended for investigator, from $1,893 to $2,101; for clerk-stenographer, from $1,352 to $1,404.) Public buildings commissioner, from $4,200 to $4,500. Police chief, from $4,250 to $4,500. (Increase recommended for police captain, from $3,100 to $3,200.) Fire chief, from $4,100 to $4,500. (Increase recommended for two assistant chiefs, from total of $6,200 to $6,400.) Sealer of weight and measures, from $2,700 to $2,900. Health Department, health officer, from $4,000 to $4,500. Public Welfare Department, agent, from $4,000 to $4,300. Library Department, librarian, from $4,200 to $4,500. Recreation commissioner, from $4,000 to $4,300. Water commissioner, from $4,200 to $4,500.

He also set the salary of a new street commissioner as $4,500 instead of the $4,200 the former salary for that position, and a salary of $4,300 for the

Newton Teacher Passes Bar Exam

Miss Anna L. Ryan, teacher of the fourth and fifth grades at the Lincoln-Elliott School, Newton was one of eight women who passed the December bar examinations according to a list announced last Thursday by William H. Hitcock, chairman of the Board of Examiners.

Miss Ryan will be recommended for admission to the bar on March 6. She is the daughter of Mr. James Ryan of 1897 Commercial Street, Braintree, and sister of Dr. Robert R. Ryan, medical examiner of the Fourth Norfolk District. She was graduated from Boston University and the Portia Law School.

Victory Shop Closed

After four years of receiving magazines, cards, records and all kinds of recreational material for the service men the Victory Shop, located at 733 Beacon Street, Newton Centre, ceased functioning on February 19.

The women who conducted this collection center wish to thank the Newton residents for their splendid co-operation during the war years.

Chagnon Named Chairman of National Committee on Socialized Pharmacy of Medicine

Wilfred Chagnon, Commissioner of the Massachusetts Board of Pharmacy and proprietor of Hubbard's Drug Store, Newton, has been appointed chairman of the committee on Socialized Pharmacy and Medicine by President Otto Kohl of the National Association of Retail Druggists.

To be selected on a committee of this association is an honor and also a responsibility, this year in particular as the renewed attacks on Fair Trade, the invasion of the drug field by supermarkets, the threats against standards of education and licensure in pharmacy, all make it more necessary than ever that the retail druggist of the country be alert, and that they draft their best talent for strategic positions on the firing line.

Other members of the committee are Louis Fichel, Oakland, Cal., Frank Landy, Bridgeport, Conn., Patrick H. Costello, Iowa, Dan W. Houser, Detroit, Mich., J. A. Lacher, St. Paul, Minn., Louis J. Giffin, New York City, Roger McDuffie, Greensboro, N. C., A. P. Gegenheimer, Cleveland Heights, Ohio, Henry DeHaven, West Chester, Pa., H. C. Burroughs, Dallas, Texas and H. E. The Issue Is You

Many of the so-called liberal proponents of state or socialized medicine take the doctors to task for opposition to such proposals, with the implication that medicine in general is a balky, backward profession. These attempts to draw a black and white line around a grave problem are unwarranted. As a member of the medical profession has pointed out to his colleagues: "Our problem—and our only problem—is to see that these medical-economic questions are answered in such a manner that the best elements of medical science and medical practice are maintained. We must make certain that the quality of medical care does not suffer in an effort to increase the quantity or the availability."

What quite a few people do not seem to realize is that it is their welfare more than the doctor's that is at stake. When a lay enthusiast for a super-political scheme to revolutionize medical care shouts his case over the protesting heads of medical men, he is assuming a heavy responsibility. If his scheme is adopted and fails to work out, the health and lives of millions will be jeopardized. Even if the mistake is remedied by congressional action, those who were injured by an unwise law, will remain. The nation will have learned the hard way, that adequate medical care is not merely a matter of writing a law.

So remember, when you hear discussions over socialized medicine, the real issue is how best to take care of you, rather than the picaresque question of whether medicine is "reactionary" or "liberal."

Fair Employment Act Is Sucker Bait

There has been more downright drivel peddled in behalf of the misnamed Fair Employment Practices Act than for any piece of political hocus-pocus in many years.

The Act seeks to make employers hire more Negroes. Oratorical politicians wave the flag, talk about the Atlantic Charter and the Four Freedoms, and tell how we fought this war to bring freedom and equality to the world.

They don't say that the Fair Employment Practices Act which would force an employer to hire a Negro, would not require the same employer to hire a white person or a Negro if he refused to join some specified labor union.

There is no longer any freedom for a white laborer, or a Negro laborer, to earn a living in the United States in basic industries unless he first pays labor organizations for that privilege. Why should Congress talk about a fair employment act for either a white man or a colored man, and then, by legislation or lack of legislation, prevent a man getting a job?

It has remained for Senator Millard Tydings of Maryland to bring the hypocrisy of the Fair Employment Practices Act into the open. He seeks to make the bill at least honest in its purpose by urging its senatorial sponsors to carry out fully and logically their professed principles by supporting an amendment making it illegal to deny a job to any man because he is not a member of a union. How can an act be called a fair employment act unless that is done?

Senator Tydings' suggested amendment would bring back a man's constitutional right to earn a living in the United States without paying for the privilege, and leave him free to join or not to join any organization he sees fit. There should be no discrimination against any workman merely because of his race, creed, political or labor affiliations.

Politics With Color

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note)

Mr. Ickes

Never in the history of the New Deal has there been so much excitement as last week, when walloping Harold L. Ickes retired from the Washington scene after banging the ball over the fence in deep centre field and bringing his dramatic end.

What will happen now? First of all, the administration is exceedingly busy trying to cover up this new schism in the so-called Democratic party. This will require all the brains and ingenuity of the versatile Mr. Hannegan, the brilliant Mr. Friday of the administration. The point is that Mr. Ickes, with all his faults and eccentricities, happened to be about the best administrator in the entire New Deal outfit. Furthermore, everybody knew just where he stood at all times, because he called his shots without fear or favor. Even men like our own Bill Cunningham, who conducted a regular Fred Allen-Jack Benny feud with him for many years, was moved to say a number of kind things about the gentleman as he passed noisily out of the picture. Yes, Washington will be different without Mr. Ickes.

Finally, the Republicans are still licking their chops over this new branch in the mongrel Democratic party. It is one of the best breaks the G.O.P. has had in years. Even the Old Master, the late Mr. Roosevelt, would have been hard pressed to laugh this one off.

The Strike Situation

Just in case some of my readers do not follow Drew Pierson in the Traveler, it is worth pointing out that it now seems to be understood that President Truman could have averted the chaos of the past four months of strikes if he had refused to follow his close friend, John Snyder. Snyder turned down the very scheme which has now been put into operation. The difficulty then was that Snyder did not care for Bowles and industry as a whole did not warm up to Bowles either. Incidentally, it is now obvious that Snyder is by no means as valuable to the government as some of us have assumed. The big man seems to be Chester Bowles.

James Michael Curley

There is no point in stepping on a man when he is down. However, the Mayor of Boston has been down so many times, without ever being out, that he is almost an exception to the rule. One point seems worth stressing now. Let's skip the question as to whether or not Mr. Curley should now be serving a prison sentence. Let's skip, also, our own ideas as to what should happen to this brilliant and unpredictable public servant. As one leading Boston newspaper has recently pointed out, every citizen of Boston who cares for his good name should feel profound concern for the city's reputation in other parts of the country and even abroad. Even a child can grasp the idea that Mr. Curley's various escapades constitute atrocious advertising for Boston. The question therefore arises as to whether or not Mr. Curley should now resign as Mayor of Boston. Frankly, many of us feel that he should. It is a good bet, however, that this is the last thing which he will do unless his doctor so orders. And that's that.

The Governor's Appointments

The one appointment which gets under the skin of many Newtonians is, of course, the Governor's choice of John J. Desmond, Jr., of Chicopee. Not that there is anything necessarily wrong with Mr. Desmond, who has been School Superintendent in his home city. Indeed, he has a rather good background in many ways and he most certainly has some up-to-date ideas on education, especially with reference to veterans. The trouble is that this position is too important to become a political football. Men like our own Julius Warren do not grow on trees. When a man of this type can be persuaded to leave our city's service to function in a state-wide berth, it seems a pity to have a Democratic Governor wipe him off the slate for no other reason than the fact that he has no record as a "deserving Democrat." The Commissioner of Education, Mr. Warren, has not played politics, so far as the writer knows. He should not. Neither should the Governor of the state play politics and throw him out of office without cause. In the long run, the result of this kind of policy will be the refusal of most men of substance in the educational field to accept such an appointment. Too bad.

Harold E. Stassen

Further comments on the recent Stassen speech before the Middlesex Club on Feb. 12 will have to be deferred for another week for lack of space. Suffice it to say now that I was startled to have one of our leading Republicans refer to this speech as

A Message to Mr. and Mrs. Citizen From The Newton League of Women Voters HERE'S THAT BALLOT

Whenever it is time for elections there is a service that the League of Women Voters renders to the citizens of Newton—the dissemination of non-partisan voting information.

There is a price for being a citizen of a democracy—not in money (for taxes are paid under any form of government), but in work. All citizens must put time and thought on the qualifications of those who are to represent them, if a representative, democratic form of government is to function well.

It's not difficult to know about Mr. X, who is running for the national presidency, or Mr. Y, who wishes to be a national senator, or even Mr. Z, who would like to be governor of the state or mayor of the city. But what about Messrs. A, B, C, and D, who are up for (say county commissioner, state treasurer, or even alderman at large)?

The further down one goes in the scale of government, the longer the lists of candidates and the more confusing the choices for the voters. Yet a democracy is no stronger than its local units, so that it is immensely important to have men of honesty and ability in city and state offices.

It is better not to vote at all than to vote ignorantly for the wrong candidates, marking the name that comes first on the list or the name of the one whose wife looked so stylish and attractive in the picture.

And primaries are important, too. If the best party candidates aren't chosen, as nominees, then there is no hope of having the right ones elected.

To help the busy voter, the Newton League of Women voters, before each primary or election, prints a brief, factual, non-partisan account of each candidate. These bulletins are handed to any citizens; but, in the past, there has never been anywhere nearly enough of them.

It is partly in the hope of having more money for this much-needed aid to all voters that the Newton League of Women Voters is seeking the contribution of more funds for its work.

None of the League's activities are more essential. It is true but true to say that the foundation of good government is good men in public office.

Temple Emanuel Newton Headquarters Greater Boston 'SOS'

Temple Emanuel, 365 Ward St., Newton Centre, has been designated as Newton headquarters in connection with the Greater Boston S. O. S. (Supplies for Overseas Survivors) Drive which is under the sponsorship of the Combined Jewish Appeal, with a central depot at 716 Columbus Avenue, Boston.

The drive will extend through March 31 and donations of foodstuffs, clothing and medical supplies may be left at Temple Emanuel. Mrs. Harold Berkopf and Mrs. Ira Nelson are co-chairmen of the drive in Newton and Norman Feinberg heads the Junior Division.

A joint appeal has been made by the Boston co-chairmen, Mrs. George Kahn and Mrs. David Small, for all men, women and children to help in this campaign. "The surviving 150,000 Jewish children in Europe look to us for their bread, shoes clothing and their lives," they stated. They also said more than 15,000 cans of condensed milk were shipped overseas last week for distribution to displaced persons, from contributions already made in other sections of the country.

Mount Alvernia Penny Sale

Mount Alvernia Club will have a Penny Sale Wednesday evening, February 27th at 8:00 p. m., in the Philomatheia Chalet on Commonwealth Avenue, Newton. Many scarce and much sought after articles of which nylon stockings are an example will be featured as prizes. There will also be many other outstanding prizes.

Proceeds from the sale will go to the Academy's Building Fund, aimed toward construction of additional class rooms and a gymnasium.

Acting with the Chairman Mrs. John T. Murray and co-chairman Mrs. Edward J. Sullivan is the President, Mrs. Angelo Tranello. Girls from the high school will act as ushers.

Assisting with the officers and members of the Board are Mrs. W. S. Casey, Mrs. T. J. Powers, Mrs. S. Kerns, Mrs. C. W. Langan, Mrs. R. E. Keane, Mrs. H. B. Paquet, Mrs. J. J. Quinn, and a large committee.

a "Mother Hubbard" speech. Well, weekly Quiz

To the best of my knowledge, the answer to last week's quiz is Harold F. Young, currently serving as Acting Street Commissioner. If anybody cares to challenge that, especially admirers of Senator Saltonstall and Thomas W. White, I will be glad to discuss the public records. (Yes I contacted the City Hall authorities.)

This week's question is: Name the states in the so-called "solid South."

Lawrence Named Chairman Greater Boston Comm. Fund

John E. Lawrence who has just returned to civilian life after three and one-half years in the Pacific Theatre has been appointed chairman of next fall's campaign of the Greater Boston Community Fund for 1947 needs, President Charles Francis Adams announced today.

An active leader in pre-war fund campaigns as captain, director and vice chairman for two years of the Boston Districts Division and as vice chairman of the Textile Division, former Lt. Comdr. Lawrence declared that "it is most inspiring to find that the Community Fund has been carried on to even greater heights during the difficult years of war."

"This is a magnificent achievement on the part of the home front," he continued, "and I am very grateful to have the opportunity for joining forces once more in this great work."

Starting with the First Marines at Guadalcanal, Comdr. Lawrence completed a colorful naval career as a member of Admiral Halsey's Third Fleet staff in Tokyo. His decorations and ribbons speak for themselves—Legion of Merit, Bronze Star medal (twice), Letter of Commendation ribbon, Presidential Unit Citation (Guadalcanal), Philippine Liberation ribbon with two stars for Leyte and Lingayen, Asiatic ribbon with 11 campaign stars including the Solomons, Philippines, Formosa and Empire actions.

A partner of James Lawrence and Company, cotton merchants of Boston, Lawrence is a graduate of Harvard University, 1931 and Harvard Law School and a member of the Massachusetts bar. His immediate interest in the 288 Red Feather service of the Community Fund includes directorship in the Church Home Society and Roxbury Neighborhood House.

Waban Pianist Presented at Tea in Boston

Waban's young pianist, Cynthia Brown, who has been heard on the concert platform frequently this season, was presented by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cushman, well-known harpist, in a program of piano solos at a tea and musicale on Sunday afternoon, February 17, in the Music Room of the Eketer Theatre in Boston.

The affair was one of a series arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Cushman to bring the work of young artists before the public in furtherance of their careers and was attended by a large and appreciative audience. Mr. Norman Foster, baritone, was also presented on the same program.

Catalytic cracking capacity of the United States will be in excess of 42 million gallons daily when all of the 96 new refining units now built or building are completed.

NEWTON In The Past

55 Years Ago

The fate of a Newton man, George Winslow, who was among the unfortunates who succumbed to the hardships of the journey over the plains on the way to California in the days of the gold fever has been revealed through a rough red sandstone monument near Fairbury, who wrote to Postmaster Morgan of Newton describing the rough shaft and its inscription which read:

George Winslow,
Newton, Mass.,
Aged 25 years.

The monument was located near the "cut off" in an isolated spot leading to the California trail, and the reverend gentleman concluded that it marked the grave of one of the "Fortyniners." His object is writing to Postmaster Morgan was in the hope of acquainting the relatives with the burial place of the deceased. The story found its way into the Boston papers and on Tuesday, George W. Winslow, superintendent of the Waltham water works called upon Postmaster Morgan and asked to see the letter written by Rev. Goldsmith. He said that he had read the account and that there could be no doubt that the crude shaft marked the spot of his father's last resting place. "My father," said Mr. Winslow, "started from his home in Newton Upper Falls for California in March, 1849. He died the following June very suddenly and was buried by his comrades, exactly where his relatives never knew, until the facts regarding the Nebraska monument was published." Mr. Winslow stated that his father's relatives were scattered through the Newtons, Waltham and vicinity. One of the brothers of the deceased, Samuel Winslow, was for many years mayor of Worcester. His sister, Mrs. Orrin Whipple is also living in Waltham.

The square by the depot (Newton Upper Falls) was flooded with water the first of this week, and has been absolutely impassable for anything but rubber boots at different times. A suggestion was made that the city be asked to provide jumping poles. It was only last week our contemporary suggested the use of a flat boat, but the jumping poles would be much less expensive and more practical if one was late for a train over on the opposite bank.

50 Years Ago

A bacteriological laboratory has been started in connection with the Newton Hospital through the generosity of Mrs. L. G. Pratt, Mrs. John Lowell, Mrs. T. B. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Charles Dennison and others. Dr. C. A. Davenport will have charge of the laboratory and it is hoped that the physicians of Newton will give it their support.

Norma Faber, Soprano, to Be Music Club Guest

At its monthly meeting on February 28th the Newton High School Music Club under the direction of its faculty advisor, Mr. Henry Lasker, will have the honor of presenting the distinguished Boston soprano, Norma Faber, and Mr. Leo Litwin who will serve as her accompanist. Miss Faber is well known to Boston concert audiences for her highly successful Jordan Hall recitals and her appearance last season with the Boston Symphony Orchestra under the baton of Richard Burgin. She has received the highest commendation from such critics as Warren Storey Smith, Cyrus Durgin, and Alexander Williams for her fresh, lustrous voice, her exceptional musical intelligence and taste, and her rare versatility coupled with a flair for the unusual.

Part of the explanation for Miss Faber's outstanding talent probably lies in the excellent educational foundation she has had for her career. Not only is the noted diva a Wellesley graduate and a Phi Beta Kappa, but she has a master's degree from Radcliffe and has spent several years pursuing her musical studies abroad, in Germany, Switzerland, and Belgium. With this excellent training there can be little doubt but that Miss Faber is entirely deserving of the lavish praises the critics have bestowed on her and that the Music Club of Newton High School is highly honored to have the privilege of presenting such a distinguished artist.

The concert will be a doubly auspicious one, for Miss Faber's accompanist will be Leo Litwin, the eminent Boston pianist and conductor. Mr. Litwin is well known not only for his work as soloist at the Boston Pops and Esplanade Concerts, but also for his recordings, radio work, and his conducting of the Boston Orchestral Ensemble and the Boston Distaff Orchestra. This past season he has also presented a series of Sunday evening concerts of light music at New England Mutual Hall.

With such a brilliant soprano soloist as Norma Faber and such a proficient accompanist as Leo Litwin the music loving faculty and students of the high school can look forward to an outstandingly fine concert on the afternoon of February 28th.

ON THE INSIDE

by MARVIN R. GOULD

The Newton-Brookline basketball game last week was, in the opinion of your reporter, one of the most exciting inter-scholastic games held thus far this season. After a full game composed of mostly foul shots the final whistle blew with the score tied 32-32. The officials then decided together with the coaches to play another 2-minute period in order to break the tie. At the end of this period the game was again tied 34-34. As a last resort the officials, captains, and coaches decided that the first team to score two points would officially be declared the winner. After Brookline bungled, and blundered several opportunities to score Bobby Scanlon, Newton's ace forward raced down the court to score a basket ending the game 36-34, Newton. Bobby was then carried to the locker room on the shoulders of his grateful team mates.

This week's outstanding coach is former Major Donald Enoch, Head Coach of Varsity Track. Last week Don's Tracksters copped the class A state title with 32 points. Their nearest rival Boston English had only 17 points at the close of the meet. Mr. Enoch received his bachelor's degree at Penn State and his Master's degree at Harvard. Since 1925 Mr. Enoch has been head coach of track at N.H.S. He was also coach of J. V. football in 1925-1926. When asked to express his opinion of what makes his teams champions he declared, "Before I quit coaching I hope my teams can win 50 major meets. We're up to 48 now. We've won everything there is to win at one time or another. We can't miss with the top-notch gang of kids I've got. There are all good boys." This reporter would like to add that Newton can't miss with a coach like Don Enoch. Good luck, Don, and I am sure as well as every one else who follows track that you will not only win your meet No. 50 in the near future, but that you will win many more than 50.

Harold McKusick, N.H.S. graduate, is now in Hollywood with George Handy's band. . . . Mr. Lingo, former N.H.S. music instructor, is again teaching at N.H.S. after two years with the United States Navy. . . . Harold Turin, graduate of N.H.S. with the class of 1944, has recently received his lieutenant's commission from the officers candidate school at Fort Benning, Georgia. . . . At the last English Club meeting the members had as their guest speaker, Dr. Edgar J. Park, former president of Wheaton College, now retired.

At last official word has come through concerning the motion for class reunions it was vetoed at the last legislature meeting. As soon as the bill was mentioned it was quickly voted down. I wonder why? Hmpf! (Some one blundered.)

Unknown to most "teen age youth," Miss Harriet Gainsboro, a typical teen-ager, has been modeling clothes for certain pin up magazine covers. No wonder, besides her pleasant smile and neat appearance, Harriet has a personality that really sparkles. Good luck, Miss Gainsboro, in your new career as a model.

Dick Cohn has a new beachwagon that he has named "How Little We Know." I wonder why? Melvin Ascher claims that he knows but does he, Dick?

Library Trustees Hold Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of the Board of Library Trustees of the Newton Free Library was held on Friday, February 15, 1946. The present officers of the Board, Mrs. Virginia M. Hutchinson, President; Mr. Thomas Weston, Treasurer; Mr. Harold A. Wooster, Secretary were unanimously re-elected. Dr. Guy M. Winslow, President of Lasell Junior College, and library trustee since 1928, announced his retirement from the Board and was presented with inscribed and autographed books by his fellow trustees, in appreciation of his valuable services.

Mrs. Hutchinson, in her annual report, called attention to the value of books in supplying study material on world organization and paths to peace and the need for trained, experienced library assistants to properly carry on the work of the library. She said, "We have been very fortunate in having the Mayor and Finance Committee sympathetic with our aims in the past, and we are hoping that they will take steps now to make it possible for us to make a telling appeal to Simm n. and other well-equipped library graduates to come to Newton and to stay."

She reported the outstanding gifts of the year as the "William C. Strong Memorial Fund" of one thousand dollars, given by Miss Isabel L. Strong in memory of her father, the interest to be used to purchase books of lasting value for the Waban Branch Library; the gift of three artistic figurines of Alice in Wonderland, to the Florence B. Sloan Memorial Study, by the Round Table of Children's Librarians; the gift of the marble bust of Francis B. Hornbrook, D.D., to the Art Department by Channing Church. Dr. Hornbrook was an outstanding community leader of a generation ago and the bust is the work of the distinguished Massachusetts sculptor, Cyrus E. Dallin. A carved oak chair presented to Dr. Henry Bigelow, was given to the library by his grandsons, Walter E. Hills and H. Bigelow.

Hills. Miss Mary Lewis Speare made the library a gift of a "Rogers Group" statuette. Some thirteen hundred volumes were added to the library as gifts from friends.

Mrs. Hutchinson referred to the death of Mr. C. J. Connick, who gave the beautiful medallions in the windows of the Newtonville Branch Library, was Chairman of the Art Committee of this Branch and loaned exhibitions of his paintings for display in this library. Mr. Connick had a world reputation for his stained glass work. She also referred to plans for the "Annie Plummer Corey Children's Room" planned as an addition to the Auburndale Branch Library, to be paid for from a fund established by Mr. Frederick Plummer. The plans and specification for this addition have nearly been completed.

The annual report of Harold A. Wooster, Librarian, told of some of the difficulties in maintaining normal library service under war conditions, the present challenges to improve and extend library facilities, and the steps being taken to achieve this end. The book additions of the year were reported as 11,569 volumes, the reading material expenditures $17,998, from City Appropriations and approximately four thousand dollars additional from Funds. The book circulation of the year was reported as 704,646 volumes, at the rate of ten volumes per capita or twenty-nine volumes per registered borrower. It was pointed out that the condition of its public library has been called the best single factor in judging the spirit and morale of a community. The Newton Free Library has been in operation for some seventy-five years, and has been greatly aided by interested public spirited citizens as well as by its public support.

Harriet F. Dane Returns from India

Miss Harriet F. Dane of Newton Centre who has been serving the armed forces in India with the American Red Cross, arrived at New York City on the USS General Brooks, January 3rd.

Miss Dane, who was in India nine months, spent all of her time in Bengal and Assam working in three different clubs and with the Cabana Clubmobile. With three other girls she opened the Red Cross Club at Parbatipur, a railroad junction north of Calcutta. From there she went to the club at the 48th Air Depot in Chabua; assisted in closing that one in October and in opening one for the 130 4th Engineers.

For a short while she worked with the Chabua Clubmobile, serving the troop trains of returning veterans en route to Calcutta and Karachi. She has terminated her services with the ARC, effective Jan. 1, 1946.

Upper Falls

The residents of Elliot, High, Summer and Chestnut streets are very much concerned over a petition filed by Francis J. Hewitt on which a public hearing will be held at City Hall on Monday, March 4, 1946, to change the present route of the buses of the Middlesex and Boston Street Railway Co. from Elliot, High, Summer and Chestnut streets to Elliot, Oak and Chestnut streets. This street railway has operated cars and buses over the old route for the past 45 years, serving the residents who lived in the area bordering the Worcester Turnpike. In the new proposed route only one end of the village would have transportation on this bus line.

Underprivileged Benefit at Osteopathic Hospital

A total of 157,506 osteopathic treatments were administered to the underprivileged of Greater Boston in the Out-Patient Department of the Massachusetts Osteopathic Hospital during the past 18 years. Residents of every community in Greater Boston were among the patients treated.

The figures were revealed at a testimonial dinner given in honor of the retiring director, Dr. Alexander F. McWilliams, by the General Staff at the Boston City Club last week. Dr. McWilliams had served continuously as the department director from the opening of the Hospital on March 5th, 1928. An illuminated parchment scroll expressing the appreciation of the staff, and certifying to his election as Honorary Director, was presented to him.

IT'S A LONG WAY from 1886 to 1946

This new year of 1946 marks an important milestone for Boston Edison Company and its customers — the completion of 60 years of Boston Edison service.

From the moment the switch was closed at the Company's first generating plant, February 20, 1886, Boston Edison has been supplying ample electrical energy to meet the community's ever-growing needs for light and power, both during times of normal progress and during times of war.

The Company's anniversary takes place at a time when the world stands on the threshold of peace. Behind lie many grueling months, indelibly impressed upon men's minds. Ahead stretch the transition years, years that shall test this country's ability to maintain production and employment, to promote a sound national economy, and in cooperation with other nations to maintain peace.

Plans for the Immediate Future

Against this historic background, Boston Edison enters its seventh decade, with faith and confidence in the future, manned by an organization equipped to meet the expanding electrical needs of this great industrial, commercial and residential community. The Company has now embarked on a five-year program with expenditures totalling $40,000,000. This program embodies further increases in generating capacity, extension of transmission lines, substitution of alternating current for direct current in certain districts, and other modernization of facilities and service.

On the occasion of this 60th anniversary, Boston Edison Company customers will also be interested in the recently announced rate reduction beginning next month, which will effect a yearly saving of $1,200,000 to residential and commercial customers. In 1886 electricity was a luxury. In 1946 it is a low-priced commodity available to everyone.

The men and women of Boston Edison pledge their continued devotion to the welfare of the community and take this opportunity to thank the Company's customers for their cooperation in creating present cordial relations.

The first electric generating station in Boston was placed in service on February 20, 1886, in a stable at the corner of Haymarket Place and Bumstead Court. The little station of 1886 generated sufficient capacity to light 800 lamps. These lamps were the hand-made, carbon-filament type . . . dim, short-lived and expensive compared to 1946 standards.

BOSTON EDISON COMPANY'S GENERATING STATIONS . . . 1946

Boston Edison's newest station on Mystic River, Everett. 100,000 kilowatts of generating capacity.

... a Grand Total of 510,000 kilowatts of generating capacity, providing ample electrical energy for all residential, commercial and industrial needs in the territory served by Boston Edison Company.

BOSTON EDISON COMPANY

60 Years of Service Behind Us . . . and a Brilliant New Era Ahead

Electricity is the tireless, trustworthy servant of the modern home. It is instantly available. It costs little to use. Yet think of all the duties it performs! It provides adequate light . . . cooks the meals (deliciously!) . . . protects food by refrigeration . . . mixes the batter . . . toasts the breakfast toast . . . makes the coffee . . . browns the waffles . . . does the family laundering . . . vacuum cleaning . . . dishwashing . . . sewing . . . water heating . . . air conditioning . . . entertains by radio (and in the not-toodistant future, by television as well) . . . runs the children's sun lamp . . . Susan's hairdryer . . . and all the other labor-saving electrical appliances that are available or soon will be.

Yes, for true home comfort, for life-long convenience, for leisure and for safety . . . in short, for better living now and in the years to come, you can depend on Boston Edison service.

Electricity does more and costs less than any other item in the family budget.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Dodge - Lees

On Sunday afternoon, Miss June E. Lees, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Lees of 1241 Walnut street, Newton Highlands, became the bride of Wilfred E. Dodge Jr., son of Mr. Wilford E. Dodge of 31 Wade street, Newton Highlands. The four o'clock ceremony was performed by the Rev. Morrison Russell Boynton, D.D., in the First Congregational Church, Newton Centre. Mr. D. Ralph MacLean was the organist.

Wearing a gown of white brocade satin and tulle, the bride's fingertip veil of tulle was caught to a heart-shaped crown. She carried a cascade of white gladioli and sweet peas. Miss Edna Lees was the maid of honor. She was gowned in aqua lace and tulle and carried pink gladioli and sweet peas. Raymond Palmer was the best man for Mr. Dodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Dodge were both graduated from the Newton High School. After March 4, when they return from New York, they will live in Newton Highlands.

Cheney - Bjornson

On last Saturday afternoon in the Second Church in Newton, West Newton, Miss Beatrice Alice Bjornson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman R. Bjornson of 19 Webster place, West Newton, became the bride of Paul Daniel Cheney, son of Mr. Earl H. Cheney of Honolulu, T. H. The four o'clock, double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. Clyde Yarbrough, Ph.D. With her gown of white slipper satin, the bride wore a veil of nylon net and carried gardenias. Miss Emma A. Bjornson of Trenton, New Jersey, as maid of honor, wore light blue jersey.

Richard Batten of New York City was the best man and the ushers were Robert Taylor, also of New York and George Bjornson of West Newton.

Mrs. Cheney was graduated from the Newton High School and Framingham Teachers' College. Mr. Cheney was graduated from Roosevelt High School in Honolulu and attended the University of Hawaii, Colgate University and Boston University. After April 15, Mr. and Mrs. Cheney will be in Honolulu where they will make their home.

Flanagan - Coty

White flowers and Woodwardia fern decorated the First Unitarian Society in Newton, West Newton, on February 15th, for the marriage of Miss Ethel Adeline Coty and Carroll Glenn Flanagan, son of Mrs. Beulah Flanagan of Blytheville, Arkansas and Mr. William E. Flanagan of Corpus Christi, Texas. The eight o'clock candlelight service was performed by the Rev. Herbert Hitchen, D.D., in a double ring ceremony. Southern smilax, pink snapdragons and carnations, with blue delphinium decorated the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Woods Coty of 99 Highland street, West Newton, for the reception.

The bride wore a period style gown of ivory brocade satin styled with a hoopskirt and bustle back on basque lines, with a sweetheart neckline trimmed with lace. Her full length ivory veil of illusion was caught to a headdress of ostrich tips, and she carried a cascade of Eucharist lilies, stephanotis and an orchid. She was given in marriage by Mr. James Wallace Craig, of North Marshfield, a cousin of the bride's mother. Mrs. Edward T. Davis (Shiela Hitchen) of West Newton was the matron of honor and Miss Doris Louise Leschke of West Hartford, Connecticut, was the maid of honor. Mrs. Davis wore a gown of blue brocade and Miss Leschke wore pink. Their gowns were also styled on basque lines with yokes of marquisette. They wore headresses of ostrich tips with matching mitts and carried fans of pink carnations and blue delphinium. The bridesmaids, three in pink and three in blue, wearing similar gowns and accessories and also carrying fans were Miss Marion Plummer of Stoneham, Miss Isabelle Royce of East Jaffrey, New Hampshire, Miss Lu Hitchen, Miss Barbara Ann Smith and Miss Jean Worth, all of West Newton, and Mrs. John W. Reading (Anne Weston) of Boston. Mrs. Coty was gowned in American beauty rose velvet, complemented by a headdress of two-toned roses on a matching cap, gloves of eggshell and her flowers were Eucharist lilies.

Russell Carter, of West Somerville, was the best man and the ushers included Albert Lounsbury of Everett, Clarence Hansberry of Waltham, John Devine of Hyde Park, Lt. Edward T. Davis, William Hudson, Warren Young and Wendell F. Smith, Jr., all of West Newton. William Ellis Weston, of Boston, was the organist. The bride sang a group of love songs at the reception where a trio furnished the music.

Mrs. Flanagan is a graduate of House in the Pines. Mr. Flanagan received his discharge from the Navy last fall. Following a wedding trip to New Hampshire Mr. and Mrs. Flanagan will make their home temporarily at 99 Highland street, West Newton.

Burt - Webster

Mr. and Mrs. Otis P. Thackston of 49 Charlemont street, Newton Highlands and Sarasota, Florida, announce the marriage of their daughter, Martin T. Webster to Kenneth C. Burt, son of Mrs. E. B. Heed of Miami, Florida.

Miss Blanche Webster, of Orlando, Florida, was the bride's attendant at the ceremony which took place on January 26 in the patio of the First Presbyterian Church in Sarasota. The Rev. B. L. Bowman performed the service.

Gardner - Lopas

A reception at the Hotel Beaconsfield, Brookline, followed the marriage of Miss Margaret Mary Lopas and Lt. William Everett Gardner, A. U. S., which took place in St. Bernard's Church, West Newton on Saturday, February 16. The nine o'clock, double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Francis M. Falsely of the Church of Our Lady of Sorrow, Hartford, Connecticut, a cousin of the bride.

The bride's gown of white satin was styled with a net yoke, fitted bodice and full skirt. Her fingertip veil was caught to a coronet of white satin and she carried white orchids. Her three sisters, Miss Catherine G. Lopas, Mrs. Anne Gailunas and Miss Veronica Lopas, were the attendants. They wore gowns of chenille and nylon taffeta and carried roses.

John J. Lopas, brother of the bride, was the best man and the ushers were Captain John Burke of Springfield and Herbert Gardner of Maine.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. John Lopas of 4 Edgewood road, West Newton and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Grant Gardner of Ashland, Lt. and Mrs. Gardner will live in Belmont, after February 25, when they return from a trip to Lake Placid, New York.

Gardner - Woodward

Miss Eloise Cleveland Woodward and Frank Hale Gardner, son of Mrs. Marjorie Hale Gardner of 127 Homer street, Newton Centre, were married on February 14 in St. Mary of the Harbor Episcopal Church, Provincetown. White lilies and spring flowers decorated the church for the two o'clock ceremony performed by the Rev. Stanley Warren Ellis of Waban and the Rev. William L. Bailey of Provincetown. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Landon Woodward of Truro.

The bride wore her grandmother's gown of white satin brocade and rosepoint lace. She carried an old fashioned bouquet of stephanotis and lilies of the valley. Miss Nancy Crawford of Edgewood, New Jersey, was the maid of honor. Miss Crawford wore white and carried a heart-shaped bouquet.

Robert Fuller Gardner of Newton Centre and Truro was the best man for his brother and the ushers were Ralph Crosby Woodward of Truro and Ralph W. Crosby of Rumford, Rhode Island.

The bride was graduated from St. Mary's Hall School (Episcopal) in Burlington, New Jersey and the Cambridge Hospital School of Nursing. The groom was graduated from Browne and Nichols School in Cambridge and the Dublin, New Hampshire School. Mr. and Mrs. Gardner will live in Boston.

THE FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"Mind" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, and in all of its branches, on Sunday, February 24.

The Golden Text, "Teach me, O Lord, the way of Thy statutes;... Give me understanding, and I shall keep Thy law" is from Psalms 119:33,34. Other Bible citations include, "The preparations of the heart in man, and the answer of the tongue, is from the Lord.... Commit thy works unto the Lord, and thy thoughts shall be established" (Proverbs 16:1,3).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, "Hold thought fast to the enduring, the good, and the true, and you will bring these into your experience proportionally to their occupancy of your thoughts.... When mortal man blends his thoughts of existence with the spiritual and works only as God works, he will no longer grope in the dark and cling to earth because he has not tasted heaven" (pp. 261, 263).

new city engineer as compared with the former salary of $4,500. The budget requests are in addition to appropriations already made, aggregating $434,155, which includes $380,000 for the 15 per cent bonus for all city employees. The budget recommended by the mayor for the Water Department, which is segregated from the other department figures, was $367,858, in addition to $24,373 already appropriated thus far this year.

The budget figures were referred to the finance committee for study. The Mayor's appointment of Willard S. Pratt, as city engineer was confirmed by the board at Monday night's meeting. Action was again deferred on confirmation of the appointment of Harold F. Young as street commissioner, the appointment being held in committee to come up at the next meeting of the Board.

The Board confirmed the appointment of Alexander Standish as trustee of the Chaffin Fund and of George M. Lovejoy as a member of the Public Welfare Board.

It was voted to reconsider the action taken at the last meeting at which the application of George McLaughlin and Howard Kosroffan for a permit to operate four bowling alleys at 1207 Chestnut Street, Newton Upper Falls was rejected by the board. The matter was referred back to the license committee.

The application of Kenneth J. Ridgway of 18 Bemis Road, Ward 2, for two first class taxi licenses was rejected by the Board, also the application of Louis Peter of California Street, the application of James A. Lowell and Lucy Lowell for the change of district zoning boundaries from single residences and general residence to business district at Boylston and Hammond street Chestnut Hill, was granted.

Dining With Jane and Bill

Bill—You know, Jane, thanks to you, we're pretty good breakfast eaters.

Jane—What do you mean, Bill?

Bill—Well, yesterday at the office we had a discussion about breakfast. The number of men who don't eat any breakfast is really surprising.

Jane—A lot of us housewives skip breakfast, too. Then we nibble all morning. That's why we get fat, you know. But why did you men discuss "breakfast"?

Bill—Most of the fellows in our office go out about 9:30 or 10:00 o'clock to get a cup of coffee, so yesterday we decided to ask why.

Jane—Yes?

Bill—Some said they didn't eat any breakfast, and some said they only had toast and coffee. All of them said they were hungry by the middle of the morning and needed a cup of coffee to "pick them up."

Jane—Did you tell them what you eat for breakfast?

Bill—Those of us who eat breakfast regularly told them what a good breakfast is and how much it helps out through the morning. We suggested they try it.

Jane—What did they say to that?

Bill—I think they were impressed. We ought to get some converts.

Note—A good breakfast contains citrus fruit, whole grain cereal or egg, toast, butter or fortified oleo, and coffee.

May Eliot, president of the American Unitarian Association, gave the invocation. The meeting was preceded by an organ recital by William Ellis Weston.

Dr. Hitchen emphasized a growing secularism among British people that he observed on his first trip back to his native England, since before the war, as well as the adamant attitude of the British Council of Churches against the admission of liberal and free church groups to its council, in its ecumenical program. As a result of their experiences in the war, he was told by the council, the tendency now, is not to strengthen the heart of Christianity, but to strengthen the shell and not the core, the institutions of the church rather than the free spirit. The idea that it is the heart of Christianity that matters is now considered all wrong.

With the globe squeezed together, making the distance from Great Britain not 3000 miles but 15 flying hours away, "geographically we are one world, to use the phrase crystallized by and to the immortal memory of Wendell Willkie. But unless spiritually, intellectually and understandingly, we can cross those 3000 miles to reach the hearts and minds and feel as close as we do to New Hampshire, there will be no world at all. It is up to us to help in spreading that understanding."

"People are turning away from traditional religion," he said. Yet despite war weariness and economic troubles, and a lowered morale and physical resistance caused by six years of underfeeding and rationing of clothes now worn shabby even in the house of Lords, Dr. Hitchen paid tribute to the indomitable spirit and stickability of the British people and their continued sense of humor reflecting their inner courage.

Despite published reports of war damage, Dr. Hitchen was still shocked to see acre after acre leveled in bomb-scarred London. He spoke of the "wilderness around St. Paul's Church" where once buildings and homes had been, and all the evidences still remaining of the "incredible flaming hell" that the people of London endured. Yet he was "utterly amazed at the tidiness of London." Sixty per cent of Unitarian property in London was destroyed or damaged, he reported.

There is need for the churches to recognize the needs of today. He deplored the fact that in Britain, "the land of the free," where the Church of England is the state church and subsidized by the state, no minority religious voices as such—Unitarian, Quakers, spiritualists or others, can be heard over the British Broadcasting Company airwaves.

The soloist is to be Alan Booth, a talented young pianist who the Club, through its Scholarship Fund, has assisted in carrying on his musical education at Oberlin College. He is to graduate this spring and this will be his first opportunity to make a professional appearance in the East. Under Mr. Maclean's teaching and while a student at the Newton High School, young Booth showed such decided talent that it was felt that with the proper training, he would develop into one of that growing group of Negro artists who are rightfully taking their place in the cultural life of America. The Club is proud to present him, not only for the small part they

Health and Liberty are Priceless!

THE PRICELESS HERITAGE OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

In this nation there are vital issues which transcend all partisanship. The American people have a Priceless Heritage. It is not shared by the people of any other nation. It belongs exclusively to the people of the United States.

This inheritance sets the American people apart from all other peoples in the world. It has given us advantages so great that most minds fail to comprehend them. This heritage stems from a tradition and sensing of freedom which antedates by centuries the establishment of this nation and the adopting of its written Constitution. Its tangible expression is embodied in the Private Enterprise System. The essential to its preservation is the sanctity of the human personality—the supremacy of the individual and the subordination of the State.

This priceless inheritance is now being dangerously menaced by moves to turn over to the Federal Government the task of providing medical care for all the people.

WHY AMERICAN MEDICINE IS BEST IN WORLD

In the short span of one hundred fifty years American Medicine has moved forward to a position of universally recognized world leadership. It has provided a more effective and a more widely and evenly distributed medical care than ever has been made available anywhere at any time. If analyzed and understood, the achievement is without parallel in the history of the progress of mankind.

In the successful treatment and cure of disease, medical care must be considered as having two separate yet closely related parts:

First: There is disease—disease as such. There are many diseases. Each disease is ceaselessly, relentlessly seeking a human body to destroy. And each disease affects each human body in a different way.

KEEP YOUR DOCTOR A FREE MAN!

The doctor is a human being, a person—a personality. His tradition, knowledge and experience make him more sure and more confident than his fellowmen. The new Wagner-Murray-Dingell Bills now before Congress would rob him of his freedom of action and decision and make him subordinate and subservient to the bureaucracy. Bureaucratic direction would destroy the intangible, indefinable essence that is the secret of the American doctor's effectiveness.

Peace Gardens

Millions of home gardeners are debating this spring how large a vegetable plot to sow, now that peace has come. Victory gardens saved the nation from food scarcity. Is that danger over?

Whether it is or not, high costs seem certain to continue in commercial production. Leisure hours spent growing food will probably pay a high return for years to come. The home vegetable plot will go far to hold down the cost of living.

And another reason will influence many. The quality of vegetables fresh from the garden has become known to millions who never before realized how delicious they could be. They have enjoyed luxury food of such supreme flavor and tenderness, that vegetables assumed a new importance in their diet. This, nutritionists tell us, is to be desired.

For garden-fresh vegetables are not only delicious, but nutritious. Science has developed many new facts about the loss of vitamins when vegetables grow stale. It has long been known that the sugar content of sweet corn, peas and several others rapidly change to starch after they are picked, with consequent loss of flavor.

"Holding freshly picked peas in a warm room for 3 to 4 hours will materially toughen the skins," says Extension bulletin 244 from the University of Michigan. And one to two-thirds of their original Vitamin C, the bulletin continues, may be lost by vegetables in 24 hours at room temperature.

The quicker they are eaten, frozen or canned, after being harvested, the more delicious vegetables are. And the time is brief, indeed, before the keen edge of their flavor begins to grow dull.

Paul W. Dempsey of the Massachusetts State college says in his excellent book Grow Your Own Vegetables: "Vegetables should be used as soon after picking as possible. Time is one of the elements that favor the home gardener—uncooked vegetables on the table in less than fifteen minutes, and cooked vegetables in less than thirty minutes from the time they were growing!"

That seems an extreme view. For those whose gardens are not close to the kitchen door it would make harvesting a foot-race. But authorities agree that, to be truly "garden fresh," vegetables must be served within an hour or two of harvesting; so that to eat them is an experience which few except home gardeners who grow their own can enjoy.

America has much to gain from the expansion of home gardening which seems certain to follow the war. Homes and communities will be beautified by flowers; and vegetables grown in backyards will notably improve the health and contentment of those that grow them.

Wise gardeners follow the advice of The Clapper Co., 1121 Washington street, West Newton, which is "Plan before you Plant." Mr. Howden of the Clapper Co., who has had many years of gardening experience, and who is a seed expert, will be glad to help you plan your "Peace Garden."

Sarah Hull Chapter D. R.

Sarah Hull Chapter, Daughters of the Revolution, held the 49th annual meeting on Wednesday, February 13th, 1946, at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Charles E. Morrow, 70 Arlington street, Newton.

The Regent, Mrs. Arthur C. Johnson, presided, and after the Salute to the Flag, a short business meeting was held. Then the annual reports were in order. The Recording Secretary, the Treasurer, and Auditor gave the records of the past year, which were approved as read. Then the Historian, Mrs. Raymond S. Fosgate, gave a very interesting report on the activities and pleasures of the members during the past year, which was very much enjoyed. After that the ballot for officers for the year, 1946-1947 was voted upon, and the following officers were elected:

Regent, Mrs. Arthur C. Johnson; Vice Regent, Mrs. Albert B. Hinkle, Jr.; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Walter C. Whitney; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. James A. Curten; Assistant Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Willard L. Sampson; Treasurer, Miss A. Gertrude Ensign; Auditor, Mrs. Francis Murdock; Historian, Mrs.

Raymond S. Fosgate; Councilors for two years, Mrs. Annie L. Eastman, Mrs. Edward Cahill.

The members then enjoyed a box luncheon, Mrs. Morrow, the hostess, serving coffee and ice cream. A social hour, with bridge, was enjoyed the rest of the afternoon, and the 49th Annual Meeting was over.

Newton Highlands Garden Club

The February meeting of the Newton Highlands Garden Club will be held at the Workshop on Tuesday, the 26th at 8 p.m.

The guest speaker is to be Mr. George Graves, associate editor of Horticulture.

The hostesses are Mrs. Walter S. Newton, Jr., and Mrs. Albert N. Walker.

Social Science Club of Newton

"The Oregon Country" will be the subject of a paper given by Mrs. Clarence C. Smith at the meeting of the club on Wednesday at 10 a.m. Miss Florence Bacon and Miss Hope Mudge Francis Murdock; Historian, Mrs.

Lydia Partridge Whiting Chapt., DAR

The Lydia Partridge Whiting Chapter, D. A. R. will hold their monthly meeting Tuesday, February 19th, at 2:30 p.m. Miss Estelle G. Marsh, president conducted the exercises. Two verses of America, were sung, Mrs. William F. Ferrin at the piano. The members stood in silent remembrance of Miss Margaret C. Worcester, the last remaining charter member of the club, whose death occurred recently. Mrs. Clifford O. Mooney, corresponding secretary read an appeal for volunteer workers at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital. Help is especially needed in the kitchen, dining room and fountain. Thursday is Newtonville day at the hospital, any one who can give a few hours on that or any other day, telephone FB. 6326, and ask for Mrs. Johnson.

The program will be Mildred Buchanan Flagg, writer and lecturer, who will speak on "Modern Makers of History."

The hostesses are Mrs. Richard Cody, Miss Cora Cobb, Mrs. James Hemphill and Mrs. Robert Pillow.

The chairman of hospitality is Mrs. Charles Joy and her assistants are Mrs. Henry Arnold, Mrs. Louis Attwill, Mrs. Arthur Berberian, Mrs. Albion Brown, Mrs. Myron Cudworth, Mrs. Josephine Cushman, Mrs. George Eldridge, Miss Madeline Foster, Mrs. Edmunds S. Lingham, Mrs. Charles S. Logan, Miss Mercedes Torr and Miss Florence Torr.

Newton Rotary Club

Speaking on the "Place of Light in Human History" at the meeting of the Newton Rotary Club last Friday, Mr. Julius Daniels, Past President of the Society of Illuminating Engineers, outlined the history of man-made illumination from its earliest beginning 10,000 years ago up to the present day. Emphasizing our indebtedness to Thomas Edison whose 99th birthday will be observed this month, Mr. Daniels said that Edison not only supplied the inventive genius but also organized financial resources to bring about the lighting industry as we now know it. In the last 40 years he said the cost of lighting has been reduced 40 times with the further prospect of continual reduction in the future.

Mr. Daniels exhibited various examples of lamps including the animal-fat, moss-wick, Neolithic lamp, the Roman lamp in use at the dawn of the Christian Era, the whale oil lamp, and Benjamin Franklin's two-burner, all of which were precursors of present day methods. The speaker was introduced by Harold Secord.

On Tuesday of this week the Newton Rotary Club sponsored the information of a Wellesley Rotary Club at the Wellesley Country Club. Joseph E. Perry of the Newton Rotary Club was the speaker.

The regular Friday meeting of Newton Rotary will be omitted this week because of the holiday.

Kiwanis Club

Mr. Robert Cusick, recreation supervisor of the Boston Park Department, entertained the Newton Kiwanis Club, Wednesday, February 13, with movies of the 1945 World Series games between the champion Detroit Tigers and the Chicago Cubs. Hank Greenberg and company managed to sink the Cubs, but it required seven full games and a lot of heads up baseball to do the trick.

It was announced that the Fifth Division Council meeting will be held at the Hotel Commander, Cambridge, on Tuesday, February 19th. The Newton Service Clubs will meet with the Chamber of Commerce in the Normandy Room, Norumbega Park, March 20th. Dr. Ernest Marcoux announced that members of the Newton Kiwanis Club will journey to West Roxbury on February 21, attending the Kiwanis meeting there as guests of the Roslindale-West Roxbury Club. Police Chief, Nicholas Vedeucio, inducted Max Robson into the club at this meeting. Mr. Henry Gaffney, of the American Red Cross, will be the speaker at next week's meeting, and will show moving pictures of various Red Cross activities.

Newton Club Activities

Newtonville Woman's Club

The regular meeting of the Newtonville Woman's Club was held on Tuesday, February 19th, at 2:30 p.m. Miss Estelle G. Marsh, president conducted the exercises. Two verses of America, were sung, Mrs. William F. Ferrin at the piano. The members stood in silent remembrance of Miss Margaret C. Worcester, the last remaining charter member of the club, whose death occurred recently. Mrs. Clifford O. Mooney, corresponding secretary read an appeal for volunteer workers at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital. Help is especially needed in the kitchen, dining room and fountain. Thursday is Newtonville day at the hospital, any one who can give a few hours on that or any other day, telephone FB. 6326, and ask for Mrs. Johnson.

Mrs. Hugh A. McCrea, chairman of Ways and Means, announced her plans for the Coffee-Dessert Bridge to be held at the clubhouse on March 26th. Many attractive features will be found, among them, door prizes, an "elephant table" etc. For reservations, phone, BG. 2973.

Several interesting announcements were made by Miss Marsh. On February 27th and 28th, the Mid-Winter meeting of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs will be held, the first day at the Hotel Statler, and the second day at the Schubert Theatre. On the afternoon of the 27th, the program will be sponsored by the Herald-Traveler. On Thursday morning by the Christian Science Monitor, and in the afternoon, by the Boston Globe. Many outstanding speakers will be heard. On March 20th, at the Copley Plaza Hotel, the annual Music Festival of the Federation will be held.

Miss Marsh introduced Mrs. Graham Bates who spoke of the continued needs of the American Red Cross, which will soon begin its drive for funds. Although the actual fighting has ended, the continuation of all the services of the Red Cross, both here and abroad, is of great importance. Another guest presented by Miss Marsh, was Mrs. Charles Kolster, of Somerville, State Recording Secretary of the Federation, who brought a message from the state organization. Mrs. Kolster is also a member of the Committee for the American Home, and has worked closely with Miss Marsh, who in addition to being the State Corresponding Secretary in the Federation is also a Counsellor for the Department of Fine Arts.

Mrs. Kenneth A. Bernard, lyric soprano, accompanied by Mrs. Harold G. Osterland, delighted the large number of members and guests with a group of songs. Vol. che Sapete, by Mozart; Si me vers avaiate des ailes, by Reynaldo Hahn; Lift thine eyes, by Logan and the ever delightful Russian song, The Sleigh by Koutatz.

The speaker for the afternoon was Mr. J. David Townsend, who recently returned to this country after twenty nine years in Algeria and France. Mr. Townsend for many years was the director of the Memorial Centre in Paris, and in that capacity he met many of the outstanding figures in French thought and culture. He paid an outstanding tribute to the women of France, their charm and seriousness, and their devotion to their homes and children. He described the wide division between the wealthy classes who live on the Right Bank, and the middle and laboring classes on the Left Bank, a division which was lessened by the terrible suffering endured by both classes under the iron boot of Hitler. Mr. Townsend was interested in the effect of the right of the suffrage which has recently been granted to women in France, he gave great praise to the attainments of the French women, and commented on the great number of women lawyers, and doctors, as well as teachers. In France married women are valued highly as teachers, it being believed that they have a greater understanding of children.

The next meeting of the Club will be on March 5th. This is the annual Bank Day, through the courtesy of the Newton-Waltham Trust Company. An outstanding speaker and musical program is planned. This is an open meeting and all friends of members and the Bank are invited to attend. Tea will be served.

The Newton Smith College Club will hold its February meeting at the home of Mrs. William M. Bassett, 15 Howland road, West Newton on Monday, February 25th at 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. John N. Eaton, who recently attended the Alumnae Council meetings in Northampton as a delegate from this club, will give the Council reports.

Following the reports, Miss Cynthia Brown, an accomplished pianist, will entertain. Miss Brown, daughter of one of the club members, is an artist pupil of Mr. Heinrich Gebhard. She has won highest honors four times in the National Federation of Music Contests, and she has played publicly many times. Miss Brown hopes to enter Smith next Fall where she will major in music.

Afternoon tea will be served at the conclusion of the meeting.

fifty Valentine favors were sent to a nearby veterans' hospital. Pupils in Miss Tobin's and Mrs. Hubbell's home rooms assisted in making and packing them.

A United Nations project is now on display in the glass panels in the art room. Costumes, occupations, and scenes typifying each nation are featured in the colored paper posters which adorn the panels.

The clay objects made by Grade 8 have been taken to the Dorchester pottery to be fired.

The new Student Staff for the second half of year will begin their duties on Monday, February 25.

If you attend "What's Cooking in our Neighborhood Pot?" on Tuesday evening, April 30, 1946, at the Y. M. C. A., you will see an interesting demonstration of Italian cooking and will have a chance to taste all the recipes made.

The Newton Nutrition Center is presenting this program to the citizens of Newton as an opportunity to broaden knowledge, pleasure, and appreciation of many different kinds of food and to help get greater understanding of the variety of customs in American living and eating.

The recipe below is a sample of the type of dish that will be prepared at the meeting. Have you ever tried cooking rice Milanese style—or as the Italians say—Risotto alla Milanese?

One onion, ¼ cup fat or oil, 1 cup rice, water or chicken stock, pepper and salt, grated cheese.

Chop the onion very fine and cook it in the fat or oil until it is yellow and soft. Wash the rice and add it to the onion and butter. Cook for ten minutes, stirring constantly. Add salt and a small amount of water or chicken stock (about ½ cup). Cook slowly, adding more water or stock from time to time as the rice absorbs it (about 2 cups in all). Total cooking time from 30-45 minutes. The rice can be used separately or as a base for a sauce. Sautéed chicken livers, to which has been added a half teaspoon of grated lemon rind

Lasell Junior College

The speaker at the Monday morning assembly was Mr. J. David Townsend who was for twenty-five years a resident of Algeria and France. His topic was "North African Berbers."

Lions Club Observe Scout Week

By Marvin R. Gould
Thursday, February 14, was the occasion of a successful banquet held by the Newton Lions Club at the Y.M.C.A. with Sea Scout Ship 13, in honor of Scout Week.

Asa D. Blakeslee, King Lion Aesop opened the meeting with the singing of America and the Salute to the Flag. The invocation was then given by the Reverend Arthur Block of the Lutheran Church of the Newtons. After an excellent dinner, Blakeslee introduced Jack Tapper and Charlie Hall of the Lions Club who led in the singing of the Lions hymns, "Sailing," "Father and Son Song," "Newton Lions Club," "Mules, Hams & Eggs," "O Lad of Mine," "Now Which One Do You Wish," "Lions Roar," "End of Lions Day," "Don't You Hear Those Lions Roar," "Ice Breaker Song," "I Want a Girl," and the "Bells of St. Mary's."

Blakeslee then introduced the head table guests who were: Marvin R. Gould, Bill Woodruff, of International News Service; Lee Frazier, of the Lions International; Chaplain Arthur Block; F. Brittain Kennedy, Commissioner of Scouting of the Norumbega Council; Charles Hall, Chairman of Sponsors Committee of Ship 13; Calvin R. Brown, Zone Chairman of the Lions International; Abbott L. Rodenhiser, Skipper of Ship 13; Allan McIntyre, Commodore of the Squadron; and Dolph Sanborski of Harvard.

The compliment of Ship 13 were then presented a set of colors by their sponsors, the Lions Club. Blakeslee, who made the presentation, stated:

"Skipper and men of Ship 13: You and your sponsors have done a lot of sailing these past two years. Sometimes the weather has been pretty thick and we have battled heavy seas but we have never been in distress. Time has trained your crew and their experience under a determined Skipper has brought your ship safely to port with honors. Your sponsors are proud of the Ship's complement and the fine seamanship that has been demonstrated. As a token of their high regard for your crew and for you personally, the Newton Lions Club presents to your Ship this stand of color.

The skipper of Ship 13 accepted the colors and thanked the Lions Club by replying, "King Lion and members of the Newton Lions Club, on behalf of the Ship's complement, Sea Scout Ship 13 and myself, it gives me great pleasure to accept this stand of color from the Newton Lions Club. I sincerely believe it will long be a source of inspiration to our members and it will symbolize for the boys the friendship and kindness which our sponsors have given our organization. We will endeavor to be worthy of that friendship."

Cal Brown then introduced the

Treasure Chests in Pigeonholes

Not all treasure chests are buried. In fact thousands of them are right nearby... tucked away in the desks of farsighted men and women to whom a deposit book from a mutual savings bank now means as much as discovering a pirate's cache of gold doubloons and precious jewels.

By opening a savings account and adding to it regularly each week or each month, your dollars will soon grow and multiply into an amount sufficient to make many of your dreams come true. Systematic saving is the key to fulfilling such ambitions as owning your own home, travel to foreign lands, a college education for your children, and financial security when you retire.

As experts in planning budgets—in systematic saving—we would be glad to open a savings account for you and help you with financial problems such as temporary loans, financing repairs on your home, or the possibility of saving money on life insurance premiums.

B. F. Goodrich Silvertown

OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES!

It has been proved. More than 2,000 tests and nearly 17,000,000 miles of the toughest kind of road service showed that this new B.F. Goodrich Silvertown will Outwear Prewar natural rubber tires.

New, better rubber. B.F. Goodrich has developed a rubber that's far better than ordinary synthetics. It helps the new Silvertown wear better and run cooler. It has greater resistance to cracking—and actually stands bruising and damage from accidents better.

Tire body 35% stronger. An entirely new, stronger cord is used, more of these cords are used in the top ply, an extra shock-absorbing breaker strip is included. The result: a body that is 35% stronger for additional resistance to bruises, extra blowout protection.

Flatter tread covers more ground. Called the "road level" tread, it puts more rubber on the road, permits all the tread to share the wear. Result: a further increase in mileage, less scuffing, better distribution of weight, better traction, more safety on the turns.

Plus 3 years' EXTRA experience. Three years before any other manufacturer, B.F. Goodrich sold tires containing synthetic rubber to American car owners. The extra know-how piled up in these years is reflected in the new B.F. Goodrich Silvertown.

Plan To Enlarge Y.M.C.A.'s Camp Frank A. Day in Brookfield

Plans for nine new cabins at Camp Frank A. Day in Brookfield to replace tents for Junior boys, a much enlarged play space for campers, and headquarters for the Junior Head Counsellor, were among the plans announced for Camp at the Annual Reunion Dinner last Saturday evening at the Newton Y.M.C.A. Henry T. Dunker, chairman of the Camp Committee, was toastmaster.

Frank M. "Doc" Simmons, who will start his second year as director, was master of ceremonies for the evening program. About 200 parents, campers, and friends attended the dinner. The features of the evening included the showing of beautiful colored slides which were taken by Burton Woodward at camp last summer, and an entertainment by Elliott Smith, outstanding local ventriloquist and magician.

In announcing new plans for the cabins and expanded play space, Harold B. Gores pointed out that this was part of a long range program by the camp committee to modernize the camp to make it one of the outstanding boys camping institutions in the state. The cabins will be ready for the campers for the 1946 season.

"Doc" Simmons is surrounding himself with a group of staff men and leaders of the highest calibre. Reginald E. "Smitty" Smith will again supervise the waterfront, and Chef and Mrs. Fred L. Brown, the popular heads of the food department, will again be on hand this year. Other appointments will be announced shortly.

Nat. Bank's Centre Office to Have New Quarters

A long term lease has been taken by the bank on the property at 1221 and 1223 Centre street at the corner of Pelham street.

Extensive alterations will be made to the building including a new front. The interior will be completely remodeled as modern banking quarters. A new vault with safety deposit facilities will also be installed.

The growth of the Newton Centre office of the Newton National Bank has made necessary these new and larger quarters.

It is expected that the remodeling will be completed and the bank will occupy the building early in 1947.

Jean Ferguson Becomes Exec. Sec. Community Council

MISS JEAN FERGUSON

Miss Jean Estelle Ferguson of 104 Elliot avenue, West Newton will assume her duties on March 4 as Executive Secretary of the Newton Community Council. It is announced by Harold B. Gores, Chairman of the Council.

Last October Miss Ferguson returned from 15 months overseas with the American Red Cross. She was stationed in Perth, Australia serving with the United States Navy at the submarine base of the 7th Fleet. Previous to her service with the American Red Cross Miss Ferguson was secretary to Lt. Col. Wilhite at the Boston Ordnance District.

Miss Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Ferguson, is a graduate of the Newton High School and The Erskine School of Boston.

1946 Red Cross Fund Campaign Starts March 1

Newton's Quota Is $90,000 - 1500 Volunteers Participate in Drive

The Red Cross 1946 Fund Drive is ready to start Friday, March 1st, with 1500 volunteers participating. Newton's quota is $90,000, $60,000 of which goes to the National Fund and $30,000 is for Chapter needs.

By His Honor
PAUL M. GODDARD
Mayor

Although the actual fighting is over there is still much to be done for our soldiers, both here and abroad. The American Red Cross ministers to their needs, and in addition carries on its peace time activities with which we are all familiar. The Red Cross stands by, ever ready to help in time of suffering, for it is one of our great humanitarian agencies.

As in previous years, the month of March will be observed as Red Cross month throughout the nation. Here in Newton the fund raising campaign will be conducted from March 1st to March 26th, and we are asked for our support and contributions, in order that the work of this organization may continue to meet all the demands made upon it.

The amount needed in Newton is $90,000, of which $30,000 will be retained for the work of the Local Chapter in our own city. Newton citizens will surely respond to this call, as they have done so generously in the past, and we again respectfully ask for your help in this most necessary work of the American Red Cross.

PAUL M.W.
Mayor
Newton, Mass., Feb. 14, 1946.

Miss Paolini to Attend YWCA Convention

Miss Viola Paolini of 11 Jasset St., Newton, will leave Friday to join some 3000 other delegates at Atlantic City for the 15th National Convention of the YWCA of the U.S.A., from March 2 to March 8. Miss Paolini will represent the Beta Gamma Club of the Boston YWCA at this first convention in six years, which will deal with the many momentous post-war issues now facing the 44 communities throughout the United States in which the YWCA operates.

The National Fund takes care of such service to the Armed Forces and Veterans as hospital and convalescent service; home service assistance; emergency financial aid; morale-building supplies and special welfare and recreational service. It sends emergency relief and supplementary aid in the form of food, clothing and medical supplies to civilians in war-ravaged areas. At home in the United States the National Red Cross furnishes relief in any disaster—floods, hurricanes, fires or epidemics.

The $30,000, remaining in Newton aids the veterans in transition from military to civilian life in such service as consultation and guidance in personal and family problems; financial assistance on the basis of need during the transition period; help in finding proper agency to meet specialized needs; aid in preparing and presenting claims for government regulations and laws affecting veterans and their dependents and advice and assistance in educational opportunities available under the GI Bill of Rights.

The "Gimmies" Wreck Socialized Medicine

The government of New Zealand is seriously considering whether that country's free physician service will be continued. The record of New Zealand's compulsory health insurance reveals that the cost of disability pensions and medical care benefits tripled between 1940 and 1945. The rise was due to increasing costs of various classes of benefits, as well as to the addition of new classes of medical benefits in 1941 and 1942. Some types of benefits, namely permanent and temporary disability and maternity benefits, show a fairly constant cost level over the last few years. On the other hand, hospitalization, medical care and pharmaceutical, and supplementary medical benefits have shown substantial increases almost every year since their inception.

This shows that New Zealand has been unable to keep the costs of operation of compulsory health insurance on an even keel, due to factors not strictly of a social nature. One of these is the human tendency to take advantage of benefits offered under a compulsory system; another is the political pressure for increases in rates and duration of benefits, as well as for increase in coverage. Both these factors are difficult to evaluate in terms of statistics, but they exist.

New Zealand has had compulsory health insurance since 1939, and in these years of trial its operation has become more costly with every year that passes.

This is something for America, now burdened with a Federal debt of nearly $300 billion, to think about when it considers entering the field of socialized medicine.

Awning and Screen Material Critical

Mr. John M. Walker, President of the Home Specialties Company, Inc., of Newton Center, having just returned from a convention in Hartford, Connecticut of the New England Awning & Tent Manufacturers' Association, was interviewed by a reporter of this paper and advised him that the awning situation is critical due to the O.P.A. ceiling on cotton goods. The manufacturers of cotton are not allowed to weave enough goods for the suppliers to paint into awning stripes. He advised that if there are any customers interested in recovering their present frames or obtaining new awnings, to place their orders immediately while there

Politics With Color

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note.)

Warning

Let us not become too excited about the various votes passed by the lower branch of Congress. Remember that what counts is the final result. If and when the upper branch, the Senate, joins with the House in passing one of these vital bills, such as the Case bill or the bill which drastically curbs the arrogant power of Czar James Caesar Petrillo, then and then only can we breathe a sigh of relief.

Take the Case bill, for example. The House passed it by a tremendous majority. It is currently before the Senate, where there seems to be every likelihood that it will be very much emasculated. It may be watered down to the same extent as the President's full employment bill. The same fate may be awaiting the Petrillo bill, which passed the House by the huge margin of 223 to 43. In other words, why not write or wire our two United States Senators, Hon. Leverett Saltonstall and David I. Walsh and tell them in no uncertain terms just what you would like to have them do? The Case bill may seem somewhat drastic and some argument may be advanced for toning it down a bit. However, it must NOT be toned down too much. The same holds true of the Petrillo bill, tho' there would seem to be less necessity here for any drastic revision.

Gov. Tobin

It may seem a tempest in a teapot, but for a short time it looked as tho' His Excellency had pulled a boner. Later on it developed that the Governor had not intended to cut the Lt. Governor off from his customary privilege of standing in the receiving line at the State House at the Washington Birthday reception. Incidentally, the reception this year turned out to be more or less of a frost. As the Herald stated, however, why should we get excited about going all the way in town on a holiday to shake hands with our state officials when they are not passing out nylons or butter?

Speaking of these two men, it will pay to watch developments rather closely during the next few months. The battle is on and both men are already sparing' for openings. Several astute observers with whom I have chatted recently have stated that a great deal will depend this fall on the national situation, especially as it pertains to the general business situation and the trend of in-international affairs. In other words, if President Truman succeeds in getting order out of the current chaos before next fall and if the UNO appears to be accomplishing something of importance, it will make it easier for the Governor to turn back the Bradford challenge. In the meantime, if the G.O.P. is smart, it will spend a great deal of time in currying favor with the so-called labor vote and with the great middle-class vote. There is always a tendency on the part of the Republicans to spend too much time on the business vote and the vote of the relatively well-to-do. Nowadays, this is extremely foolish, for the simple reason that these elements now comprise a minority of the grand total vote. Think that over.

MURIEL EDISON

Miss Muriel Edison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark A. Edison of Newton Center, has been cast in one of the lead roles in the forthcoming Marietta College Players' Club production, "The Man Who Came To Dinner," which will be presented March 5-9, at the college's Little Theatre. Miss Edison, a sophomore, has been active in dramatic work since coming to Marietta last year. In the current production she has been cast as Maggie, the long-suffering secretary of Sheridan Whiteside.

Board of Aldermen

When I was driving home late the other night after a prolonged business banquet in Boston, I saw lights in City Hall and stopped. Sure enough, our Board of Aldermen were still at it hot and heavy at 1:30 A.M. Seems to me I heard something about a special committee having been appointed to ascertain if there was not some way in which the work of the Board could be organized to allow the distinguished Aldermen a chance to have a bit more sleep on the first and third Mondays of the month. I wonder what became of that committee. Our Aldermen are not all young and they do need more sleep. After all, they are giving freely and most generously of their time and they should not be expected to sacrifice their health.

The Pauley Nomination

What interests me about the nomination of Edwin W. Pauley as Undersecretary of the Navy is not so much whether or not Mr. Pauley can be exonerated of the charge, or at the least the strong intimation that he ever sold oil directly to Japan, as it is the stubborn insistence of President Truman that Pauley be voted on by the United States Senate. One would think that our Chief Executive, having grasped a very hot potato in his two hands, would jump at the chance to drop the potato in the sink. It is extremely

As viewed from Washington street, West Newton, the new Pierce school building seems to be mainly roof, which promises to be still more aggressive and prominent when the thing is completed. Possibly the appearance may improve, but the casual looker-on can not help wondering how the young idea can ever be taught to rise through such a roof as that.

Rev. Harry Lutz announced last Sunday at Channing Church, Newton, that while deeply grateful for the action of the society at its annual meeting in voting not to accept his resignation, he never-the-less felt that the wisest course was to adhere to his action. Dr. Hornbrooke.

Newton Man General Manager S.W.P. Corporation

Edward J. Stewart, President of the Smaller Business Association of New England, in an announcement made today, stated that Richard C. Cooke of Newton, former New England Regional Director for the Smaller War Plants Corporation, would become General Manager of their organization on March 1st.

Mr. Stewart further stated that "our drive for 5,000 new members begins on March 1st, and Mr. Cooke will have full supervision over this project. Due to his long connection in Government service during the war, and his wide acquaintanceship with Small Business throughout New England, in addition to his having successfully conducted his own business, Mr. Cooke comes to us fully qualified to conduct the affairs of our Association."

In a statement by Mr. Cooke, he said "Small Business generally appreciates the necessity for a strong organization to protect its operations in a peacetime period. We do not expect or need preferential treatment from the Government, but we will demand legislation and Government regulations that are equitable to business, labor and the public. The immediate future will demand forceful action by Small Business to clear away the several obstacles that are blocking a speedy return to full production and gainful employment."

"Small Business does not intend to sit and wait but will attack the several forces which are blocking and limiting its growth and welfare. Specifically, there must be first, more equitable and speedy distribution of Government surplus materials and commodities. Second, better access to critical materials and components needed by the small plants of New England. Small Business which in the aggregate employs the major portion of New England workers, must be accorded equitable treatment if the returning veteran and displaced worker are to have their rightful opportunities."

Mr. Stewart also announced that their new offices were located at 120 Boylston Street, Boston, Mass., with a staff of trained personnel.

Newton Red Cross Production Gets Big Quota Of Relief Garments

Mrs. Charles E. Spencer, Jr., Chairman of Production for Newton Red Cross, has just announced the acceptance of an emergency quota of 1000 children's garments.

"During the war years," says Mrs. Spencer, "Our workroom volunteers did a job of which they can be proud. They performed a gruelling, monotonous task which entailed for many a real sacrifice of time and energy. Since V-E Day, there has been understandably enough, a marked slackening of effort, but I feel sure we can count on them to help us meet this real need."

Mrs. Spencer went on to say that the question has been asked, "Is there a real need?" There is. The need is probably greater today than at any time since the war began. Millions of civilians have lost all of their possessions. They are now struggling to maintain a bare existence in the rubble of former cities, in unheated, damp caves, in crude shacks.

As soon as material arrives the workrooms will be notified and more available information will be given out at a later date.

Flower Show's Diamond Jubilee March 18-23

Two old-fashioned gardens will feature the 75th annual Spring Flower Show at Mechanics Building, Boston, March 18-23.

"Since it is our diamond jubilee," stated Arno H. Nehrling, show director, "we have created two gardens of the year 1870—when these Spring Flower Shows first began."

"One such garden, staged by Sherman Eddy of Avon, Connecticut, is a grandmother's garden of nostalgic beauty and rare New England charm. An old weathered farmhouse will be bowered in white lilacs and partly hidden by thickets of spirea. The garden fence will be all but hidden by flowering almond trees while the woods behind will be shaded by a grapevine. Hosts of yellow daffodils will border the well and the rain barrel.

"Another garden of 1870, staged by Frost and Higgins of Arlington, will be of the suburban type. Cast iron fixtures so typical of the period will include urns and a fountain. Trees will include magnolias, weeping willows and lilacs while the typical carpet bedding of the period will be carried out by borders along the lawn.

"A different kind of garden will be up to the minute—a living

Paramount Theatre Performances Now

When the management of the Paramount Theatre, Newton, can make it more pleasant for its patrons, it does it. Many requests have been made that afternoon performances begin at 1:45 and evenings at 7:45. This policy of change in hours was adopted as of Monday, February 25th.

As announced in the Graphic recently, the Paramount's family night policy was changed to Thursdays, (Mondays remaining the same by popular request).

Hereafter the feature attraction will be shown first, and Monday and Thursday evenings at 8 p.m.

Thus, Paramount's new hours are as follows:

Afternoons—1:45.
Evenings—7:45.
Saturday matinee—1:30.
Sundays and holidays, continuous performances.

memorial to members of the armed forces. This garden, by the Bay State Nurseries, North Abington, will be both a gorgeous display of evergreens and flowering shrubs and trees and an example of adequate and appropriate design for its purpose.

"And, of course," Mr. Nehrling concluded, "there will be many other gardens and displays, from the California hillside bright with acacias down to halls each filled with roses and carnations."

PLAN BEFORE YOU PLANT

PLAN YOUR GARDEN ON PAPER FIRST. Consult your seedsman for suggestions as to better planting, fertilizing and general care. Also ask him about new or more choice varieties of seeds. Eliminate those grown not well liked by the family but fill in that space with another choice. Increase your variety of foods to be selected from.

OUR SEEDSMAN, Mr. Norman Howden, has been in this business for 48 years. His record is a proven one. You can depend on his advice.

Prison Association Supervisor to Speak At N. Centre Church

Miss Mary Elizabeth Cole, Supervisor of the Women's Division of the United Prison Association of Massachusetts, will address the Women's Benevolent Society of First Congregational Church, Newton Centre, at a luncheon meeting Tuesday, March 5. The meeting was arranged by the Social Relations Committee.

Miss Cole, who has had wide experience in social work, recently returned to the United States from Newfoundland where for three years she was Director of the U. S. O. Club at St. John's. Before the war she was for seven years Director of Women's Activities at Franklin Settlement, Detroit, Michigan. A graduate of Cornell College at Mt. Vernon, Iowa, Miss Cole also served as a rural county social worker in southern Iowa.

The United Prison Association is an incorporated social agency affiliated with the Boston Council of Social Agencies. It is engaged in combating crime by aiding in the rehabilitation of men and women discharged from State, county, and federal prisons and jails. The Association also sponsors and supports progressive penal legislation and conducts a program of public education on penal and crime problems.

S.P.C.A. Photographic Contest Announced

Eric H. Hansen, President of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, 180 Longwood avenue, Boston, yesterday announced its annual, nation-wide photographic contest which will close June 30th. Cash prizes amounting to $95.00 and ten additional prizes of subscriptions to Our Dumb Animals, official monthly publication of the Society, are offered for clear, outstanding photographs of wild or domestic animals and birds.

All contestants are urged to submit pictures that tell a story—for instance, pictures of wild life feeding or building homes, or of domestic animals in surroundings showing care and thoughtfulness for their comfort. The Contest is open to professionals and amateurs alike, but entries will be accepted only from those who have actually taken the photographs.

Information concerning the rules of the competition may be obtained by writing to the Contest Editor, Our Dumb Animals, 180 Longwood Avenue, Boston 15, Massachusetts.

We do not mind zero temperatures much . . . as long as they are confined to some other geographic location.

Genevieve Tocci Joins Staff of Dancing School

GENEVIEWE TOCCI, professional dancer and teacher of Waban recently added to the staff of Kiralfy's School for the Dance in West Newton.

Kiralfy's School for the Dance, recently opened at the Neighborhood Club, West Newton, announces through its Director, Nona K. Leonard, that the school staff had been augmented by the addition of Miss Genevieve Tocci. Miss Tocci, a native of Waban, has had extensive training and experience in the dance since she was a child of three, eminently qualifying her to assist in bringing the Kiralfy tradition of the dance to the parents of Newton's children.

Starting as a child dancer of three, Miss Tocci performed in many of the Boston theatres and shortly joined a weekly radio program over a local station. At twelve, she toured the RKO

Squanto District of Norumbega Council Holds Joint Meeting

Joint meeting of Cub Scout Pack 6 and 22 was held Thursday night February 21, at the Newtonville Women's Club, to view the film entitled "Cub Scouting."

Cub Chairman for Cub Scouts in Squanto District, Robert G. Toher, was in charge of the meeting which was attended by Cub Scouts and their parents of Squanto District.

These films are being used as a basis for instruction on how to conduct a Cub Scout Circus which is the theme for the month of April for the Cub Scouts of Norumbega Council.

Keith circuit as a member of the Dolanettes. With the outbreak of the war, Miss Tocci joined the USO with her brother as a dance team and they entertained the members of the armed forces until her brother himself entered the service, leaving his sister to carry on alone.

As a member of the Stage Door Canteen and the American Theatre Wing, Miss Tocci continued to dance for the servicemen until the cessation of hostilities. A graduate of Newton High School and trained at the Bishop Lee Dramatic School, Miss Tocci has just returned from New York where she completed the Teacher Training Course of the Dance Educators of America. With this training in ballet, musical comedy and tap dancing, she and Nona Leonard offer a well founded program in teaching children the rudiments of the dance. Classes are held each Saturday morning with separate classes for various age groups.

'Y' Swimmers 2nd in Championship Meet

In the annual Mass.-R. I. Y.M.C.A. Championship Swimming Meet held last Saturday afternoon at the Charlestown Army-Navy "Y" the Newton "Y" Midgets (boys 13 years of age and under) placed 2nd in a field of 8 teams entered. The Newton swimmers were nosed out by Charlestown, with 16 and 17 point totals respectively. Last year the Newton swimmers won the championship.

For Newton, William Gray won 1st place in the 20 yard breast stroke, and the local Medley Relay team, comprised of Richard Whelan, William Gray and Anthony Amendola, won 1st place in that event. Richard Whelan took 2nd place in the 20 yard back stroke.

The Midget team will close its season with a dual meet against Melrose "Y" next Saturday afternoon at the Newton "Y" pool. The meet is scheduled to start at 3 o'clock, and is open to the public.

The "Y" Junior swimming team is now in training for the Junior Two-state Championships, which are scheduled for the Boston "Y" pool on Saturday, March 9th.

Support Your Local Red Cross

STILL THE Greatest Mother OF THEM ALL!

TWENTY-NINE years ago, in 1917, your Red Cross was given the proud title, "The Greatest Mother In The World." Today after the greatest struggle in history, that title has been retained. The list of services your Red Cross has given our Servicemen — your Servicemen — is almost endless.

Blood plasma made the difference between life and death to many thousands of our men. Food parcels packed by the Red Cross meant survival to many of our men in prisoner of war camps. Medical kits and capture parcels were provided wherever possible. Red Cross workers distributed release kits to thousands of prisoners as soon after their liberation as possible. Red Cross Clubs have sprung up by the hundreds all over the world . . . wherever the Armed Forces went . . . supplying a warm touch of home for lonely, homesick lads.

Red Cross hospital workers talk to the men — laugh and play games with them — provide amusement and recreation facilities to shorten long, dreary days. The cheerful smile of an American girl helps banish loneliness and boredom . . . helps a man keep his chin up when things look pretty dark.

And on the home front, wherever fire, flood or other disaster strikes, the Red Cross is ready with relief for the suffering.

Yes, your Red Cross is literally mother to many millions . . . friend of the friendless . . . comrade in time of need. And its work must go on. Hundreds of thousands of our men are still overseas. They need the Red Cross, and they need it now.

It is your Red Cross. The gift you give is its only income. Without you, the Red Cross can not carry on. Don't put off giving to the Red Cross. Give today!

YOUR Red Cross MUST CARRY ON . . .

Newton Tames No. Quincy 31-26

Prepping for the Eastern Tech Tourney to be held at Boston Garden from March 8th-March 9th, the Newton High School basketball five defeated North Quincy, 31-26 at the Newton Gym last Wednesday afternoon. It was a post-season game; the Tigers finishing its regular season with a 14-1 win record to top the Suburban League Hoop title for the third straight year and win its third successive invitation to the Tourney as a Class A entry.

North Quincy, by the way, was the team which beat the Newtonites in the first round of the Tech games last year. The season before that, 1944, the Orange and Back up Newton Bedford Vocational in a thrilling overtime in the opening match only to lose out to Brockton in the semi-finals.

Coach Warren Huston intends to start the same winning five combination which swept thru the Suburban league and other opposition this year — save a startling upset by Waltham late in the season. Bob Scanlon and George Patterson will hold down the forward spots, lanky and elusive Rod Jennings will tower in the bucket, and husky Art Weinstock will share the guard duties with Gordy Carlisle.

In the exhibition with North Quincy, the Tigers after a poor and dull first half came to life in the third and fourth periods to break a 13-13 deadlock at half time. Two baskets apiece by scrappy Scanlon and Stretch Jennings, and one each by Weinstock and Patterson put the Huston five ahead 25-13 at the close of the third stanza. They were never headed after that; as Jennings and Carlisle sank free tosses, Jenny plunked in another basket, and Weinstock bucketed a beauty of a rush dribble underhand hot-shot. With two minutes remaining the Tigers played cautiously and neither side scored.

HOP SHOTS: Coach Huston making sure that his offense and defensive operations will be in working order by Tech Tourney game time, played one substitution and that was Brimbleton. . . . The Tigers played in regular season form although it didn't seem so. Quincy was just surprisingly different to Newton's high rating and prowess. . . . Weinstock reminds this writer of Harold Peck, the star guard of the 1944 Tourney team. He's tough, rugged and bulky. That was some roar that went up when he bowled over five students behind the backboard trying to recover a loose ball. . . . Bob Scanlon is really a fast stepper, and a tricky operator. . . . 15 year old and 6 foot-five, Jennings will be the man to watch at the Tourney. If he's hot, Newton will be hot, but if Jennings is stopped, the Orange had better be perfection in its other departments. Under the tutelage of Coach Huston this lad should become another Tony Lavelli of Yale, formerly the ace center at Somerville High. . . . Hacker Martin the captain and teammate of Peck's in the 1944 Newton team on the sidelines remarking "a grand club and they ought to go far in the Tourney." . . . This "46" club is fast, has sharp shooters, and stands as a scrappy outfit.

Army Answers

Q. I was a World War I widow and remarried. Now I'm a widow again. Am I entitled to widow's pension again? G. M., Montpelier.

A. No, if you refer to reinstatement of a pension based on your first husband's military service.

Q. Is a soldier with two dependent children eligible for a discharge? M.Z., Salem.

A. No. There must be three minor children.

Q. Does a veteran still write to the Chicago address about non-receipt of war bonds bought while in the Army? S.T., Concord.

A. No. He should write to the new address—Army War Bond Office, Central Field Fiscal Office, Building 204, 4300 Goodfellow Boulevard, St. Louis 20, Missouri.

Q. What is the amount of the Federal Bonus for World War II? A.M., Boston.

A. There is no World War II Federal Bonus at this time. Certain proposals are under way in Washington.

Q. Now that commercial steamship travel is opening up where can a veteran get information about travel in the British Isles? R.P., Augusta.

A. Write to The Travel Association of Great Britain and Ireland, 6 Arlington Street, St. James, London, S.W.F., England.

Q. Is an officer entitled to hospitalization for a service connected disability while on terminal leave? T.B., Hartford.

A. Yes. He should report to the nearest Army hospital.

Q. Where can I, a veteran of World War II, write about my soldier deposits? A.C., Covington.

A. Write to Office of Special Settlement Accounts, U. S. Army, 27 Pine Street, New York City, New York.

Q. Where is the Army Regional Hospital for New England? T. S., Bangor.

A. The Regional Army Hospital in the First Service Command is located at Waltham, Mass.

No man ever likes to admit that he has been wrong—women escape this embarrassment by never being wrong.

This notice was posted in the Lingerie Department of a Denver store: "During the flu epidemic, we will not change underwear."

They're about the best in New England when they all play heads-up ball and click all at once. We hope they show the best in the Tourney. . . . Newspaper men at the game commented on the lack of long shooting by Newton. More shots at the basket mean more points but then maybe Huston ordered them to save these shots for the big games next week. The first half was close since Newton didn't figure on North Quincy's dogged offense nor stubborn defense. The first basket wasn't made until 4 minutes terminated. . . . Sid Cedrone, the Quincy play maker, should make the South Shore All Star Team. . . . he's a cool and collected ball handler and a crack shot player.

Newton Residents To Attend Conference

Mrs. F. Reed Estabrook, Jr., of Chestnut Hill, Mrs. J. B. Jamieson of Newton Centre, and Mrs. L. Sumner Pruntye of Newton are among those planning to attend a conference on "Population Problems in a Free World" on Monday evening, March 4th, at the Harvard Faculty Club in Cambridge.

The conference, which is sponsored jointly by the National Council of Jewish Women, the Planned Parenthood League of Massachusetts, and the Public Health Division of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs, is under the chairmanship of Karl Sax, Professor of Botany at Harvard.

Speakers will be Professor John D. Black, Agricultural Economist, Harvard University; Dr. Robert C. Cook, Editor of the Journal of Heredity; and Professor Frank H. Hankins, Sociologist, of Smith College.

Professor Sax, in commenting on plans for the conference, stated that "the population problems of the world are complex, controversial, often paradoxical. Yet they must be solved if there is to be any hope of establishing the Four Freedoms everywhere in the world."

The conference is open to the public.

Newton Girl Active in Red Cross Work in Guam

Evelyn G. Grey, American Red Cross worker from Newton, Mass., is one of nine Red Cross girls who are learning history the easy way from 6000 veterans of the Third Marine Division "sweating it out" in Guam. "Just listening we have learned first-hand why Iwo Jima was important to our Pacific campaign," Miss Grey explains. "Essential as an air base to shorten the bombing runs to Japan, it had to be taken, although from the modest personal accounts you would never realize the bravery incurred by Marines here. Instead they credit everything to he 20,000 men who died."

Miss Grey, with eight other Red Cross girls, daily starts out for the Marine Corps Red Cross Club which operates from 3 p.m. to 10 p.m. At the conclusion of their day's activities, the Red Cross girls usually return to headquarters through the green battle-scarred hills to enjoy a foot-soaking session. "Those heavy boots necessary to slog through the volcanic sands here can be awfully wearing for dancing," Miss Grey comments.

Miss Grey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Greenspan of 175 Waverly street, Newton. She is a graduate of the Leland Powers school of the Theater and was employed as an assistant buyer for the Jordan Marsh Co. before joining the American Red Cross September, 1944. Miss Grey also played summer stock with the Boothby Co., in Massachusetts.

Will Present Alan Booth, Former Newton Youth, As Guest Artist

The Spring Concert of the Highland Glee Club will be held at the High School Auditorium on Tuesday, March 19, presenting as soloist Alan Booth, who graduates from Oberlin College this spring, where he has majored in music. The Glee Club has shown an individual pride in presenting Booth to their audience and there is bound to be a splendid turnout to hear this talented lad who has grown up in the Newtons.

Their increasing list of Sponsoring Members will be interested to know that the club is giving concerts, in addition to their regular spring concert, in Brockton, Boston and Lexington. In fact, they are quite pleased that the appearance in Lexington is the second given in that town this spring.

The club is endeavoring to bring before the citizens of Newton as modestly as possible that, as a singing organization, they have continued through the years due, in a large measure, to the faithful following of comparatively few supporters. There are too many instances where male choruses not only have the enthusiastic following of the communities with which they are identified but are considered a definite part of the community, which could not always be applied to your Highland Glee Club.

It really begins to look, however, that they had at last succeeded in establishing a place for themselves in the city, which has been due in no small measure to the efforts of the men within the organization. Mr. Walter H. Sears, chairman of the Sponsoring Membership Committee, has rendered yeoman's service the past three years toward accomplishing this coveted objective.

Rehearsals go on with much fervor and no little excitement not only in presenting Alan Booth but likewise a unique and tuneful program.

Hunnewell Club

On Saturday night, March 9th, The Hunnewell Club is having a Mask and Costume Prom. In addition to dancing, they are planning to have some of the old-time features such as prize waltzes and two-steps, novelty dances, etc., including a grand march. Music will be furnished by Ken Reeves' Orchestra, and a buffet will be served at midnight.

Newton Community Club

Don't Buy Your Easter Bonnet Until you see the Newton Community Club's Hat & Accessory Show at the Hunnewell Club, April 3, at 1:30, following which, Club members and guests will play bridge and other games, such as Chinese checkers or gin rummy, for table prizes. Mrs. Herbert Dwight and Mrs. Alban Rosene head the committee for dessert.

A Hat, Bag & Accessory Show will be presented by Young's Millinery Shop, 188 Harvard Avenue, Alston, under the direction of Mrs. Ronald Jones. Thirty new and attractive Spring styles will be modeled by Club members.

The hooked rug class will exhibit its work also.

Club members are especially urged to bring friends from other clubs and bridge groups to this party.

The directors and officers of the Club are meeting Friday morning March 1, at 10:30, at the home of Mrs. David Black, the president, to formulate further plans for this affair.

Social Science Club

Due to the postponement of the regular meeting of the Social Science Club on February 27, an extra meeting will be held at 10:45, March 6, at the Hunnewell Club, when Mrs. Samuel Cutler will read her paper on the "Mexican Cession."

Newtonville Woman's Club

On Tuesday, March 5th, at 2:30 p.m., the Newtonville Woman's Club will hold their annual observance of Bank Day, presented through the courtesy of the Newton-Waltham Bank & Trust Company. This feature of the Club was originated by Mrs. Irving O. Palmer, of Newtonville, a former president of the club and a member of the Women's Advisory Committee of the Bank. Officials of the Bank will be among the special guests of the afternoon. Mrs. Palmer will introduce the distinguished speaker, Dr. Thomas P. Brockway, author and lecturer, who will speak on "Prospects for Peace." Dr. Brockway has held professorships at Dartmouth and Yale Universities and is the author of "Battles Without Bullets," and "A Peace that Pays." Musical selections will be given by Madam Nina Spaulding, violinist, accompanied by Mrs. Rachel L. Gilmour.

Bank Day at the Club is an open meeting and all friends of the Club and the Bank are cordially invited to come and enjoy the afternoon program. Mrs. Ralph G. Swain, Fourth Vice-President of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Club will be a platform guest. The exhibition of paintings done in the Aleutian Islands by Lieut. Warren Beach, which were to have been on view in December, but which were delayed by the blizzard, will be displayed in the Social Hall. Several large oils of the Islands and Alaska, and many smaller water colors, are in the exhibition. Lieut. Beach is a graduate of the Yale School of Art and spent several years in and about Alaska.

Pourers at the tea will be, Mrs. A. Perry Martin, Mrs. Alfred N. Miner, and Mrs. Perez B. Howard.

Auburndale Review Club

"Our Nation's Libraries" is the subject of the first paper, to be presented by Mrs. Walter R. Amesbury, at the meeting of the Review Club of Auburndale, at 10 a. m., on March 5. Other features of the program are as follows: "Edgar Hoover and the F.B.I." a paper by Mrs. James G. Patterson; "The Iron Horse in America," by Mrs. C. H. Bierman. The hostess for the day is Mrs. E. J. Wilson of 41 Aspern Avenue.

A new member of the club who has just been elected is Mrs. E. W. Kingsbury of 526 Auburn street. The membership is limited to forty women residing in Auburndale, each of whom, with the exception of the president and secretary is expected to prepare a paper once a year.

W. Newton Women's Educational Club

The regular meeting to be held on Friday, March 8, in the Second Church Parish House, Deseret at 1:00 p.m., will be followed by a reception for new members. At 2:00 p.m. Mrs. Frank Ogilvie, president, will conduct the business meeting after which Mrs. Charles Gibson, Program Chairman, will present Ranzy, who will speak on "What the Stars Hold for You." Each sign of the Zodiac is completely covered, everyone's birthday is analyzed in a fascinating and humorous manner. Miss Estelle Marsh, Corresponding Secretary of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs will be the special guest. Mrs. Malcolm Warren is Hospitality Hostess.

The American Home Class will meet on Wednesday, March 6 at 12:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. C. David Gordon, 35 Lindberg Avenue. Mrs. S. R. Williamson is luncheon chairman. Miss West of the Middlesex Extension Service will speak and the movie "Spinach" will be shown.

Junior Mothers Rest Club

The Junior Mothers Rest Club of Newton Centre will meet on Wednesday, March 6, at the home of Mrs. Robert F. Cordingley, 38 Lake Avenue. Before the business meeting luncheon will be served at 1:15 by Mrs. John W. Merrill and Mrs. Robert F. Miller assisted by Mrs. Willis B. Clough, Mrs. Albert N. Thompson and Mrs. Cordingley.

Home Crafters Club

The next meeting of the Newton Homecrafters Club will be held Monday evening, March 4, at 7:30 p. m., at the shop of Russell V. Mead, 56 Halcayon road, Newton Centre.

Newton Kiwanis Club

Miss Dorothy Hickie, representing the American Youth Hostels, addressed the Newton Kiwanis Club's noon meeting, at the Y.M.C.A., last Wednesday. The American Youth Hostels, Miss Hickie said are open to the "young in spirit." One member, an infant of six months, having used hostel facilities recently in the company of her parents, while an elderly woman of sixty enjoyed a South American trip arranged by the organization last year.

The hostels, with national headquarters in Northfield, Mass., are dedicated to those who would know the country better, according to Miss Hickie, and are usually in charge of "House Parents" who enjoy helping young people. The hospitality of American youth Hostels has been enjoyed 700,000 times by passers during the past year, Miss Hickie concluded, and the A. Y. H. Magazine is published four times a year giving first hand information such as subjects as trips, clubs, projects, travel hints, churches, first aid and notes from the field.

Kiwanis News.... Five members from the Hyde Park-West Roxbury Club braved the storm to attend the Newton Club's meeting. President William Sullivan announced that Kiwanis will soon complete the fire alarm project at the New England Peabody Home for Crippled Children. There will be a board of directors meeting at the Newton Co-operative Bank, Newtonville, March 4, at 7:30 p.m. Leonard Baker presented the Club with an attractively lettered plaque dedicated to the welcome of visiting Kiwanians. Edward W. Gallagher of the Boston Better Business Bureau, will be the speaker at the Kiwanis Club's luncheon at the Y next Wednesday.

Mather Class

The Mather class will meet on March 13 at 9:45 a.m. in the First Baptist Church. Subject "Windows Over the World: China among the Powers."

Mothers' Rest Club

On Wednesday, March 6, at the home of Mrs. George Graves, 891 Beacon street, Newton Centre, the members of the Mothers Rest Club will meet to complete plans for their annual spring bridge luncheon. Before the meeting and the afternoon of sewing, Mrs. Graves will serve lunch, assisted by Mesdames Charles Estabrook, Hermon Holt Jr., E. F. Rockwood, Harry M. Sutton and Charles W. Wallour.

Opportunity for Aspiring Authors

New writers wishing to submit material for consideration for use on "The Carrington Playhouse" to start over WNAC and Yankee-Mutual stations on next Thursday, from 8 to 8:30 p.m., should write for entry blanks to "Carrington Playhouse," Post Office Box 140, New York, N. Y.

The Early American House

PICTURE AND TEXT FROM BOOK OF HOMES Published by The Co-operative Banks of Massachusetts

The architecture of the early Seventeenth Century Colonial House is mainly distinctive for its simplicity. It was based mostly on economic necessity and therefore the rooms were small and low-studded. Construction was simple and the principal framing was of the most easily obtainable wood which would stand the test of time. These houses were generally devoid of molding or ornament, but their fine outlines and good composition arrest the eye today.

The house shown is of this early type, with a 2-story front and a 1-story lean-to at the rear. It has an exceptionally good plan. This general type lends itself to the utmost economy. It has a good living-room, dining-room, kitchen and study on the first floor. The study is located next to the lavatory and can be used quite well as an extra bedroom. Upstairs there are three excellent bedrooms and a bath.

What your RED CROSS Chapter does in NEWTON

YOU KNOW what the Red Cross has done overseas in World War II. The World knows it. Another glorious page in the history of your Red Cross is being written.

Each of the 3,754 chapters in the nationwide Red Cross network... just as our local chapter... did its full share to make possible all the help and comfort given our fighting men. But that is only half the story. Here is what your Red Cross chapter is doing now and will be doing for years to come.

Home Nursing. The Red Cross teaches the fundamentals of home nursing to many citizens. They learn how to care for simple illnesses, under the doctor's direction.

Junior Red Cross. Boys and girls learn first aid, accident prevention, water safety, nutrition, and home nursing in order to become citizens of tomorrow.

Disaster Relief. In the United States last year, the Red Cross gave relief in 260 disasters. Experience has shown that no community is immune. Our local chapter has a disaster committee set up and ready to act at the initial warning of catastrophe... to provide emergency shelter, food, clothing, and medical care for the helpless victims... to save lives and relieve suffering. And after the first shock has worn away, comes the long job of rehabilitation.

Home Service. The Red Cross Home Service worker is a home town troubleshooter for the serviceman and his family. Our Red Cross chapter has Home Service workers available for duty day or night... trained, practical people, equipped to act in emergencies. The Red Cross two-way communication system reaches around the world, so that in a sense the serviceman is no further from his loved ones than our Red Cross chapter.

First Aid. A crash on the highway... a slashed wrist... severe shock without proper attention, all can produce serious results. Our chapter in cooperation with individuals and organizations maintains mobile first aid units and highway first aid stations manned by trained first aiders, who help care for the victims of traffic accidents until the doctor arrives. First aid, water safety, and accident prevention classes are conducted throughout the country.

THINK of the many thousands who look to our Red Cross for aid and comfort in lonely hours of desperate need. Think what its many services and safeguards can mean to our town... to you, and your loved ones. Then remember that your voluntary services, backed up by your contributions, make it possible for Red Cross to carry on in our community. Your individual gifts are its only source of income. Without you and your neighbors, there would be no Red Cross. Give to the Red Cross today.

Dining With Jane and Bill

Bill—Hmm! Something smells good! What's cooking?
Jane—Can you guess?
Bill—Well, it's something different, I know that much.
Jane—That's right. You've talked about it so often since we had dinner at Tony and Mary's that I thought you would guess right away.

Jane—Right!

Bill—Well, at last. It is one of my favorite Italian dishes. Junior will be interested; he has been asking about the food customs of other countries at school.

Jane—I decided it was about time I learned how to make it, so I talked with Mary yesterday. She was so helpful and had lots of other recipes that we will have to try soon.

Recipe for Veal Cacciatore:

- | | |
|--------------------|-------------------------|
| 1 can tomato soup | 1 lb. veal (cut up) |
| 2 peppercorns | 3 onions (diced) |
| 1 tsp. horseradish | 3 green peppers (diced) |
| Fried noodles | |

1. Make sauce of tomato paste, tomato soup, peppercorns, horseradish and water; simmer for three hours.
2. Braize veal and add to sauce after it has cooked with onions and peppers for one and one-half hours.
3. Serve with fried noodles. Serves four.

Other Italian recipes will be demonstrated at "What's Cooking In Your Neighbor's Pot?" which will be held on Tuesday evening, April 30, 1946, at 8 p.m. at the Newton YMCA.

The donation of the overbed tables is one of the many hospital activities being carried on by the Newton group under the direction of its chairman, Mrs. Harold A. Leventhal.

On Friday afternoon six members of the club will hold a weekly diversional crafts class for patients at the Veterans' Hospital in West Roxbury. Mrs. Nathan Joseph is in charge, assisted by Mrs. Leventhal, Mrs. Paul Karol, Mrs. David Sherer, Mrs. Stanley Rosoff, Mrs. Morris Rosenberg and Mrs. Louise Cohen. The club members assist the patients in various arts and crafts, including metal and leather work and finger painting.

turns for candidates for representative to the state secretary. The latter shall transmit them to the Governor and council for canvass and notification of the elected candidates. This is now the procedure for certification of the records of votes of the state officers, and will make for simplification and uniformity in the election machinery.

This is a change which has long been urged by the Mass. Town Clerks Association and the Mass. City Clubs Association. In districts composed of several towns it has been a difficult process to get in the returns promptly. There are districts in the western part of the state which consist of from 10 to 18 towns.

Which of these 13,000 Mortgage Plans Will Fit Your Needs Best?

Should you make a large down payment, a small one, or (under the G. I. Bill) none at all? Pay off the principal of your loan in 10, 15 or 20 years—or some other period? Make payments monthly, quarterly, yearly?

Questions like these must be answered for each customer, individually—for your home financing problems are different from any other person's. That's why it will pay you to consult our bank, which has been making mortgage loans for 116 years—and which believes it has the most flexible loaning powers of any kind of lending agency in the community.

We have a booklet showing more than 13,000 monthly mortgage costs for loans of varying sizes, for varying lengths of time, and at various rates of interest. Somewhere in that wide range must surely be the one mortgage combination best suited to your needs. Come in and let us discuss your home financing problems—today! A Message to Mr. and Mrs. Citizen From The Newton League of Women Voters CALLING ALL WOMEN

The League of Women Voters is not only open to all women but eager to have as many as possible join. No woman needs to wait to be invited to become a member. Any woman may take the initiative herself and ask to become a member. The dues are maintained at $2.00 a year in order that no one may be barred on financial grounds. Application for membership may be made to Mrs. William K. Mattson, 28 Brookdale road, Newtonville.

A membership in the Newton League makes one automatically a member of the Massachusetts and National leagues. Indeed, these last are merely the associations of local leagues. They function through executive officers and boards, chosen by the local League members to carry on the work at the state and national levels.

The work of the League falls into two main divisions, education and the promotion of measures which are deemed in the interest of the public as a whole. Interpreted broadly, "education" means the acquiring and spreading of information on policies, measures, and candidates for public office. The "promotion of measures" attending hearings in legislative committees, writing to Congressmen, and, also, sometimes working against harmful proposals.

League members belong to all parties and represent all shades of opinion. The policies and measures upon which the League shall act are determined by the majority vote of the members in specific or general directives to the local, state, and national boards. Because of its non-partisan character and also because of the democratic method of deciding its activities, the League does not scatter its effort over every issue but works hard for or against those things which its members hold to be most vital to the general interest.

League members have a two-fold satisfaction. First: through literature and speakers they receive up-to-date information on public affairs, giving them clear and accurate knowledge which is invaluable to them in following the sometimes confused and often conflicting statements of press and radio. Second: they have the satisfaction of feeling that they are sharing actively in this democratic government of ours, doing all that a plain citizen can do for the welfare and advancement of city, state, and nation.

Newton Red Cross trains volunteers for Veterans' Hospitals and civilian Hospitals—nurses' aides and gray ladies; dietitian aides; arts and skills, and educational aides to work with sick and wounded service men; motor corps drivers; home service volunteers and many others. The need for Red Cross trained volunteers will continue to exist for many months to come, for civilian hospitals can expect little or no relief until the needs of military hospitals are filled.

Red Cross leads in community preparedness—training Newton residents in home nursing, first aid, nutrition, life saving and water safety. Through the co-operation of Red Cross, Newton is participating actively in the procurement and distribution of blood plasma for civilian use, so that all citizens of Massachusetts may receive free of charge, any necessary transfusions.

When your neighbor comes to get your contribution please have it ready because Red Cross must carry on.

from Harvard in 1940. During the summer of 1938 he worked in the American Embassy in Paris, having previously spent much time with his father during Joseph P. Kennedy's service as American Ambassador in London. In 1940, Jack Kennedy wrote "Why England Slept," a study of British rearmament policy which received wide attention and favorable comment throughout this country.

In September, 1941, Jack Kennedy joined the Navy and served in motor torpedo boats throughout the stormy course of the Solomon Islands campaigns. He commanded a PT boat which was rammed and sunk off Bougainville while attempting a torpedo attack on a Japanese destroyer, and was picked up eight days later. He was awarded the Navy and Marine Corps medal for "extremely heroic conduct for saving three men's lives and also received the Purple Heart. For a year thereafter, he was hospitalized as a result of injuries and was retired from the United States Navy last April.

John Hersey, author of "A Bell for Adamo," wrote a saga of the exploits of Lieutenant Kennedy and his crew in the South Pacific which appeared in the New Yorker 1944 under the title "Courage," and was later reprinted in the Reader's Digest.

As a reporter, Jack Kennedy covered the San Francisco Conference for the Chicago Herald-American and afterwards represented International News Service at the British election in Ireland and Europe.

At the present time, Mr. Kennedy is serving as general chairman of the 1946 Convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars which is to be held in Boston during the later part of next August.

A. L. Auxiliary Sponsors Coffee Hour at Hospital

The Newton Unit, American Legion Auxiliary sponsored a Coffee Hour at the Waltham Regional Hospital on Sunday, coffee, candy, cookies and cigarettes were served. The pourers, Mrs. Catherine Chandonait and Mrs. Ruth DeManno, were assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Paterson and Mrs. Anne McPherson.

Several of the younger members of the unit served as junior hostesses. The entertainment consisted of songs by Miss Peggy Lambert, accompanied at the piano by Miss Marion Hiltz and selections on her electric guitar by Herbert Bradbury. Following the entertainment in the recreation room they visited several of the wards entertaining patients who were confined to their beds.

The party was under the direction of Miss Margaret McPherson, president of the Newton Unit. Miss Anna Mannion, county chairman for the Waltham Regional Hospital expressed satisfaction and pleasure to the Newton group and invited the hostesses to take part in a dance to be held at the hospital on March 8.

tralia. Mrs. McKinley will speak Wednesday noon, March 13, at a luncheon meeting under the auspices of the Women's Council, Mrs. W. D. Russell presiding. Her topic will be "Under The Sea To Sambo." The women of the Newtonville Congregational Church will be guests. The meeting will be at the Second Congregational Church, West Newton.

Mrs. McKinley, wife of Dean James F. McKinley of Silliman University, Dumaguete, Philippine Islands, is, like her husband, a Congregational educationalist under the American Board of Foreign Missions. The McKinnleys first went to the Islands in 1930 and have had one furlough.

When word came of Pearl Harbor, the McKinnleys were forced to decide whether they would flee to the mountains in hope of evading the enemy, or stay and surrender. They chose flight, and for over two years they lived a life of impending disaster, often escaping from one hiding place after another only a few hours ahead of their pursuers.

What they did, how they managed to survive on food often taken straight from the jungle; how their Filipino friends risked freedom and even life to protect them; how they dwelt with pagan tribes; how they tramped barefoot over mountain trails or shot wild rapids on flimsy bamboo rafts, is only part of what Mrs. McKinley can tell. In those two and a half dramatic years the family lived in no less than 23 different places and were forced to make sudden flights at least 11 times.

Mrs. McKinley, in addition to her duties as wife and mother, was Assistant Professor of Music at Silliman University School of Theology. She taught courses in the fundamentals of music. She showed the young deaconesses and ministers' wives how to get real music out of a little folding organ and how best to teach and sing hymns.

Her home was a hospitable center, with the lute strung always out. Prayer groups met there and students flocked in for advice on personal problems, including love and marriage. The undernourished found not merely comfort but eggs, milk and simple remedies for their ailments. At the McKinnleys' there was always access to good music, and after church on Sundays groups would gather to hear the

Of equal interest, is the announcement that a well-known Newton man has been engaged to appear with the acting company next week. Mr. Edmund M. MacCloskey joins the company in the comedy "The Family Upstairs" the Broadway comedy hit, which ran two years in New York. Brattle Hall is famous not only because such stars of stage and screen have appeared on its stage, but because the nation's only stock company is now in its 72nd week, and selling out every night. Night after night, the Boston Stock Company has been playing to capacity audiences. Every great play in the history of the American theatre is to be presented by this company, ranging from "East Lynne" and "Charley's Aunt" to "Claudia." Some of the plays are so enthusiastically received that they are held over for a second and a third week. WEDDINGS

White - Wiley

A reception in the Church Vestry followed the marriage on Monday of Miss Barbara E. Wiley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sumner K. Wiley of 271 Waban avenue, Waban and Ens. Robert L. White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon L. White of 46 Wyoming street, Newtonville. The double ring ceremony was performed by the bride's uncle, Rev. Walter B. Wiley of the Pilgrim Church in Pittsfield, and Rev. Joseph S. MacDonald in the Union Church, Waban.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by Miss Margaret Hughes of Chevy Chase, Maryland, a classmate at Simmons College, as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Harriet Dinsmore and Prudence Speirs, also students at Simmons, and Dorothy Whittemore of West Roxbury and Jane Mullineux of Waban. The bride and her attendants wore satin brocade gowns of the same style, with the exception that the bride's white gown had a train. She carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas with orchids. Miss Hughes wore pink brocade satin and carried her roses and mixed sweet peas while the bridesmaids, two in yellow and two in aqua carried bouquets of mixed sweet peas. Barbara Neilson, in pale pink taffeta, was the flower girl.

The wedding ceremony followed commencement exercises at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, at which time the bridegroom was commissioned an Ensign. The best man and ushers were all classmates of the groom and also received their commissions as Ensigns. Ensign George Ley was the best man and the ushers were Ensigns Kenneth Davis, Gene Parrish, Edwin Tebbets and Louis Martin.

Ensign and Mrs. White left on a wedding trip to Maine, after which the bride will resume her studies at Simmons College and the groom will be stationed in Newport, Rhode Island. They both graduated in 1943 from the Newton High School.

Marquardt-Steinberg

Miss Elna Linnea Steinberg and Arthur Charles Marquardt, Jr. were married last Saturday in the Gordon Chapel of the Old South Church, Boston. White flowers decorated the chapel for the 4:30 o'clock candlelight ceremony performed by the Rev. Lee Delmar Bergsman. A reception followed in the Woman's Republican Club in Boston. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Frank Oscar Steinberg of 34 Waverley Avenue, Newton and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Marquardt of 20 Crofton Road, Waban.

With her gown of ivory satin, the bride wore a circular veil of net which was caught to an ivory satin cap. Her bouquet combined Eucharist lilies and orchids. Miss Jean Marquardt, sister of the groom, was the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Elsie C. Steinberg, sister of the bride, and Miss Elizabeth Ann Kobrook of Newtonville. The attendants wore ice blue taffeta gowns and carried bouquets of gladioli. Mrs. Steinberg in royal blue chiffon and Mrs. Marquardt in rose crepe both wore corsages of orchids.

Bradford Riley, of Needham, was the best man and the ushers included John Milton of St. Louis. Frank Steinberg, brother of the bride, Theodore Woolston of Newton and Fred C. Wells of Lexington.

Mr. Marquardt was graduated from the Hickox Secretarial School in Boston. Mr. Marquardt recently completed his terminal leave after serving with the Army, Corps of Engineers, in both the European and Pacific areas. He was graduated from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, where he was a member of Delta Upsilon.

Corbin - Nevin

A wedding of Newton interest which took place last Thursday in St. Mary's Church of the Washington Cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul was that of Mrs. Mary Saltonstall Nevin of 50 Tyler Terrace, Newton Centre, and William L. Corbin of Washington, D.C. Canon Theodore Q. Wedel performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at the Wardman Park Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Atwood were the attendants.

Mrs. Corbin is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Francis G. Saltonstall of New York and is a descendant of Governors John Endicott and John Winthrop of Massachusetts and of Governor Gordon Saltonstall of Connecticut. She is the widow of Charles K. B. Nevin. Mr. Corbin was graduated from Amherst College and studied at Yale, Harvard and Oxford. He was the husband of the late Ethel Olin Corbin. He recently retired after 19 years as librarian of the Smithsonian Institution and Custodian of the Smithsonian deposit in the Library of Congress. Mr. and Mrs. Corbin will live in Washington and Newton Centre.

THE FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

In The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, and in all of its branches, a Lesson-Sermon will be read on Sunday, March 3, on the subject, "Christ Jesus."

The Golden Text, "Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth . . . And this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS," is from Jeremiah 23:5, 6. Other Scriptural selections include, "And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth" (John 1:14).

Also included in the Lesson-Sermon will be the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, "Divine Truth must be known by its effects on the body as well as on the mind, before the Science of being can be demonstrated" (p. 350).

EGIDE DESORCY

Funeral services for Egide Desorcy, a veteran of World War II, who died suddenly on Sunday, February 17, were held Thursday morning. A high mass of requiem was celebrated in St. John the Evangelist Church by Rev. Silvio Barrette. A delegation was present from Waltham Lodge of Moose. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham with prayers by Fr. Barrette.

Mr. Desorcy was in his 47th year. He was the son of the late Louis and Victorine (Aubin) Desorcy of Canada. During World War II he served with a pursuit Squadron of the Army Air Forces.

He is survived by his sister, Mrs. Harold Bouffier of Newtonville and two aunts, Mrs. Joseph Frechette and Mrs. Philip Rousseau of Newton.

OLOF OHLSON

Olof Ohlson of 9 Central avenue, Newtonville, who for 44 years was master designer at the Waltham Watch Company and also was the creator of time-fuse mechanisms used by the United States in both World War I and World War II, died at his home on Monday, February 25. He was in his 82nd year.

Mr. Ohlson was born in Gefle, Sweden where he learned the watch and clockmaker's trade. He came to the United States in 1888 and the following year became affiliated with the Waltham Watch Company, where he remained until his retirement in 1933. During that time he was credited with having developed all models of the timepieces and was considered the watch company's foremost technical designer.

At the Panama Pacific Exhibition in San Francisco in 1915 Mr. Ohlson was awarded a diploma and gold medal and in 1922 he won world-wide recognition when he was decorated by King Gustav V. of Sweden with the Order of Vasa, the decoration being conferred at Boston by Sweden's Royal vice-consul, in recognition of his engineering and scientific work.

A large clock which was recently displayed in a window of the Grover Cronin clock store in Waltham in connection with the publication of the book "Timing a Century" was designed by Mr. Ohlson for the Crystal Palace at the London World's Fair.

He is credited with having contributed more to time-fuse perfection than any other man in the world. Among patents issued to him were those for the coupling release, setting device and locking device for time fuses, the time-fuse for artillery projectiles, a mechanical time-fuse for projectiles and an improved setting lock.

After retiring from the Waltham Watch Company, Mr. Ohlson established the Ohlson Metal Products Company in Waltham. He retired completely from business about ten years ago.

He was an honorary member of the Horological Institute of America, a member of the American Societies of Chemical Engineers, Swedish Engineers, Steel Treators and Applied Physics, the American Association for the Advancement of Science, and the John Erickson Society. He was also a 32nd degree Mason, affiliated with Isaac Parker Lodge, A. F. and A. M., the Royal Arch Chapter of Waltham and Gethsemane Commandery of Newton, and was a member of Governor George Lodge, I. O. O. F. and Norumbega Lodge, Knights of Pythias of Waltham. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Eleanor (Anderson) Ohlson, a sister, Mrs. Lars Olsson of Hedsunda, Sweden, two nephews, Rev. George C. Ekwall of Waltham and Dr. T. Rold Ekwall of Northampton and a niece, Mrs. Thelma E. Bellis of Waltham.

Robert J. Snow of 32 Co-chituate road, Newton Highlands, was elected to membership in The Boston Life Underwriters Association at a meeting of the Board of Directors February 5, according to an announcement by William H. Daley, Jr., President of the Association.

Numbering over 900 members, the Boston Life Underwriters Association is the oldest organization of its kind in the country—a trade association of life insurance agents and officials who strive to advance the life insurance industry and to bring those engaged in the business into more intimate and friendly relations with one another.

The next meeting of the Association will be a luncheon, Thursday, February 28th, 12:15, Hotel Statler, Boston. The guest speaker will be Timothy W. Foley, General Agent of the State Mutual Life Assurance Company in New York City, who will talk on "Merchandising Life Insurance Through the Use of Visual Sales Aids."

Reception to Archbishop Cushing

Saint Ignatius' Parish, Chestnut Hill, will hold a Reception to His Excellency, Most Reverend Richard J. Cushing, Archbishop of Boston, in the Grand Ball Room of the Copley Plaza Hotel, Boston, Thursday evening, February 28, 1946 at 8 o'clock.

An attractive program has been arranged under the direction of Mrs. James J. Byrnes, Chairman for the occasion. His Excellency, Most Reverend Richard J. Cushing, will address the gathering and will meet the parishioners in an informal Reception.

The year 1946 marks the twentieth anniversary of the founding of Saint Ignatius' Parish, and the priests and parishioners are looking forward to a gala occasion.

The members of the Clover Club of Boston will present their version of "The late George Apley," early in the evening. The Clover Glee Club will sing their favorite numbers.

There will be dancing to the music of Ruby Newman's Orchestra under the personal direction of Sammy Eisen.

Attractive prizes have been arranged for those who wish to play bridge.

All the members of the parish have been invited to serve on the Reception Committee and the advanced sale of tickets points to a capacity gathering for the Reception.

Newton Centre Man Named A Director of Stop & Shop, Economy Stores
Lloyd D. Tarlin, assistant treasurer of Stop & Shop Supermarkets and Economy Grocery Stores, Boston, has been made a director of the company. It was announced today by Sidney R. Rabb, chairman of the board. Mr. Tarlin's election fills the vacancy caused by the death of Vincent J. Vonnor.

A graduate of Harvard University and the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, Mr. Tarlin came to the company in 1929, after a year and a half with Sears, Roebuck & Co. For the past 11 years he has held the position of assistant treasurer at Stop & Shop. Mr. Tarlin resides at 28 Lauderholm road in Newton Centre.

Fill your mind with wholesome thoughts and you will avoid using empty words.

habilitation of crippled and handicapped children and adults regardless of race, creed, or color. More than 108,000 buyers of these ten million seals gave their support to the Bay State Society and the goal this year is for the sale of more than eighty million seals. State headquarters are at 340 Main street in Worcester.

Archbishop Richard J. Cushing has consented to serve as a member of the Easter Seal committee as have also representatives or leaders of all the other religious faiths. Both Governor Maurice J. Tobin and Lieutenant Governor Robert F. Bradford are also members of the committee and the Governor has issued a radio appeal to all citizens of the Bay State to support this worthy organization in its even more worthy purpose of caring for the needs of the crippled and handicapped throughout the Commonwealth.

The Tub Thumpers of America, whose membership is that of leading publicists and newspaper men and women, are to aid in the sale of the Easter Seals as they have in many other worthy campaigns. Harry Browning, Chief Tub Thumper has given his endorsement to the Bay State Society.

Specific cases are being handled in such a way as to insure a new and better mode of life to the crippled and handicapped.

Missing Airman Now Listed as Deceased

Lt. Gerald M. Sullivan, Jr., U. S. N. R., son of Major Gerald M. Sullivan, U. S. A., in Tokyo, and Mrs. G. Madeline Sullivan of 1980 Commonwealth avenue, Brighton, who was reported missing on January 12, 1945, has now been officially listed as deceased by the Navy Department.

Lt. Sullivan served in Fighting Squadron 7 on the aircraft carrier Hancock. For "his daring tactics and cool courage under fire" in the Battle for Leyte Gulf on October 26, 1944, he was awarded the D. F. C. As a Helicopter Pilot, he fought all through the four months of the intense battling that culminated in the liberation of the Philippines. On January 12, 1945, Lt. Sullivan returned safely to the carrier from a bombing raid on a Jap-held harbor in the Camranh Bay off French-Indo China, during which his wing plane had been shot down. He organized a three plane search for his brother and led the way back in the fire of the shore guns. Lt. Sullivan raked the enemy with light bombs and rockets. He silenced many of the ground guns and held the fire of the remainder on his single plane, in order that a more thorough search might be made. While the planes of his fellow fliers were in a cloud formation, Lt. Sullivan's plane disappeared.

For this deliberate act of sacrifice, he has been awarded posthumously the Gold Star, signifying the award for the second time of the D. F. C.

Lt. Sullivan was graduated from Newton High School in 1936 and from Dartmouth College in 1940. At Dartmouth, he was a member of the Sigma Chi Fraternity and advertising manager of "The Dartmouth." He entered the service in 1940. His wife, Pattie C. Sullivan, lives in Detroit, Michigan and his sister, Mary Ann Sullivan, is a Red Cross recreational worker at Fort Devens.

Opportunity For Former Officers In Army Enlistment

BOSTON, January 16, 1946 — Former commissioned, warrant, and flight officers who had been released from military service between the period of May 12, 1945 and November 1, 1945, will now be given the opportunity to enlist in the Regular Army in the grade of Master Sergeant according to an announcement by Col. Charles L. Stephenson, Director of Military Personnel Procurement Service for the First Service Command.

Prior to this change in policy, Colonel Stephenson said that officers had to enlist in the Regular Army within twenty days of their last day of terminal leave in order to be sworn into the grade of Master Sergeant. This opportunity for officers who are now veterans will be available until January 31, 1946. This in no way affects officers who have been discharged since November 1, 1945 up-to-now, as these men will have to enlist within twenty days after their last day of terminal leave in order to enlist in the grade of Master Sergeant. Officers who are released after the 31st of January will still have the twenty-day leave. Colonel Stephenson added that further detailed information may be received from the U. S. Army Recruiting Station, 1601 Hancock street, Room 11 Quincy, Mass.

TIRE RATIONING ENDS
No more certificates! Once again every one is eligible to buy, and soon you'll be able to drive in and get immediate delivery on new tires for your car.

PRODUCTION OUTLOOK AT A GLANCE
Tire manufacturers have been unable to fill the great need for new passenger car tires. In case we do not have the right size tire for your car, we should be able to get it soon. Come in for full information.

HERE'S WHY you'll want the B. F. Goodrich Silvertown OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES!

It has been proved. More than 2,000 tests and nearly 17,000,000 miles of the toughest kind of road service showed that this new B.F. Goodrich Silvertown will Outwear Prewar natural rubber tires.

New, better rubber. B.F. Goodrich has developed a rubber that's far better than ordinary synthetics. It helps the new Silvertown wear better and run cooler. It has greater resistance to cracking — and actually stands bruising and damage from accidents better.

Tire body 35% stronger. An entirely new, stronger cord is used. More of these cords are used in the top ply, an extra shock-absorbing breaker strip is included. The result: a body that is 35% stronger for additional resistance to bruises, extra blowout protection.

Flatter tread covers more ground. Called the "road level" tread, it puts more rubber on the road, permits all the tread to share the wear. Result: a further increase in mileage, less scuffing, better distribution of weight, better traction, more safety on the turns.

Plus 3 years' EXTRA experience. Three years before any other manufacturer, B.F. Goodrich sold tires containing synthetic rubber to American car owners. The extra know-how piled up in these years is reflected in the new B.F. Goodrich Silvertown.

ON THE INSIDE

By MARVIN R. GOULD

This week's man of the week is none other than Newton High School's own Hockey Captain, Tony Esposito. Tony was the only Newton player picked for the first team of the Greater Boston All Stars, who played the Montreal Canadiens on Washington's Birthday. Tony was born in Newton December 13, 1927. At the age of 5 he began school at the Bowen School. He started his athletic career at Weeks Junior High School where he played football, basketball and baseball. While at Weeks Tony was the high scorer in basketball. Almost as soon as Tony entered N.H.S. he became a member of the Varsity Hockey Squad and now Tony is captain of the team. He also was a member of the football squad in his Junior and Senior year. Tony is one of the most popular and most liked boys in the Senior class as is shown by the various school and Newton Student Canteen offices he holds. Anthony is a member of the Legislature, Lunchroom Board of Review, Executive Committee at the Canteen, and he is Captain of the Lunchroom Squad on Mondays. He tells us that his favorite pastimes are Football, girls, Hockey, girls, Basketball, girls, Baseball, girls, and guzzling cokes. Oh yes, he also likes girls. When asked of his future he said, "After I graduate I hope to go to college if 'Uncle Sam' doesn't get me first. I hope that I may sometime become a football and hockey coach." Best of luck, Tony, and I know that you will soon see your ambition fulfilled the same as everyone that knows you knows that you will make good.

Chet Wiley, who expects to go overseas some time in the near future tells us that Johnny Recco now in the U. S. Army has opened another Recco's Market somewhere in Germany. . . . Bill Gould, last year's track captain, was home on leave from the U. S. Navy in Norfolk, Virginia. . . . Phil Bolster, former track and football star, is headed for a cruise to South America at the expense of the United States Merchant Marine. . . . Dave Crafts, hockey ace of one year ago tells this reporter that he thinks that he is caught in a draft. (Chilly, isn't it.)

We are glad to see Patrolman Ray Taffe of the Newton Police Department back on duty in Newton Centre square again. It is the sincere hope of this reporter, and all your friends, Ray, that you soon can forget about such things as a sacroiliac back. . . . Speaking of officers of the law, Joe Charleton is back on duty in the Ward street section again.

Your reporter has recently been informed by Mr. Walter H. Sears of the Highland Glee Club that at their next concert they will have the famed pianist, who was furthered in his career by their scholarship, Allan Booth, graduate of N.H.S., class of 1942. While at N.H.S. Allan was a member of the Glee Club and took part in several school productions. Tickets for this excellent production are on sale to N.H.S. students and their parents at the High School by Mr. Frederick O. Holmes who is an active singing member of the Highland Glee Club. (Sounds good.)

For sometime now many students have been griping to me about certain things that have been going on around Newton. They have asked me to print these gripes. I shall print these gripes on one condition and that condition is only if they write me a signed letter. I shall quote from these letters without adding my personal comments from time to time. Those who have been using their "hammers" may now use them in this column provided that they have facts to back up these gripes. Even if I disagree with these gripes, I shall stake my reputation so that these gripes may be heard.

Mass. Club of Fort Lauderdale Banquets On 1st Anniversary

On Monday evening, Feb. 18, the Massachusetts Club of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., held its First Anniversary Banquet at the Broward Hotel. The President, Chester T. Holbrook, well known Photographer and Yachtsman from Newton Centre, presided.

The meeting was opened with the singing of God Bless America by the gathering. Prayer was offered by Mrs. Florence Creighton of Quincy. A turkey dinner was enjoyed. A large birthday cake was made by Mrs. William C. Ross, Vice-President of the Club. Mrs. Ross is from Chestnut Hill, and is a prominent Club Woman. The cake was beautifully decorated in yellow and green with one green candle, during the lighting of the candle every one joined in singing Happy Birthday.

Special guests were introduced by Mr. Holbrook: Mr. Louis Perini, President of the Boston Braves and Guido Rugo, Vice-Pres., both of whom spoke a few moments to the gathering. Also Mr. John Quifin, General Manager and Mr. William Sullivan, Public Relations Director were present.

There was a short business meeting, the following officers were elected: President (re-elected) Chester T. Holbrook of Newton Centre; Vice-President, Mrs. Stuart Shepard of Brookline; Treasurer, Mrs. William C. Ross of Chestnut Hill; Secretary, Mrs. Angel F. Silva of Gloucester; Chairman of the Entertainment Committee: Mrs. Chester T. Holbrook of Newton Centre; Assistants, Mrs. Florence Creighton of Quincy, Mrs. Eben H. Hall of Swampscott, Mrs. Russell L.

Hutchinson of Raynham and Mrs. Chester B. Chapman of Winthrop; Chairman of the Publicity Committee, Mr. Robert T. Fowler of West Roxbury; assistants, Miss Caroline Porter of Salem, Miss Connie Wheeler of Newton Highlands, Mrs. Frank Richardson of Waltham, and Mrs. Roger Hadley of Winchester.

A splendid entertainment was enjoyed, consisting of some interesting and puzzling tricks by Donald Brown, magician. The musical part of the program was furnished by one of our best known Bostonians, Miss Marjorie Posselt, concert violinist. To Miss Posselt it was a real "Old Home Week" as more than half the audience remembered her as a pioneer radio personality on WEEL Boston, as "Marge" of the Friendly Maids and Neapolitan Dutch Girls. After an enthusiastic welcome Miss Posselt was happy to relinquish her place in the spotlight to her little accompanist, seven years old Gloria Longwood, her niece and pupil. Gloria, a third grade student at the Pine Crest School, is fast making a name for herself as a pianist and the ease with which she accompanied Miss Posselt's classical selections won the hearts of all. The singer of the evening, Miss Ruthanne Cavanaugh, 16 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cavanaugh of Burlington, Mass., is also a pupil of Miss Posselt. Possessed of a beautiful soprano voice and a charming personality, her renditions of "Morning Morning" by Ole Speaks; Dvorak's "Going Home" and "One Kiss" merited the ovation she received.

The Betty Barrett School of Dancing with Mr. Plummer, a Bay Stater from Roxbury, as their accompanist at the piano gave us several enjoyable dances. "Helpy Selpy Laundry" and a Hawaiian number was given by

Pres. Ell of N. U. Speaks at Newton Methodist Church

NEWTON, Feb. 24—"Despite the greed and selfishness of self centered pressure groups, despite the racketeer, deceiver and betrayer of public trust and regardless of the inhumanity of man to man, I firmly believe with Horace Mann in the improbability of the race," declared Pres. Carl S. Ell of Northeastern University in the morning service on Sunday at the Newton Methodist Church, Centre and Wesley streets.

Talking on the subject "The Living Faith," Pres. Ell asserted that "we are apt to lose our perspective when we look about us today and see political intrigue and the discouraging problems of peace. We are apt to feel utterly helpless and discouraged when we see racial and religious intolerance, the brazen betrayer the ensemble: Martha Hunter, Berne Manson, Cecile Walker, Marilyn Miller and LaVerne Prudeau. There was a special tap and acrobatic number by Bern Manson, and the Mexican Jumping Beans was performed by Sally Smith and Barbara Huffman. After much persuasion Mrs. Alphonse L. Barrette of Fall River, sang us a lovely solo, with Miss Dolly Morrow of Swampscott, at the piano. Miss Morrow, also played for community singing.

Nearly a hundred Bay Staters attended this party and became better acquainted. People were present from over forty different cities and towns in Massachusetts. The Meeting closed with the singing of the Star Spangled Banner.

of public trust and the narrow self-centered pressure groups.

"Yet we must have faith," he added. "It was a living vibrant faith that caused the Pilgrims to face possible shipwreck and famine; it was a living faith that inspired Thomas Jefferson to write the document that declared all men are created equal; and it was the same living faith that caused our forefathers to push the frontiers of this country west over rivers and plains and mountains.

Maid Convicted on Larceny Charge

A young woman, 18 years of age, who had been employed as a maid in the home of Vivienne King, noted dramatic lyric soprano, well known in theatrical and entertainment circles, of 28 Bullough Park, Newtonville, was arrested last Friday at Ashburnham, Mass., by Chief Nicholas Veducchio, Sgt. Philip Purcell and Inspector Joseph B. Lyons of the Newton Police Department. In the Newton District Court on Monday morning she was arraigned on a larceny charge and sentenced to an indefinite term at the Women's Reformatory at Sherborn.

While employed at the King residence she had disappeared with a Persian lamb coat valued at $1500, a cameo pin valued at $350, and a diamond ring valued at $600. She had pawned the ring in Boston and had purchased a railroad ticket to Los Angeles, California, but was apprehended by the police a short time before she was to have started on her trip to the West.

'My Sister Eileen' To Be Presented In Auburndale

"My Sister Eileen" has been selected for the forthcoming production of the Auburndale Club, to be given on April 5 and 6, under the direction of Maude G. Higgins.

The large cast was selected without difficulty from the many who reported for the try-outs a week ago. The part of Eileen will be played by Patricia Donovan of Auburndale, who is a graduate of Leland Powers School and who has had experience with summer stock companies. The sister, Ruth, will be played by Charlotte Appelt Reed, whom local playgoers will remember for the excellent acting in the past.

The part of Appopolous, one of the most laughable characters in recent plays, will be taken by Francis X. Carmody of Auburndale, until recently a Commander in the Navy.

The stage will be done by Fred Stearns who has so ably built the sets for Auburndale plays for the past twenty years. He will be assisted by Darrah Higgins. Helen Terkelson is the chairman of the drama committee.

General MacArthur's
word for it!

"The Red Cross has done a 100 per cent job in this theatre. Mathematical limitations alone prevent my saying the Red Cross services here have been more than 100 per cent."

—General Douglas MacArthur

SO speaks a distinguished eye-witness of your Red Cross in action. General MacArthur saw the Red Cross at your fighting man's side, all through the gruelling months of the Pacific campaign. He saw Red Cross huts in the sweltering jungle, bringing a touch of home to homesick, heartsick men.

He knows that wherever your fighting man went, your Red Cross went, too—that wherever, whenever that man needed respite and recreation, help with a personal problem, or just someone to talk to, the Red Cross was there.

He also knows, as you do, that your Red Cross cannot yet say, "Mission accomplished." It still has an enormous task to do.

One War is over... but another War has begun
Thousands of our men still in veterans' hospitals and in far-away lands overseas need comfort and cheer now, as they did when the bombs were bursting. And as our servicemen return to civilian life, your Red Cross must lend a helping hand.

And when disaster strikes here at home—fire, flood, tornado—your Red Cross must be ready with aid for the victims. Its war against human misery is never wholly won.

So remember—it is your Red Cross. It depends on you for its very existence. So give from your heart. Give generously. Give today!

your Red Cross MUST CARRY ON

Local Boys Sing Mountain Folk Songs

Along with a busy schedule at Newton High, Pete Cummings, Herb Bailey, and Angi D'Eugenio—all of Newton Centre—have found time to study American folk songs and to give pleasure to others in their colorful appearances and spirited program of fiddle jigs and cowboy songs. They are interested in the Junior Achievement activities recently formed at the high school and have been the features at three Cattle Shows in the western part of Massachusetts last summer; have played for square dances at several Grange meetings; and were heard in Newton and Wellesley on New Year's eve. More recently during their vacation they gave a special program of music at the New England Peabody Home for Crippled Children, on Wednesday February 20th for the children confined in that institution. Later that same week they were invited to present their interesting program as the guests of Brookline Lodge A.F. & A.M. where it was said they rivaled the singing of other well known radio stars singing this type of folk songs.

At their appearance in Brookline the "Melody Mustangs", as they call themselves, told some, thing of the early development of folk songs: "Bards and minstrels in medieval Europe sang to Lords and Ladies in their courts and to common people in the market places. Their tunes were retained and passed down from generation to generation to such peoples as Puritans, poor farmers and adventurers, who carried their culture with them to the new world. Ballads and hymns of old England were almost universally sung at first. Then, as life in the wilderness began to develop its own characteristics, the music sung in America began to differ from its English prototype. Localized verses are extemporaneously sung to old English melodies."

"Soon the adventure-seeking families in their covered wagons made heroic trips across the new wild country. They met Indians. They were confronted with sickness. However, the tough ones were able to complete their journey. In their new homes the pioneers found many occupations. Many dug gold; others found work driving western cattle from the winter pastures in Texas to the more fertile grassland in the North, then on to market. These cowboys adapted the tunes of the mountaineer in their own environment. They sang of the hard work on the Chisholm Trail. The subject of many of their songs naturally was the cows or doggies, that they drove . . . and since the cowboy's life was lonely, he often sang of the girl he left behind, often in a very melancholy mood . . . Another favorite pastime of frontier America was square dancing. Couples would take their places on the dance floor, the fiddle would ring out, and a 'caller' would sing the commands. Country dancing is still a great favorite with many country folk . . . The value of folk songs lie in their simple, direct way of telling the singer's feelings. Often he sings of his woes, or his blues."

With this as a background the boys have originated a program that touches on the development of folk songs in a way that has aroused enthusiastic response from the audiences they have appeared before. Its leader is seventeen year old Peter Cummings, an Honor Roll student and an Eagle Scout, who uses a guitar in accompanying his own

Salvation Army Officers Attend Convention

Forty Salvation Army Officers from various parts of the United States were delegates to the American Camping Association conference held last week at Hotel Statler, Boston. Major William Trigg of New York City was Salvation Army conference president.

Colonel Richard F. Stretton, Provincial Commander, remarked at the opening luncheon given Feb. 13 at The Salvation Army at South End Boys' Club, that the fresh air camps owned and operated by The Salvation Army for disadvantaged children should combine the spiritual aspects and aims of life with wholesome camping activities. Mrs. Colonel Stretton told the group of the facilities at Camp Wonderland at Lake Massapoag, Sharon, where she is a superintendent and where a staff of 125 persons serve.

A film on the proposed camp at Holliston was exhibited by Prof. Charles Baird, C. E., of Northeastern University. He described the natural beauties afforded at the spot and illustrated how the camp will be a model of sanitation. Following the movie, the meeting adjourned to the Statler.

Among the subjects discussed by Salvationists were: "Creative Crafts," "Religion in Camp," "Report of 1944 Field Visits," "Camp Facilities," "Camp and the Records," "Statistical Records and Inventory Forms for Camp," and "Individual Camper Records."

Herb Bailey balances off the trio with his fiddle which he exercises with rare skill and rhythm — and with which he adds always a bit of frivolousness and fun. Angi D'Eugenio with which he adds always a bit of frivolousness and fun. Angi D'Eugenio with his guitar and soft voice completes a harmony that makes the "Melody Mustangs" something to hear whenever one can find the opportunity to hear them.
